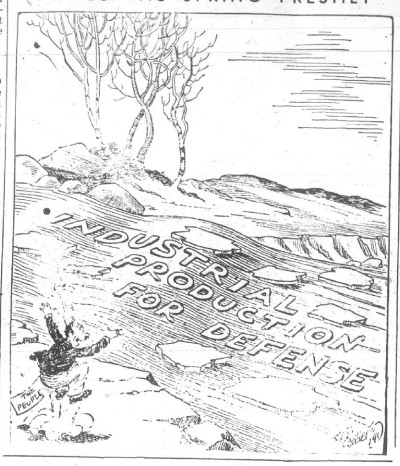
COMES THE SPRING FRESHET



Twice * WORTH VOTING FOR

DON KENNEDY knows what you expect of your state highway system. Before his appointment as State Highway Commissioner by Governor Dickinson he had for eight years been a driving force in the Van Wagoner good roads program. He has proved his ability as an administrator and he rates high in the ranks of highway engineers.

▸ By voting to continue Don Kennedy State Highway Commissioner you can assure yourself of safe roads — highways clear of ice and snow — open 365 days of the year. You can count on continued development of tourist and scenic roads and all weather roads for farm travel. In short, whether you use roads for business or for pleasure, you can count on Kennedy because he knows the job.

REPUBLICAN
Monday (X) April 7th

EUGENE B. ELLIOTT
Republican Nominee
Superintendent of Public Instruction

Vote for Smith twice, short term and long term.

(Reading time: 48 seconds)

Citizens of Michigan:

Today's critical times demand the highest qualified public servants.

In state convention, 2106 Republican delegates chose unanimously for state offices men of outstanding ability and experience.

You have an unusual opportunity Monday, April 7. You will decide by your vote whether YOU want politics in your schools and your highways.

Elect LEROY C. SMITH state highway commissioner. He served NINE YEARS as deputy commissioner and engineer; TWENTY-THREE YEARS as Wayne county road engineer. Here is a nationally-known road builder. He pioneered the first national defense type roads in Michigan. He originated the idea of tourist park facilities in Michigan.

A native of Mecosta county and former resident of Benzie county, Smith knows the needs of local government—he's tops in his field!

Re-elect EUGENE B. ELLIOTT state superintendent of public instruction. He will continue to keep schools out of politics. Here is an able public servant who knows Michigan's educational problems. He, also, is tops in his field!

Other Republican nominees, whose names and pictures appear below, join in this appeal: "For Good Government in Michigan, Vote Republican on Monday, April 7."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Proverbs 20:1): "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 536): "Passions and appetites must end in pain. Today Its Preparedness!

IN these times of War, when history is in the making every minute of the 24-hour day, the people of the United States are preparedness-minded.

They think of preparedness in terms of the nation; in terms of their own community; in terms of their families and themselves.

And the alert merchant, the alert manufacturer is prepared today as never before to serve this public. Like the nation, he too must be "on his toes," ready for service.

Newspaper advertising, a means through which the merchant and the manufacturer may tell his story to the public, is a part of the nation's merchandising service.

In Tecumseh there is no other medium through which this service may be performed other than The Tecumseh Herald, Lenawee County's Oldest Weekly Newspaper.

APRIL ELECTION IS IMPORTANT

INTEREST IN STATE TICKET CENTERS ON HIGHWAY COMMISSIONERSHIP

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, April 3—As leading politicos see it, Michigan citizens are concentrating too much attention on Hitler's threatened "blitz" party in England and our entry as a belligerant into the war.

It so happens that an important election is to be held next Monday, April 7.

But to judge from conversation to be heard at dinner tables and in places of business, the Michigan election hasn't been getting the attention it deserves.

Not only that, the international situation and our domestic boom have combined to put legislative problems into temporary eclipse. James Haswell, liberal correspondent for the Detroit Free Press, phrased it this way.

"Michigan's legislature always is conservative, but this year the radicals sing exceptionally small. Advancing prosperity and public preoccupation with war and defense contribute to this state of mind."

Interest in the election Monday centers on the office of state highway commissioner.

G. Donald Kennedy, Democratic nominee, has enjoyed an advantage over the Republican nominee, Leroy C. Smith, in time for campaigning. Kennedy knew many months prior to the convention that he would be the nominee. Smith did not.

Consequently the Smith campaign was slow to get started. Republicans have been raising an issue of politics in the highway department and emphasizing Smith's 32 years' experience as an highway engineer, while Democrats have plugged consistently and vigorously on a pledge to continue the Van Wagoner policies and on Kennedy's personal knowledge of the job.

The contest has been enlivened somewhat by activity of county road commissioners against Kennedy and in behalf of Smith. County road men have felt for years that the state department was taking over too many roads and spending too much money.

Whoever is your choice, and we hew strictly to a non-partisan line, be sure to vote TWICE — once for the short term, and again for the long term, when you cast your ballot for state highway commissioner.

In order to obtain control of the state administrative board, Democrats would have to put over both Kennedy and Edward McFarland, nominee for state superintendent of public instruction.

Eugene B. Elliott, Republican incumbent, possesses a state-wide reputation as an educator. McFarland, a professor at Wayne university, was chairman of the liquor control commission during the Murphy administration.

Other party nominees are for the tate board of agriculture, two to be elected; University of Michigan regents, two to be chosen, and the state board of education, one to be picked.

In the neglected class are two amendments which will appear on a separate ballot.

The amendments, in brief, are designed to prevent fraud in petitions for referendum and initiative. They would require a person to be a "registered voter" before he could sign a petition, and the secretary of state would be authorized to determine the validity of all signatures.

A separate ballot will also be provided for supreme court judges.

While nominees were selected at party conventions, no party affiliations will appear on the non-partisan ballot. The theory has been that this difference will divorce the supreme court from politics. It also will put another responsibility upon the voter, already burdened by lengthy ballots.

Although many labor bills have been introduced by legislators and the administration itself is sponsoring quite a few, little likelihood exists today that any marked changes will be made in our state labor laws during this session.

A bad reaction has set in because of the current wave of industrial strikes, many of which are inter-labor controversies that do not involve hours or wages at all.

Then, too, the workers are enjoying fat pay checks.

If any bills are enacted, the chances are that the occupational disease law will be liberalized and that hours will be reduced for women workers in intrastate commerce. Nothing of an extreme nature is in sight. If what we hear is correct, federal restrictions of wages and hours will not be imposed on retail stores, for example, as an administration bill proposes to do.

Furthermore, it is very probable that the labor mediation act will not be touched. The 30-day "waiting period" continues to receive favorable public opinion, largely because of the public's mounting impatience over delays in national defense production due to labor tie-ups.

Michigan's nearly 800 millions in arms awards are expected to stimulate the tourist industry next summer in northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

The state itself will spend more money to advertise Michigan's recreational attractions through the four tourist associations.

A legislative enabling act is to be introduced at Lansing this week giving sanction to a $225,000 bond issue, voted last month by Mackinac Island residents, for the purpose of preserving such shrines as the John Jacob Astor house, restoring colonial atmosphere to the business section, and creating new parks and bathing beaches.

9 MILLION WINTER 'WOOLIES'

"Johnny, you go right back upstairs and put on your nice warm union suit. The idea of going out on such a day with nothing more on than you wear in the summer!"

"But Mom, I'm not cold. I'm warm! I don't need anything more on. None of the fellows wear long underwear any more!"

Remember those clothing fights that went on all over the United States a few years ago with Johnnie and Susie protesting and Mother and Father insisting on underwear that would really keep them warm?

Little by little the younger generation, aided and abetted by an ever-increasing number of furnaces in homes and schools, and more closed and heated cars, won. Girls and boys alike discarded the beautifully knitted winter "woolies" of modern times as their forefathers discarded red flannels. Here or there another of the factories that used to make winter underwear went out of business or turned to some other kind of work, as sales fell from a place where winter garments represented 60 per cent of all underwear sales in 1926 to the place where they represented only 26 per cent in 1939.

Then came 1940 and thousands of boys who had never known the cozy feeling of getting into a garment that comes snugly down to wrist and ankle or who had discarded it long ago, went to live in barracks at one of the many army camps throughout the United States. And almost over night they changed their minds about what they were willing to wear! They were delighted to climb into the winter underwear that Uncle Sam furnishes all soldiers in winter climates.

But where was Uncle Sam to get the 9 million garments he needed, with only a few factories equipped and trained to turn out this sort of thing? The story of the production of this unprecedented supply of "woolies" is typical of the adaptability Industry is sowing these days when typewriter companies are making machine guns, lawn mower factories are making fuses and even cosmetic case manufacturers are aiding in Defense by turning out shell cases.

Five of the knitting mills whose regular business is the making of heavy winter underwear, opened their doors to other mills with defense contracts and taught them how to make the underwear needed by the government. It's willing cooperation of this sort that makes America's private enterprise system able to meet the unusual demands of a crisis like this effectively.

As sinks behind the hill
The glory of a setting star—
Clear, beautiful and still.
Gentle mother comes no more
With kindly words of cheer
To meet us at the door
Which all the ransomed share
Her immortal soul is watching
To welcome loved ones there.

HOWARD WINS AS SUPERVISOR

ENTIRE GOP TICKET VICTORIOUS HERE; RATHBUN GETS BIG VOTE

The Republican township ticket, headed by Albert O. Howard for the office of supervisor, was re-elected when some 800 voters cast their ballots in the annual spring election here, Tuesday. Tecumseh township also gave its majority to the Republicans on the state ticket, and on the non-partisan ballot for the election of judges, G. Arthur Rathbun, seeking re-election to a six-year term as circuit judge, received all but 69 of the votes cast in the township. He was opposed in the election by James H. Baker, Adrian lawyer, and in the county, where he carried every precinct, Mr. Rathbun's majority was about four to one. Mr. Rathbun, before going to Adrian 12 years ago to assume the judgeship, was a practicing attorney here in a partnership with the late F. B. Wood.

In the state election, Tecumseh and the county showed keenest interest in the fight between Donald Kennedy, D., and Le Roy Smith, R., for the highway commissionership, and Dr. Eugene Elliott, R., and E. W. McFarland, D., for commissioner of education. Tecumseh gave its vote to the Republicans, as did out-state precincts, and while Elliott was elected, Kennedy, with a heavy vote from Wayne county, won the highway post. Tecumseh also voted with the state in approving the two proposed constitutional amendments.

Voting in Tecumseh and in its neighboring townships was as follows:

ELLIOTT TAKES MAYOR'S CHAIR

SUCCEEDS KARL M. SCHNEIDER AS PRESIDENT; MAKES APPOINTMENTS

Succeeding Karl M. Schneider, who had rounded out a three-year term in the office, J. Floyd Elliott on Monday evening became president of the village of Tecumseh. Three members of the village council, two of them new in local politics, also took their seats at the official table. They are E. H. Van Vleet, E. J. Marshall and Howard Truesdale. The latter two are newcomers, succeeding Wm. Beardsley, who was not a candidate for re-election, and Mr. Elliott, who was a council member.

Mayor Elliott, immediately upon assuming office, announced the committees and officers who will work with him during the coming year and in doing this he made three changes in the "official family." He failed to re-appoint Henry Van Duzer as fire truck driver, and he abolished the office of street commissioner, held by Frank Hoekstra. To succeed Mr. Van Duzer as fire truck driver, Mr. Elliott named Rubert Arnold, at the present time traffic officer, and a former member of the Adrian fire department. To succeed Mr. Arnold as traffic officer, Elliott named F. E. Woodcox. All appointments are effective as of Monday, April 14.

The appointment of Albert Bagshaw as city engineer, and the abolishment of the former office of street commissioner, the mayor told the council, was done with the idea of greater cooperation between departments, and to eliminate "overlapping." Heretofore, Mr. Bagshaw held the title of waterworks engineer. It was said that the change would not mean that anyone would lose their jobs, but that authority would be centered in one person.

S. Henry Smith was elected as president pro tem, and other appointments made by the mayor, and confirmed by the council, are as follows:

Village attorney, Glenn L. Williams; marshal, B. W. Mominee; night marshal, Ed. Hall; deputy marshal, Percy Hand, Rubert Arnold; purchasing agent, Wade L. Jones; health officer, Dr. H. H. Loveland. John R. Nyland was named to the cemetery board for a three-year term.

The president's committee appointments were: Water, street and sewer committee, Mr. Smith, Mr. Marshall and E. H. Van Vleet; finance, Mr. Van Vleet, TurnBull and O. J. Winter; fire and fire limits, Marshall, Mr. Truesdale and TurnBull; lighting, Winter, Truesdale and TurnBull; ordinance, TurnBull, Winter, Van Vleet; health, Truesdale, Winter Marshall.

The petitions of Floyd Russell, Gervase Brown and S. W. Good, for permission to apply for beer and wine licenses, were approved. The village also disclaimed all rights and title in an eight-inch sewer that is buried under a purchase agreement for a site for Tecumseh's new postoffice on South Pearl Street. This action was taken at the request of the Federal government.

The council approved the payment of $50 monthly to R. K. Anderson, who serves as secretary to the board of Tecumseh hospital trustees, and also does the hospital's bookkeeping.

The old council, under Mr. Schneider's direction, met earlier in the evening and approved payment of all outstanding bills, after they had been audited.

Mr. Wilkinson spoke on the subject of "Selling in South America," and declared that if the United States is to build and retain friendship in the 13 countries, it must revise and adjust some of its present laws governing exports and imports. Mr. Wilkinson believes that South America is one of the nation's greatest future markets, provided it is cultivated. His talk was highly educational and instructive.

CANCER CONTROL PLAN OUTLINED

Cancer may strike anyone of us, whether we are a teacher or a housewife, a banker or a soldier, a professor or a day laborer. Each one of us must realize his and her own responsibility, each must know a few simple facts about the disease and how one may be protected against it. $55,210 BUDGET

BOARD APPROVES EXPENDITURES FOR SCHOOL DURING 1941-42

A budget totaling $55,210 for the operation of the Tecumseh public schools during the year 1941-42 was approved by the board of education, in regular session, Tuesday evening. The superintendent also submitted a list of teachers recommended by his office, who will receive contracts for the forthcoming year, and the board authorized their issuance.

The board also heard reports on the progress of the grading of the new athletic field, this work to be completed within a week. The grading cost will amount to approximately $4,000 and this sum is being paid by the board from its general fund. Added costs will include about $250 for tiling, another $200 for seeding and fertilizing, and the construction of foundations under the locker room and tool shed, at the west side of the field.

W. L. Berkhof, superintendent, said today that when the board finishes the payment of the grading costs it will be completed in available funds for the project. The board then hopes that clubs and organizations will join in a civic program that will finance the completion of the field so that it may be used this fall for football games. Added improvements include track and tennis courts, a baseball diamond, the construction of a stadium and proper lighting for night games. Lights for the football field will cost about $3,500, it was said, and field lights would add about $2,000 more.

A committee was named by the board to request the village council to extend the water mains to the field, and to permit sprinkling of the park, after the ground has been seeded.

DEFENSE IS ON THE AIR!

When the radio first began to become commercially practicable, one of the brightest prophecies made for its future was to the effect that through it the people of this country would be better informed on national affairs, and hence better able to exercise their free rights intelligently under our system of representative democracy.

More and more, as the years go by, the American radio, in contrast to that of other lands, is living up to its promise by giving the people facts on the things that are of importance to the national present and the national future.

Currently on the Red Network of the National Broadcasting Company early each Saturday evening is a program which probably illustrates the above point as thoroughly as any that has yet hit the air. It is called "Defense for America" and, as its title implies, it is devoted to informing the American public concerning the progress of the present rearmament effort.

Each week this broadcast series will move to a new city active in the defense effort, and will treat a new industry which is contributing to American security. First on the list was the key machine tool industry, which makes the "super-machines" on which all other mass production manufacturing depends. Treated in ensuing programs will be aircraft, tanks, communications, submarines, and many others. Commentators will actually go into the factories while production is going on, and you can hear from the lips of the skilled workmen of America themselves both the explanation of the jobs they are doing and the heartening story of industry's progress in "making America strong."

In this program, radio is giving a stirring example of its ability to keep all of America informed on matters vital to the country's welfare. And by listening in Saturday evenings to "Defense for America" you can both test the truth of this statement and gain a new measure of pride in the United States of America—one of the last free lands on earth, and one of the few where finding out facts like these is possible!

NEW LOW DEATH RATES IN PNEUMONIA AND TUBERCULOSIS

In Michigan Department of Health records, 1940 is being written down as one of the state's healthiest years so far as the controllable communicable diseases are concerned.

New low death rates per 100,000 population were established in pneumonia and tuberculosis, two diseases which are in Michigan's ten leading causes of death. All-time low rates were also recorded for typhoid and diphtheria, each of which formerly took hundreds of lives annually in the state. In 1940 there were only 10 typhoid and 21 diphtheria deaths.

"In 1940, there were 325 fewer pneumonia deaths than in 1939," Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State Health Commissioner, said. "Some part of this reduction can be credited to new methods of treatment with drug and serum. Tuberculosis deaths dropped off 125. Pneumonia deaths totaled 2,478 and tuberculosis deaths 1,753 in 1940.

Scarlet feveh, one of the communicable diseases for which no effective control methods exist, also dropped to a new low death rate. Only 41 scarlet fever deaths were recorded in 1940. This is believed to be due to a long and gradual decline in the virulence of the germ.

The Corner Pulpit

"If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." (St. Mark 8:34)

During these closing days of Lent which lead up to Good Friday, people are willing to meditate upon the cross. But how real and vital is it at other times of the year—in July for instance, or in August?

The cross that our Lord offered as the way of life for His followers is not for one season of the year, but for all the year, and for all the years.

The cross is something to "take up." He says, not just something under which to take refuge. His cross was an active outreaching of redemptive love. So, too, must ours be, if we would follow Him.

The cross as martyrdom comes to comparatively few people. The cross as life comes to everybody. Sometimes the daily and dull routine undermines our love and selflessness when a spectacular crisis would not. Sometimes we let LIFE separate us from our allegiance to Christ when death would not.

Christians must come to see the cross as a principle of LIVING. Too many appreciate the cross only in the form of personal jewelry, or as a church ornament.

The satisfaction of a complete service, performed in the best way we know, is yours when you call us.

How LONG is a Gallon of Gasoline?

WELL, it's longer going downhill than up, longer going slow than fast—but the important new discovery of the year (or since Buick's Compound Carburetion* appeared) is that it's longer when you have two carburetors teamed like Buick's than when you have one!

Here's why:

In easy going like most of your travel, just one of Buick's smaller-than-usual carburetors thriftily handles all engine requirements.

Only when you want extra power does the second carburetor come in.

Then, momentarily, it adds extra fuel and extra power only while it's needed.

Result is that carburetion is always fitted to your driving need.

You're never driving with a carburetor that's bigger than you need for low-range travel, or one that's too small for top-range performance.

Now the net result is that the same-size engines give up as much as 10% to 15% more miles-per-gallon than last year.

And that's a handsome saving—mighty handsome in a car big and roomy and smart as a Buick.

Look over the next Buick that passes you—or better yet, go trial-drive one—and see if you don't agree.

BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $915 for the Business Coupe

*delivered at Flint, Mich. State tax, optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

*Optional equipment on the Buick SPECIAL, standard on all other models.

Buick SPECIAL *6-passenger Sedanet, $1006. White sidewall tires extra.

Obituary

MRS. MARY VAN VALKENBURG

Mary A. Mathews Van Valkenburg, daughter of J. Wilson and Martha Mathews, was born Sept. 28, 1849. Her entire life was spent in Tecumseh and vicinity where she received her early education in the rural schools, later attending school in the village. She was a successful rural school teacher for a number of years and the Waldron and Calvin Schools are among those she taught in the days when the teacher boarded around the neighborhood and when schools had an enrollment of forty or more pupils.

On December 21, 1870, she was united in marriage to Amenzo Van Valkenburg. To this union eleven children were born. A little daughter, Stella Elizabeth, died in infancy. Other children who have preceded her to the great beyond are Lila McNeil, Pearl Lanning and Ada Schwartz. The children who survive her are the three daughters, Mrs. Ina Abbott and Mrs. Bertha Hoag of Tecumseh and Mrs. Lena Wells of Louisville, Ky., the four sons Perry, Dean, Leon and Faye, all of Tecumseh, also 25 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren.

A brief time after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Van Valkenburg purchased the farm home south-west of Tecumseh, where their son Leon and family now reside. For forty years this was their home, until Mr. Van Valkenburg retired from active farming and the family established a home in Tecumseh in the fall of 1915. Here Mr. and Mrs. Van Valkenburg continued to walk the Christian way together until August 19, 1930 when nearly 60 years of married life was broken by the death of the husband and father.

Since then a daughter, Mrs. Bertha Hoag and son Herbert, have made their home with Mrs. Van Valkenburg.

At the age of 18, Mrs. Van Valkenburg united with the church. Though the mother of a large family, she found time for years to prepare the communion table and also taught a Sunday school class. Her life was indeed a busy, happy one filled with loving ministry to her family, her church and her God all of whom she loved so devotedly. Her faithful attendance at church is attested by the fact that she had a perfect attendance at church and Sunday School for the past quarter.

She suffered a heart attack Sunday evening and a few hours later answered the summons of her Savior. "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

The following poem in her Bible is a fitting tribute to a faithful mother.

MOTHER

There is no name to me so dear,
No name on earth so sweet to hear,
No name that fills my life with cheer,
Like that dear name of—Mother

No friend on earth could ever be
So true and faithful, kind as she Could love and guard so tenderly,
As that dear friend—My Mother

T'was she who taught me how to pray,
In sickness nursed me night and day,
My debt to her I ne'er can pay.
That blessed saint—My Mother.

More bright the path to glory gleams,
And dearer to me heaven seems,
She's present in my thoughts and dreams,
My guardian angel — Mother.

Funeral services were held April 1 at the Baptist church, Rev. O. V. Robinson and Rev. A. C. Brazee officiating. Bearers were Leslie Abbott of Dearborn, Percy Van Valkenburg of Adrian, Dale Hoag of Saginaw, Charles McNeil of Ann Arbor and Ronald and Raynor Van Valkenburg, all grandsons of the deceased. Burial was made in Brookside cemetery.

Relatives and friends attended from Louisville, Ky., Saginaw, Dearborn, Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Onondaga, Jackson, Brooklyn, Marshall, Howell, Monroe, Clinton, Adrian, Tipton, Britton, Fairfield and Toledo.

Annual P.-T. A. Banquet

The fourth annual Parent-Teacher Association birthday banquet was held last Wednesday evening in the school gymnasium and was attended by about 280 persons. Each of the 12 long tables was decorated to represent a month and the guests were seated at the table representing the month of their birth. The members of the newly organized Boy Scout troop were honor guests at a special table. The gymnasium was attractively decorated in the senior class colors, blue and white, with toy balloons hanging from a low ceiling and made of crepe paper.

Mrs S. L. Wyman of Tecumseh and Mrs E. T. Armstrong, county school commissioner, acted as the judges and awarded first prize to the April table decorated by the Altar Society of St. Joseph's Catholic church in the Irish Hills with Mrs Leland Brighton and Mrs Lucein Muck in charge. Second prize was won by the March table decorated by the Springville school under the direction of Miss Florence White, the teacher, and third place was given to the December table decorated by the Pentecost 4-H Club with Miss Lois Schultz as chairman.

After the dinner Mrs Lyle Vandenbrook, retiring president, conducted a short business session at which it was voted to purchase $15 worth of shrubs for the school grounds.

The report of the nominating committee of which Mrs John Cattell was the chairman was accepted and the following officers were elected: president, Mrs Leonard Herrman; vice president, Mrs A. D. Huber; secretary, Mrs Ralph Morris; treasurer, Wilbur Blum.

The following program was announced by Mrs Herrman: musical reading, Mrs S. L. Wyman, accompanied by Mrs Mabel Sylvester; investiture ceremony of the Boy Scout troop with Paul Harwood as scoutmaster and Paul Morse and Alvin Stoddard, assistants, by R. L. Warren, assisted by Dee Dibble and Don Twiss, Sea Scouts of Adrian; vocal solo, Mrs Lottie Hardy of Tipton; farewell to class of 1941 and welcome to class of 1942, Miss Mildred Goodyear; style show by 4-H girls club and home economics classes under the direction of Miss Leora Herring.

The proceeds from the dinner which was prepared by the mothers of the senior class girls with Mrs. Floyd Sherrard as chairman and served by the girls will be used for the senior class trip to Washington and New York.

Club Presents Program

The Onsted Woman's Club met at the church Friday evening with members of the Tecumseh Business and Professional Woman's Club as guests. Mrs Paul Harwood, president, opened the business session and introduced Mrs A. W. Porter, president of the Tecumseh club. A short business session was held at which a committee consisting of Mrs John Schultz, Mrs James Hewitt, Mrs Richard Hill, Mrs Raynor Kerr and Mrs Ray Turner was appointed to complete the home decoration project.

Miss Claudyne Newton of Tecumseh as the leader presented the following program: musical readings by Mrs S. L. Wyman, accompanied by Miss Frances Yerger and a humorous and interesting as well as educational travelogue on Mexico City and the Pacific by Jon Young of the Tecumseh high school faculty.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs Will Marr, Mrs Leland Hubbard and Mrs Harlie Roberts in conclusion.

Harry Maxwell of Flint was a guest Thursday night of Mr and Mrs L. B. Ross and visited other friends here.

C. W. Bilmeyer returned home Thursday evening after spending three months in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr and Mrs Frank Zimmerman of Dundee were guests Wednesday of Mrs Velma Short.

Mrs Hazel Vanderpool is a patient in the University hospital in Ann Arbor for medical treatment.

Mrs Dora Sutherland has gone to Rome Center to live and Mr and Mrs John Pawson and son Willard are moving to the Sutherland home.

Mrs Anna Peters was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by 12 friends in observance of her birthday anniversary. A potluck supper was served and the evening was spent socially. Mrs Peters was presented with a gift.

One sad thought is that there is another generation now growing up that never saw and never will see a buggy whip decorated with a big bow of red ribbon.

Today Its Preparedness!

IN these times of War, when history is in the making every minute of the 24-hour day, the people of the United States are preparedness-minded.

They think of preparedness in terms of the nation; in terms of their own community; in terms of their families and themselves.

And the alert merchant, the alert manufacturer is prepared today as never before to serve this public. Like the nation, he too must be "on his toes," ready for service.

Newspaper advertising, a means through which the merchant and the manufacturer may tell his story to the public, is a part of the nation's merchandising service.

In Tecumseh there is no other medium through which this service may be performed other than The Tecumseh Herald, Lenawee County's Oldest Weekly Newspaper.

STRIKES WORRY STATES SOLONS

FORD STRIKE MAY PROVOKE A BACKFIRE BY MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, April 10 — The C.I.O. sit-down strike at the Ford Motor company River Rouge plant and other labor disputes that endanger national defense may provoke a back-fire at Lansing.

A bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives to double the present 30-day "waiting period" before a strike could be called in an arms industry.

The sponsors believe that conciliation efforts by national and state labor mediation boards would iron out differences between workers and management, while vital defense supplies were being produced during the two month interim.

While the sit-down at River Rouge ignored even the existing 30-day strike notice requirement of the state government, the new bill is a "straw in the wind" of the mounting temper of the legislature to halt stoppage of national defense production. Heard frequently is one word; "sabotage."

The administration's labor program may be scuttled in the rush.

Irony exists in this fact: Only a minority of Michigan union workers have ignored public opinion, as typified by enactment of the lend-lease bill; in the majority of Michigan plants, union men are working without interruption.

The C.I.O. sit-down (an illegal act, so declared by the United States Supreme court) exposed a sorry lack of home defense protection in Michigan.

As in Wisconsin where rioting workers at the Allis-Chalmers plant successfully defied law enforcement officers and the governor did not have even one troop of guardsmen available, Michigan found itself short of trained men and equipment for riot service.

Remaining in Michigan were three national guard regiments, all artillery, under command of Brig. Gen. Joseph H. Lewis. They were due to be inducted into federal duty April 7.

Both the administration and the legislature have been lukewarm to pleas of Col. Harold Furlong, director of the Michigan national defense council, for a $500,000 appropriation to make possible 7,000 troopsmen.

The sit-down revival prodded Lansing into action.

Col. E. M. Kosecrahs, state adjutant general, quickly found support for his plans to recruit and equip a home force of 3,500 men. State prison industries are to manufacture uniforms of forest green color. Troops of 1,500 men have been authorized to date in eight Michigan cities: Detroit, Grand Rapids, Flint, Kalamazoo, Pontiac, Saginaw, Port Huron and Ypsilanti.

These men would be available to suppress riots or unlawful assemblies.

(Only 200 troopers of the state police can be mobilized to handle a strike situation; the total enrollment is 465.)

For many months it has been known at state police headquarters that the United States' participation in World War II would be preceded, and also followed, by deliberate sabotage of vital arms production.

Lieut. Harold Mulbar, director of the so-called "anti-fifth column" division, has forecast that Nazi and Communists would seek to foment trouble in Michigan industrial plants. The Nazi are said to be well organized in the Detroit area.

In key centers where assembly line methods are employed, it is comparatively easy for a few radicals to effect virtual sabotage. Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen, "Merry-Go-Round" writers, observe from Washington: "Sometimes this (stoppage) happens through strikes, sometimes thru slowing-up and sabotage so deliberate that behind it must lurk a definite attempt by Communists to hold back national defense."

In the parade were "blitz buggies," or "jeeps," which are being manufactured at the Ford plant involved last week by the C.I.O. sit-down.

Because Hitlers blitz success has been due to a combination of superior mechanical strength (airplanes, tanks, etc.) and very skillful propaganda, it is no understatement of fact to say that to day's military front lines includes both the worker in an industrial factory and the selective service soldier in an army camp.

One difference is their rate of pay. The automobile worker receives the highest average wage of any industry in the United States. During the 1937 sit-down epidemic he received an average of 88.5 cents an hour, compared with 69.3 cents an hour in 25 major American industries, and 1941 wages are even higher.

But the selective service soldier (who incidentally must be in top physical condition) gets $21 a month—less than a dollar a day—or about 12 cents an hour!

It was this obvious injustice that prompted the American Legion, following World War I, to advocate conscription of both workers and soldiers as a remedy for war-time "profiteering."

As at the Allis-Chalmers plant in Milwaukee, the C.I.O. sit-down at the Ford plant was precipitated last week by petty causes.

C.I.O. workers at River Rouge objected to the company's firing of four employees.

The International Harvester plant strike in Chicago was finally broken up when A.F.L. members forced C. I. O. picket lines with the aid of 1,300 Chicago police.

Because of minority union conflicts, such as these, public opinion has been reacting strongly against labor in general. This fact is sensed by state officials and legislative leaders here in Lansing. Restrictive measures, instead of benefits, may be the penalty.

COMPLETE STUDY OF POLICE POWER

OLANDER SAYS THERE IS ONE OFFICER TO EVERY 718 RESIDENTS

East Lansing—Police protection in Michigan is on a basis of one officer to every 718 persons according to a survey announced by Commissioner Oscar G. Olander of the Michigan State Police today.

The canvas of police protective facilities was completed this week by state police as part of the survey of Michigan's national defense program protection. As the state shares in a more active military role, saboteurs, spies and subverters become the ranking criminal element, according to Commissioner Olander, and a poll of resources for combatting them was undertaken.

The survey shows Michigan has 7,317 police officers, running the range from the metropolitan police commissioner to the marshal of the smallest town. Officers of cities, villages and townships rank first in number, there being 6,208 of this classification.

State police number 452 and sheriffs officers total 657.

Michigan law enforcement forces are made mobile for quick action with 1,647 patrol and scout cars. Of these, 803 are radio equipped. The poll shows 814 additional cars available for an emergency, as well as 1,648 additional officers available for emergency call.

The ratio of one law-enforcement officer to every 718 residents in on the basis of the entire state, using the 1940 census of 5,256,106 population. Wayne county leads in the county classification with one officer to every 438 residents based on 4,603 officers to the county population of 2,015,623.

The state police ration of 452 officers figure out to one trooper to every 11,626 residents of both peninsulas. Sheriff's officers, numbering 657, constitute a ratio of one to every 8,000 residents of the state.

In Michigan, the authority vested in any county, city or village peace officer is applicable outside his own jurisdiction when called upon to work with the state police or local officers elsewhere in the state, according to a law enacted by the 1939 legislature.

MARSH IS GIVEN LIFE IN PRISON

SLAYER OF HERMAN BURGER, FORMER TECUMSEH MAN, SENT TO JACKSON

Held guilty of murder in the first degree, Frederick C. Marsh, 22, on Saturday morning was sentenced to spend the rest of his natural life in prison and at hard labor in solitary confinement, by Circuit Judge G. Arthur Rathbun. Marsh previously had admitted the killing of Herman P. Burger, 69-year-old Adrian cigar store clerk, in his apartment in that city on the night of March 19. The slayer will serve his sentence in the Michigan State Prison at Jackson.

Before passing sentence, Judge Rathbun asked Marsh, a former Tecumseh boy, if he had anything more to say or to tell the court before penalty was imposed. The killer showed but little visible emotion and replied, "No, sir."

The court then explained that sentence had been delayed until Saturday to give doctors an opportunity to examine Marsh to determine whether or not he was sane. Judge Rathbun said that the report of the sanity commission, made up of three psychiatrists, showed that insanity did not enter into the case.

"Previous testimony," the court said, "disclosed that the murder was committed with intent to commit burglary. You did commit burglary and it is therefore clear that the degree of the murder is the first degree." He then imposed the life sentence.

Marsh's confession, made following his arrest in Pennsylvania two days after the murder, showed that following the killing Marsh took keys from Burger's body and rifled a cash drawer in the Chaloner Cigar Store in Adrian, obtaining nearly $200. A part of this money was found in Marsh's possession at the time of his arrest.

Hospital To Observe 'National Day' With Inspection, Banquet

The Tecumseh Community Hospital is now making plans for observing National Hospital Day on Monday, May 12. Last winter, when the new addition to the hospital was completed, the inclement weather plus the need immediately for every new bed made it seem wise to postpone until a later date a formal opening and celebration. The hospital board felt that National Hospital Day coming almost in the middle of May would be an opportune time for such an event.

The plans so far call for a public open house in the afternoon so that everyone can see every part of the hospital and inspect its equipment. Besides the new addition to the building itself, much has also been added to the hospital in the way of instruments so that now it is both larger and better than it was when it was originally built. Then in the evening, a public banquet will be held in the high school gymnasium followed by an educational program and entertainment. The main address will be delivered by an outstanding doctor on the staff of the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The recently organized Hospital Auxiliary under the direction of Mrs. John Larsen will be in charge of the banquet arrangements. The Rotary Club will sponsor the ticket sale.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whedon of Jackson have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Miss Waneta Sell, to Wayne Driscoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Driscoll, also of Jackson. The wedding will take pace April 25.

Miss Sell is a granddaughter of Mrs. Clarence Allison of Tecumseh and a former resident here. She was employed for a time in the law office of Wood & Williams.

TO HOLD "GET-TOGETHER"

Members of Tecumseh Lodge, Knights of Pythias and Josephine H. Hall Temple of Pythian Sisters and their families will enjoy a get-together at their hall Friday evening. Potluck supper at 6:30 will be followed by an entertainment and social evening. Meat, potatoes, rolls and coffee will be prepared at the hall. Members are to bring other foods, also dishes for their families.

FIRE DAMAGES ROOF

The fire department was called to the Harold Duncan home on South Pearl street about 5:30 Tuesday afternoon when defective wiring had started a blaze which destroyed the roof of the house and badly damaging a woodshed.

— Opens New Store —

Leon F. Rosacrans

Leon F. Rosacrans, for 33 years a member of the firm of Fred Rosacrans & Sons, dry goods merchants, this week opened a new store on East Chicago boulevard, in the building formerly occupied by Sallows Bakery. The new enterprise, also known as "Fred Rosacrans & Sons," will carry ladies and misses ready-to-wear, dry goods, floor coverings and window decorations.

Mr. Rosacrans, a son of the late Fred Rosacrans, one of Tecumseh's pioneer merchants, is well known in dry goods circles throughout the county and state. Upon the death of his father, a few years ago, he continued to operate the Rosacrans store, at Chicago boulevard and Evans street, until last June, when fire destroyed the stock and fixtures and badly damaged the building.

The home of the new Rosacrans store has been completely remodeled and redecorated, new lighting fixtures have been installed and the section of the store that will be given over to floor coverings, window decorations, etc., is now being made ready by carpenters.

The new enterprise was opened for business on Saturday of last week, but the store's formal opening will be this week end, Mr. Rosacrans said.

Athletic Park Grading To Be Finished Soon

Jackson contractors in charge of the grading of Tecumseh's new athletic park, north of the high school building, are expected to resume operations there the end of this week, and to complete the job sometime next week, it was announced today at the office of W. L. Berkhof, superintendent of schools. Mr. Berkhof said that he understood that the contractor found it necessary to delay work here to complete a job at a government airport near Fort Custer, Battle Creek.

As soon as the grading is finished, it was said that the field would be tiled and seeded, with the hope of having sufficient sod on the area there to permit the playing of football, next fall. The other improvements to the park will probably await a financing program.

At the request of John Larsen, a member of the school board, the Rotary club on Tuesday named C. M. Brown as a member of a board of control of the athletic field. Mr. Larsen told Rotarians that other clubs and organizations of Tecumseh also would name a member of the board, which body will aid in financing improvements as work at the field progresses.

HOME EC. CLASS WILL HOLD ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Officers and executive committees of home economics club of Lenawee county are to meet Saturday afternoon, April 19, at the agricultural office in Adrian. Plans will be made for the annual Achievement Day in May and candidates will be nominated for offices for the next project year.

LUNCHEON ENDS '41 CLUB YEAR

MUSICAL PROGRAM ENJOYED BY LADIES AT METHODIST CHURCH HERE

The 46th year of the Tecumseh Monday Club was brought to a close on Monday with the annual spring luncheon in the Methodist Episcopal church parlors. Members and guests were seated at two long and 12 small tables, decorated with forsythia, pussy willows and lighted yellow tapers, and the luncheon was served by daughters of club members.

Mrs. Sam Sisson presided at a short business session when annual reports were given and guests introduced. She also introduced two new officers, Mrs. Wm. Barnes, treasurer, and Mrs. C. V. Fisher, second vice president and Mrs. B. B. TurnBull and Mrs. C. C. Ruppell as new members of the board.

Mrs. W. G. Waldron was in charge of the program and presented sketches and scenes from the Wagner operas "Tannhauser," "Die Walkure" and "Lohengrin." Mrs. F. C. Dickinson gave the life of Wagner and Mrs. Waldron acted as narrator. Special numbers included a piano duet "March from Tannhauser" by Mrs. Kenton Hunt and Miss Camilla Satterthwaite; vocal solo "Elizabeth's Prayer," by Mrs. Maynard Mulvany; "Pilgrim's Chorus" by members of Tecumseh Music Club; "Song of Love" from Tannhauser by F. C. Dickinson; "Sublime Sweet Evening Star," by Glenn Van Denbergh; "Dance of the Valkyries" by Ruth Schneider, accompanied by Mrs. George Parsons and Mrs. Sam Sisson in a piano duet, with sketch of the opera "Die Walkure" by Mrs. L. THE PUBLIC ATTITUDE CLARIFIES

The Gallup poll, in one of its most recent probings of the public attitude, asked one question that brought forth a particularly interesting response. The reaction of the American people to this query really gives occasion for more than casual thought.

Here is the question raised by the noted pulse-taking group:

"Do you think industrial (business) leaders are helping the national defense production program as much as they should?"

Of those who had an opinion, 62 per cent felt that industrial leaders were cooperating to the top of their ability, and only 38 per cent were of the opposite view. Meanwhile, answering queries concerning other aspects of defense, the public was considerably less pleased with the way that certain others were doing their part of the job.

It is particularly stimulating to realize that industry has won this public acceptance without fanfare. It has been plugging away every possible moment of each day turning out articles to make this country safe, while its critics have had plenty of free time for carping. Yet the American people have wisely chosen to recognize and approve deeds, not words.

Since earlier polls, during the depression years, showed no such confidence in industry, this situation has its deep meaning for those who will ponder it. Our history shows us that confidence in industry, a belief in its ability to accomplish the aims set for it, is the prerequisite for America's moving ahead. In the pdoduction of peacetime goods, this was the case: industry brought the nation the highest standard of living any society anywhere has ever known during generations when it received the benison of public good will. It is reasonable to expect that, with the same measure of confidence, it can effectively produce the national security that is our most pressing need.

It would seem to be the case that an emergency has served to bring about the clearest public vision. The destructive critics who had their fun at the expense of the "builders and doers" in former periods do not gain the public ear in times of stress. It is not, of course, pleasant to reflect that it takes a world crisis to bring about this state of affairs. But the condition itself, from every vantage point of national welfare, is devoutly to be desired!

The Corner Pulpit

"And he said unto them, what manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk and are sad?...Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?" (St. Luke 24:17-26)

The walk to Emmaus stands for the bleak morning after a tragedy. The world is travelling the Emmaus road today. The powers of darkness seem to have the upper hand. They make our faith into a fable; our hope, a bit of wishful thinking; our love, nothing but weakness.

That is because our eyes are holden. If all we have to guide us is the news in the newspaper; if the only hope of the world is a new balance of power after warring nations have bled each other white; if all the Church can do is to commiserate itself at a dead march pace, then we are wretched indeed.

Is not this the very time to notice that Someone walks beside us, Someone marked with suffering and yet radiant and glorious? We who snatch at any plan (ranging all the way from assassination of dictators to a Federation of Nations), shall we not listen to the One who really knows, and who has cleared the path for the Kingdom to come?

Now is the very time when Christians with burning hearts should witness to the world, "Our Lord is risen indeed."

Why does a Golf Ball bounce?

EVER notice that a golf ball, when you drop it, bounces higher than something hollow, like a tennis ball?

That's partly because of internal pressures, which also have so much to do with Buick's extra FIREBALL power.

Rubber threads inside a golf ball are packed tight, highly compressed. When flattened against a hard object, like a sidewalk, they come back harder, with more push, and so the ball bounces higher.

A similar thing happens inside a Buick FIREBALL straight-eight cylinder.

Fuel compression pressures are higher here than in any other standard-production automobile engine.

So when the spark jumps in the tightly-packed, fuel-fat ball of gas-mixture at the top of the stroke—the Buick piston goes rushing down with more push, more shove, more power than the same amount of fuel gives up elsewhere.

Result: every Buick engine travels farther per gallon this year than the same-size engines did last year, while Compound Carburetion* with Buick FIREBALL design gives as much as 10% to 15% more miles per gallon.

In fact, if you're buying any car this year, it's pretty important to see and drive a Buick before you're through; it's Number One in smart engineering as well as Number One in solid, rock-bottom, all-round VALUE!

U. S. Old Age Pension Program A 450 Million Dollar Activity

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, Winning by losing.

That's the result-getting story of the Townsend movement in Michigan.

Townsend clubs are maintained by devoutly, zealous crusaders who believe that America's economic salvation lies in an enforced spending of generous old-age pensions and the replacement of jobs, which these oldsters now retain, by younger men and women.

For any minority cause, legislative appeasement is often granted in proportion to the degree of political pressure that can be applied at the right time on the right persons.

Today, old age assistance is a $450,000,000 annual activity of federal, state and local governments. Beneficiaries number nearly two million persons.

This month at Lansing the House of Representatives came within nine votes of adopting a bill to raise monthly pensions from $30 to $40. Everyone over 65 years of age whose property holdings are valued at not more than $3,500 would be eligible.

The issue for legislators was ticklish.

Rep. Ate Dykstra (R) of Grand Rapids, eight-term veteran who recently announced his intention not to run for re-election, proposed it.

In August, 1939, the federal act was amended by Congress to permit federal matching on a 50 per cent basis up to $40 per month per eligible recipient.

In June, 1940, only two states—California and Colorado—had an average monthly payment per person in excess of $30.

The effect of the federal revision was to place responsibility for the higher monthly payment squarely upon the availability of state and local funds, together with the willingness of legislators to give preference to old age assistance over other deserving causes espoused by other voting constituents.

Dykstra's proposal for $40 monthly pensions lacked only nine votes of adoption. The final vote was 42 to 44; needed majority was 51.

One of Governor Van Wagoner's first acts in January was to recommend to the state welfare commission that 10,000 persons be added to the old age assistance rolls by July 1, 1941.

A decision was made whereby 2,000 persons would be added monthly.

The March 18 case load in Michigan was $1,340.

Although the maximum payment is $30, most of the recipients get far less than that. The average is $18—not $30, not even $40!

Although more than $1,000 persons are receiving pensions, the welfare board in January had 30,000 applications which it could not fill!

The total expenditure of state funds is about eight and a half million dollars per year. The United States matches this money on a 50-50 basis.

And so when the House of Representatives considered the $40 monthly pension plan, complications were numerous.

First, the increase would virtually double the state's annual expenditure. Instead of $8,500,000, the state's cost would run close to $17,000,000.

Second, this increase would mean a denial by the legislature of state aid sought by other groups. For example, the school lobby seeks a $5,000,000 increase in state aid to schools. A survey made by Dr. George E. Carrothers of the University of Michigan recently revealed that Michigan's high schools are badly overcrowded: teachers are poorly paid.

Third, there is that annoying $27,000,000 deficit on the state books whereby the state has borrowed from certain funds to pay current needs.

But, politically speaking, old age pensions are old age pensions, and they all spell one word: Votes. Consequently, many a legislator nervously saw his shadow when he voted against Dykstra's $40 pension plan. Although the vote was non-partisan, here was a Republican-sponsored cause that would outdo Governor Van Wagoner's 10,000 increase-by-July 1 program for pensions. Even this lure failed to attract a majority.

When the Social Security Act was created, an insurance system was established so that wage-earners during their years of financial productivity could build up protection for the future.

But this insurance plan could not afford immediate protection for old people. Some other plan had to be provided.

Thus old age assistance was authorized, and today approximately one-fourth of the population 65 years of age and over are receiving some kind of monthly pension. Of this group a substantial portion comprise persons not previously recognized as public dependents.

Thousands of aged persons, who previously had to rely on irregular and inadequate support, either through their own efforts or by sharing the income of children, relatives or friends, have been able to maintain their own homes and otherwise to live their own lives.

Social workers believe generally that old age assistance should provide for persons in need and do so without forcing their relatives to deprive their children, for example, of opportunity for education or otherwise having to maintain a sub-standard level of life. This is especially TRUE in families of small income.

Fedele F. Fauri, state social security director, this month said: "If the legislature grants our request for a $9,500,000 appropriation for old age assistance during the next fiscal year and $10,500,000 for the following fiscal year, we will be able to take on eligibles as soon as they apply."

At present the waiting list is nearly one year behind authorization of payments. April's new recipients will be those who applied in March, April and May of 1940—one year ago.

Strength

MANY a weak and weary one has found comfort and strength in contemplation of the loving invitation of the Master. (Matthew 11:28), "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." This is a call to mankind to cast out fear, doubt, and sin, and to utilize the truth that makes one free.

It was his understanding of God as Spirit and of the spiritual nature of man that gave Christ Jesus dominion over sin, disease, and death. His conscious unity with God made him the Exemplar for all time. Circumstances could form no obstacles to his righteous activity. He walked on the water, fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead. It was no material sense of authority that enabled him to cast out the devils of unbelief, hatred, and fear. The good he understood and embodied constituted his spiritual strength.

An important step if one would demonstrate strength is to realize that life, truth, and intelligence are not in matter. Man is the image and likeness of his Maker; he is spiritual, not material, and strength is a quality of Spirit, not a condition of matter.

Weakness, weariness, fatigue, and sin are harassing pictures, drawn by mortal mind, but these are not a necessary part of human experience. They persist in their claim to power, and would deceive and enslave humanity. Only the mighty power of Truth can end their tyranny. Spiritual understanding reveals man unfettered by enslaving beliefs — upright, pure, and free. The daily task is done with energy and freedom when we claim spiritual strength as our divine right. Fatigue is no more necessary in human experience than is sin; and both sin and fatigue are overcome by the humble acknowledgment and confident claiming of the real man's inherent purity, strength, and freedom.

No one need lack spiritual strength. The Bible is filled with examples, exhortations, and promises that furnish daily sustenance. . . .

We need a better understanding of man. The weak, weary mortal whom we see bowed down with responsibility, fear, foreboding, and discouragement is not the real man. . . .

Man is spiritual, and for that reason he cannot be tired or weak. The image of Love is never tired, never under a strain, never overworked. Worry, fear, and a false sense of responsibility do not belong to man. Man is not separate from God. . . .

Like Jesus, we need to be determined to do God's will under every circumstance, in order that we may derive from God the everpresent quality of spiritual strength. We can be faithful in our consecrated effort to reflect God in every thought and deed. We should resolve calmly to use the energies of Truth in all our activities. When we strive to follow the example of our Master, we gain clearer views of Life, Truth, and Love.

The genuine strength of individuals, groups, or nations is in exact proportion to their exercise of spiritual power. Power is not in arms, in lands, or in money. Each individual makes a real contribution to world progress when he purifies his own thought and claims abundant spiritual strength for man. Only spiritual strength can overcome the aggressive elements of thought that are abroad in the world today. Greed, pride, fear, and tyranny are human weaknesses. Obedience to the law of God ensures genuine strength.

The Scriptures say (Isaiah 40:31), "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." Speaking of this passage, Mary Baker Eddy writes (Science and Health, p. 218), "The meaning of that passage is not perverted by applying it literally to moments of fatigue, for the moral and physical are as one in their results." — The Christian Science Monitor.

Militant Role For Governor Following 'No Victory' Election

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, April 17—If you want to find who won the election, page a Solomon.

Michigan's ballyhooed bipartisan government wasn't changed much by the popular vote. That state administrative board, about which the politicians fussed and fumed, remains the same;

Four Republicans — Vernon J. Brown, Eugene B. Elliott, Harry F. Kelly and Herbert K. Rushton.

Four Democrats — Murray D. Van Wagoner, Frank Murphy, Theodore I. Fry and G. Donald Kennedy.

Two state administrative offices were at stake. Democrat Kennedy rolled up a plurality of about 48,000, while Republican Elliott triumphed by 38,000. It was just another way of saying that Michigan, perhaps more so than the average Mid-West state, has enough independent - minded citizens to swing political fates either way at any election.

It again emphasized the record. No governor has succeeded himself during the past decade. Democrat has followed Republican with distressful regularity, and vice versa.

Since the democratic stategy called for wooing of Republican voters in order to elect Kennedy, Governor Van Wagoner deftly avoided a frontal assault on Republican ranks. The maneuvers to date have been skirmishes, calculated not to outrage the enemy.

In this kind of political courting, the governor wore diplomatic soft gloves.

Because the spring campaign was so devoid of pressing issues, almost like a parlor game of tiddle-de-winks, Republicans had to take the offensive in injecting life into a somewhat listless contest. Vernon J. Brown, two-fisted auditor general, applied a political hypodermic in the form of charges of civil service violations by the state highway department.

Even this last minute jolt did not overcome the headway made by the Van Wagoner machine over the Republican nominee, Leroy C. Smith. Smith made his entry into the political arena in February, while Kennedy had been "campaigning" persistently for four or more months—if highway promises, public appearances and steady publicity are bids for votes.

Every state highway sign and every state highway map were changed since the November election to carry the name of the Democratic nominee-to-be, long before the state convention ratified the Van Wagoner-picked state ticket.

While Smith possessed a record of engineering achievement that has merited national recognition, having managed a county road organization receiving 1940 national honors, (he is also a former deputy state highway commissioner) the fact remains that he was not widely known outside of Wayne county. Republicans generals realized this handicap, and they made valiant efforts to overcome it in the short time available. Upstate pluralities were disappointingly small.

And so, neither man is out of a job.

Smith presumably will continue to earn $15,000 a year as engineer-manager at Detroit, while Kennedy draws $7,500 as state highway commissioner. Could it be possible that Smith, who was virtually drafted as a party nominee, will be doubly better off financially as a result of the April 7 vote?

Who won the election, anyway?

Now that the diplomatic season is over, Governor Van Wagoner is expected to assume a militant role.

Six to seven weeks remain in which his administrative program, revealed belatedly, might be salvaged.

The spectre of labor legislation was greatly dimmed by the C. I. O. tie-up of the Ford industrial empire, accomplished without a 30-day notice that is customarily required by the state mediation board for employees in plants that are producing national defense supplies.

The prevailing legislative attitude is tinged with resentment of any labor organizing move that delays vital arms production.

Labor leaders point out that the automobile industry, with the exception of the Ford Motor company, is almost entirely under union agreements, as is the steel industry with the exception of a few medium-sized concerns, and the rubber industry with the exception of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company and a few small plants.

This union expansion, chiefly in mass production industries, has come about during the past five years. Union membership soared from 3,500,000 to over 8,000,000 at the beginning of 1940. The harvest has been rich.

Labor's mounting influence in the national economy has invited political bargaining. Such is true in Michigan where the C.I.O., for example, endorsed Kennedy. It has also been evident for some time that Governor Van Wagoner was building his fences for re-election in 1942 with a definite bid for labor and farm support.

His generosity in advocating labor measures, which in some cases surpassed anything enacted at Washington, has been interpreted by labor-minded Republicans in the following light:

He could put the Republicans "on the spot" by asking more than he knew legislators would grant. He could appease labor with bills, while trying to keep radicals in line by threats of a big stick, such as he brandished in the Consumers Power company controversy.

This wasn't bad politics from a practical point of view, since he had little to lose. And Van Wagoner is a practical man.

But it has prompted Republican advocates of labor reform to question the governor's concern about the working man amid the greatest industrial boom the state has ever seen.

So don't be surprised if Republicans fail to rush to the rescue.

With the 1941 election out of the way, folks here are already beginning to think about 1942. Such is the way of politics.

WATER ACCOUNTS GO TO ASSESSOR

DELINQUENT BILLS TO BE ADDED TO TAXES, IN KEEPING WITH LAW

The village council, in regular session on Monday evening, instructed Wade L. Jones, clerk, to turn over to the village assessor a list of all delinquent water bills, the same to be assessed against the property liable for the accounts, in accordance with an ordinance adopted on January 3, 1940. Although the ordinance has been in effect for more than a year, it is the first time that the council has used it as a collection measure, it was said.

The council also considered seventeen accounts that are delinquent in payment for the construction or repair of sidewalks on local property. The village assessor in this instance was instructed to levy the amounts as a tax against the property, and to proceed to collect the tax so assessed in the same manner as other taxes are collected.

"Sunset Mead," a new subdivision at the west side of the village, owned by Claire and Hazel Beland, was given approval in plat form by the council and the clerk was instructed to issue certificates in accordance with the action.

The committee in charge of sewers was authorized to extend a sewer main from Logan street on Wyandotte street to Shawnee, and west on Shawnee the necessary distance to complete requested service. This extension was necessitated by the building of two or three homes in that section.

Other business before the council was of a routine nature. It was voted to charge the Tecumseh Hospital $25 monthly for the mowing of the lawn, removing garbage, ashes, rubbish, etc. C. T. Herring was appointed to have charge of the village dump at a salary of $15 monthly. The report of R. G. Fuller, auditor, on the condition of the village accounts, was referred to the council for consideration. Current bills were audited, approved and ordered paid.

Poucher farm also near Tipton at 11:15. Luncheon will be served in Tipton at noon and the tour will be resumed at 1:15 beginning at the Willis Moore farm near Adrian, then visiting the farms of H. Knight, near Adrian; Gale Gilbert near Onsted; Dr. W. B. Huntley, near Adrian and J. P. Witt, near Jasper.

The tour will close with a banquet at the Methodist church in Adrian at 7 o'clock. Elmer Beamer of Blissfield, state commissioner of agriculture, will act as master of ceremonies, and Robert L. Mackie of Metamora, president of the Michigan Association as toastmaster. The speakers are L. P. McCann from the extension department of Ohio State University in Columbus; A. J. Ingold of Riga, director of Michigan Livestock Exchanges; and Prof. George A. Brown of Michigan State College.

10 Motorists Involved In Four Traffic Mishaps

Ten Tecumseh residents escaped serious injuries in traffic accidents on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Pulver and Ellsworth Collins were bruised and shaken, Monday afternoon, when the car in which they were riding, driven by Mr. Collins, was forced off the highway about four miles this side of Ann Arbor. The accident happened during a rainstorm and as a car driven by Chris Finkbeiner of Saline, attempted to pass a truck and the Collins car. All traveling in the same direction. The Finkbeiner car "cut in" too short, and the right rear fender hooked the front fender and bumper of the Collins car, forcing it into the ditch. The top and side of the car was badly damaged when it struck a tree. Except for being bruised and shaken, none of the occupants of the car was hurt, and Mr. and Mrs. Pulver were taken to Ann Arbor by Mr. Finkbeiner, returning home later in the afternoon.

A car owned by Jon Young, a member of the high school faculty, and driven by George Isaacson, jr., was damaged about 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon near Saline on US-12. This accident, which involved six other cars, occurred when a driver cut in and out in passing the cars, causing front and rear crashes. Young, Isaacson and the latter's sister, Miss Vivian Isaacson, Gregg Aebersold and Don Carlson were passengers in the car. They were taken by Miss Isaacson to Detroit, where she is employed. Aebersold suffered a head cut that required seven stitches, and two stitches were taken in a cut in Carlson's head. The others were bruised and shaken. All were treated at Saline.

Allen French suffered minor cuts and bruises, Friday night, when he lost control of his car while rounding a curve on M-50, at the north village limits. The car struck a tree, overturned and was wrecked.

Cars driven by Roscoe Collins of Michigan Center and Merrill Dickey, Tecumseh, collided in Adrian, early Sunday morning. The damage was slight in either car and the drivers were not hurt.

During the afternoon eliminations contests in dramatic and oratorical declamation and the final contest in extempore speaking were held. DEFENSE BONDS ON SALE MAY 1

WILL BE OFFERED TO TECUMSEH THROUGH POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT

The United States Defense Savings Bonds and Postal Savings Stamps will be placed on sale at the post office here on Thursday, May 1, as part of the national effort to make America impregnable.

Postmaster Franc S. Gillespie announced today that plans are nearly completed for this community, along with thousands of others from coast to coast, to do its full part in the opening of the savings program.

Postmaster General Frank C. Walker, in a letter to postmasters throughout the country, said that the help of local postmasters would be "a real service to the country." He transmitted the thanks of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau for the help that local postmasters had already given in the sale of United States securities, and also Mr. Morgenthau's thanks in advance "for the co-operation which he knows you will give to this new effort."

The new Defense Savings Bond is similar to the familiar "Baby Bond," of which more than five billion dollars worth have been bought by more than two and a half million Americans since 1935.

A Defense Bond may be purchased May 1, or thereafter, for $18.75. In ten years, this bond will be worth $25.00. This is an increase of 33 1-3 per cent, equal to an annual interest return of 2.9 per cent, compounded semi-annually. Any time after sixty days from the date of purchase, the bond may be redeemed for cash, in accordance with a table of redemption values printed on the face of the bond.

To spread investments widely among all the people in America, a limit of $5,000 has been set on the amount of these bonds to be bought by any one person in one year. The bonds are in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, all of which are sold for 75 per cent of their maturity value and all of which mature in ten years.

For larger investors who can afford to purchase up to $50,000 worth of bonds a year, the Treasury Department has issued two additional kinds of Defense Savings Bonds, but these will be sold only through banks and by direct mail from Washington, D. C. They are intended for associations, estates and corporations, as well as individual purchasers.

For the smaller investor who wants to buy a Government Bond on an easy payment plan, the post office will have a new series of Postal Savings Stamps, at 10c, 25c, 50c, $1, and $5. Each purchaser of any Savings Stamp higher than 10c will be given, free of charge, an attractive pocket album in which to paste his stamps until he has enough to buy a $25 bond or one of higher denomination. Thirty million of these albums are now being prepared.

STUDENTS ARE GIVEN U. M. HEARING TESTS

A few weeks ago fifteen Tecumseh public school students were taken to Ann Arbor, where, through the cooperation of the University Speech Clinic, they were given hearing tests and, if the test proved necessary, and otologic examination.

This was the first step in the follow up program begun by the multiple audiometer readings taken in December. At that time approximately 400 students from the fourth through the twelfth grades were given hearing tests by means of a multiple audiometer lent to the school by the speech clinic. About 18 students showed apparent hearing deficiencies and they were given the opportunity to go to the clinic for a more accurate and complete examination free of charge. Fifteen took advantage of this opportunity.

Because of the spring holidays no report has been received as yet concerning the tests taken at Ann Arbor. When these reports arrive, further plans in the follow-up program can be made.

The group was accompanied by Miss Jane Elliott, Paul Johnson, teachers, and W. L. Berkhof, superintendent.

PRICE CONTROL OF FOOD LIKELY

RUNAWAY PRICES, REMEMBERED FROM LAST WAR, MAY BE PEGGED BY U. S.

LANSING, April 24 — Potatoes at $6 a bushel, eggs at $1 a dozen and sugar at 25 cents a pound are not expected in a 1941 or 1942 war-time economy, such as was the case in World War I.

The farmer, remembering the price collapse that trailed the great boom, is inclined to be cautious and wary.

And Uncle Sam is taking a hand with reins on possible inflation.

Prospects of 1941 farm crops in Michigan are decidedly favorable, if not bullish. The Michigan cooperative farm reporting service at Lansing pointed out this month that winter wheat, rye and pasture were above average in condition. Corn, wheat and oats are above average, the estimate for oats being 27 million bushels compared with a Michigan average of 15 millions.

Because of the mild winter, fruit prospects are also equally bright. And so it goes.

Brakes on runaway prices are to be applied at Washington through a special administration headed by Leon Henderson, the federal economist who accurately foresaw the "recession" of 1937. And at the same time a price ceiling is contemplated, a price floor has been ordered for some food products—pork, butter, eggs and chickens.

The net result should be more money in the farmer's pocket.

Consumption of food is not static; it does not remain stationary.

The federal stamp plan for marketing of surplus food commodities helped to establish this fact. In county after county in Michigan where this surplus system has been put into use, families on welfare lists are eating more food.

Hospital Benefit Dance Here Tomorrow Night

Plans for the observance of National Hospital Day on May 12, in Tecumseh, were completed at a meeting of the Tecumseh Hospital Auxiliary, on Monday evening.

The program, as announced, will include a public inspection of the hospital, especially the recently completed addition, during the afternoon hours. In the evening of the same day, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, a public banquet will be held in the high school gymnasium followed by an educational program and entertainment. This will be in charge of the Hospital Auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. John Larsen, the president. Dr. Paul Jordan of the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, will be the speaker. A feature of the entertainment side of the program will be Billy Roosevelt, youthful male soprano singer from the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit. An orchestra directed by Paul Johnson will furnish music for dancing after the banquet and program.

The ticket sale will start next week under the direction of Karl M. Schneider assisted by the Rotary Club. Due to the limited capacity of the gymnasium for banquet purposes, only three hundred tickets will be available. The sale will also be open to the people of neighboring towns. Hence an early purchase of tickets is advisable, the committee said.

YOUR TAX PROBLEM

The public is becoming tax conscious.

Hardly an issue of any newspaper has appeared in the past three months without one or more news stories referring to taxes, and of late all stories have indicated that there will be sharp increases.

Within the past week, Washington has said officially that taxes MUST jump if we are to continue our present spending. Some officials have hinted at 20 and 30 per cent advances, others, perhaps more honest with the public, say frankly that taxes must double.

Beyond doubt, taxes will double and possibly redouble. The American people, staggering now under a debt never before shouldered by any nation, must expect it should realize it. The public debt today, around the $50,000,000,000 mark, is also likely to double. How, then, can taxes keep from increasing?

Ofttimes the people of a small community like Tecumseh fail to realize that the federal spending of funds means the tapping of their purses. Too often they are given to thinking that the great industrialists, the big corporations, the Wall Streets of New York will carry the load. But will they? What do the statistics show?

On the thirtieth day of last June, the end of a fiscal year for the government, statistics showed that the public debt at that time amounted to $109 per capita throughout the United States. The average, broken down to families, amounted to $410 for each and every family. That was before the newspapers carried the headlines about defense preparations costing 40 billions of dollars. That was when the public debt amounted to less than 50 billions of dollars.

Consider for a moment what such a debt as was admitted by the government last June 30 means to the residents of Tecumseh. It means that every man, woman, child and baby in the village has a tax debt of $109 hanging over his or her head. Why worry, you say. Somebody will pay it other than you?

Don't fool yourself. Figures don't lie, even though liars figure. You are going to pay the debt or it will be passed along to your children and your children's children.

And again don't be mistaken. Each of us is going to pay a lot more than $109 per capita. It can't be otherwise.

The next time you buy clothing, a car or something else and the price has increased, don't cuss the merchant, the jobber, the middle-man or the manufacturer. Those fellows are trying, just as you are trying, to stay on top the ladder and to continue in business. They are finding new taxes on every hand, new demands from government and labor, that force prices to rise. They cannot continue on the same margin of profit and still pay their bills plus their taxes. They have been forced to ask more for their product.

Now turn to your calendar and mark the date, April 24, 1941, and six months from now see if this statement is not a fact: Taxes are going to mount steadily, month after month, and so are prices. You haven't seen anything, yet.

"Industrial booms and the approach of the draft undoubtedly were an influence in the increase in marriages, particularly in the second half of the year. The Corner Pulpit

"Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength ... Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee." (Isaiah 41:1, 10)

While we are within the retreating shadow of this year's Easter celebration, it should be observed that our situation today corresponds closely to the experience of our Lord's disciples following the first Easter Day. The days after the Resurrection were difficult waiting days for the disciples. They were still in a daze, not knowing what the future would bring forth.

Likewise the trend of contemporary affairs at home and abroad put us in a daze. We cannot even understand the present, much less hazard an opinion about the future. We are perplexed and befuddled. But one thing is always left for us to do, and that is to wait upon God: to be silent before Him. Of course such advice often sounds like a pious platitude. Prayers seem futile. The trouble is we pray, but then forget to listen. God is ever waiting to speak to us, in the silences, providing we are still enough to listen and hear.

Longfellow caught the truth when he wrote:

"Let us then labor for an inward stillness—
An inward stillnes and an inward healing;
That perfect silence where the lips and heart
Are still, and wear longer entertain
Our own imperfect thoughts and vain opinions,
But God alone speaks in us, and we wait
In singleness of heart, that we may know
His will, and in the silence of our spirits,
That we may do His will, and do that only."

No Clothespin on this Car's Nose!

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedanet, $1006. White sidewall tires extra★
WOULDN'T a sprinter or a long-distance runner look silly trying to race with a clothespin firmly clamped on his nose!
Yet, in a sense, something fairly close to that happens in nearly every car that lacks Buick's sensational Compound Carburetion.†
For your engine has to breathe in huge quantities of air to be mixed with gasoline before it is burned in the cylinders.
But single-carburetor fuel supply systems can handle only a given volume of air.
To that extent, then, an ordinary engine has a clothespin on its nose—a limitation on air supply for big power operation.
We remove that clothespin very simply—by having two carburetors; one that handles all casual driving smoothly and efficiently, another to jump in with more air and more fuel when you call for extra power by stepping on the gas treadle!
Simple? Very simple indeed.
And simply marvelous in the extra FIREBALL valve it gives you and in the gas savings you get—as much as 10% to 15% over previous Buicks with the same-size engines.
Maybe you'd better go see your Buick dealer now.

PRICE CONTROL

tute of Food Distribution reveal sharp variations in consumption by income groups. As income of the "submerged third" increases, total food consumption goes up.

Food prices tend to rise when spending is inflated.

Meats, for instance, register the highest percentage of price rise—from an index of 68.4 in February, 1940, to 83.6 in February, 1941. But this is an exception.

Foods generally have gone up only 6 points from March, 1940 to March, 1941.

Under the new price program at Washington, production of pork, dairy products, eggs and poultry will be stimulated by pegged prices during the next year or two. Prices will be kept at levels remunerative to producers.

Here is where the lend-lease act should help the farmer.

It is a story of surplus and shortage.

The surplus of wheat in the United States is 380 million bushels, greatest in our history. In South America wheat is being fed to livestock; Canada has stored enough wheat to provide for needs of the Dominion of Canada and the British Isles for the next two years.

Furthermore, federal triple-A experts concede that the prospect of the 1941 wheat crop, combined with the record carry-over, should be enough to take care of our domestic needs for nearly two years if farmers didn't grow another bushel of wheat in that time!

While surplus corn, estimated as 700 million bushels, can be converted into profits by using it as feed for hogs under a better price for pork products, a possible shortage is in sight for dairy products, meats, poultry and eggs and some fruits and vegetables.

Demand for these products comes from both Britain and from rising domestic consumption due to higher industrial pay rolls.

The government, through its surplus marketing administration, will bolster prices in the abovee group by going into the commodity market and buying up supplies in an orderly fashion. Supplies could be transferred to the British, Chinese or Greeks under the lend-lease act, or they could be released upon the domestic market to halt unwarranted, speculative price profiteering.

Will it work. Both the consumer and the farmer stand to benefit if prices can be stabilized and if disastrous inflation can be avoided.

An example of price control that affects a Michigan industry is the pegging of copper at 12 cents a pound.

If copper had followed the law of supply and demand, as it did in the World War, it would be selling today for 20 to 24 cents a pound.

Even a small rise to 14 or 16 cents a pound would enable Upper Peninsula copper mines to grant wage increases to miners. But it would also boost defense costs, now running at a dizzy pace of 16 billions for the current year.

Cost of living as a whole is not much above last year.

According to the March issue of Labor's Monthly Survey, published by the American Federation of Labor, "figures for February show an increase of 1.2 per cent over February, 1940."

What is the case of the farmer in comparison to industrial wage-earners and stockholders?

In an economy where leading benefits are going to industry, it is inevitable that rural members of state legislatures would reflect dissatisfaction of the farmer with production-halting strikes in national defense plants.

As for the stockholder, corporation dividends in 1938 were $3,370,000,000; in 1940, $4,8000,000,000, according to the U. S. department of commerce, even after new taxes had been paid.

(The 1940 dividend distribution was the largest in the United States since 1929.)

As for the wage-earner, the weekly pay roll in manufacturing industries for January of this year was $228,926,000, compared with $138,000,000 for January, 1940. The average wage this year was $27.69 compared with $25.51 one year ago and $23.80 two years ago.

Compare these prosperity figures with Michigan's agricultural income for 1939: $271 per capita for a farm population of 830,000, and a total farm income of $224,675,000. (The national average was $266; income in some southern states is pathetically low.)

While these figures may seem dull to the consumer, who thinks usually in terms of cost of living, they are important to the Michigan farmer.

Price-pegging of certain food commodities at profitable production levels, accumulation of food reserves to stabilize consumer prices (and prevent speculative profiteering by the middlemen), and continuation of federal acreage restriction payments and parity payments all spell one thing: Better times for 830,000 people in Michigan.

The farmer, faced with prospect of good crops in 1941, is due to get a fairer share of the national income.

Such is the picture in April.

Miss Adah M. Curtiss Weds Thomas B. Morton

Miss Adah M. Curtiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Curtiss became the bride of Thomas B. Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Morton of Detroit, at an evening wedding Saturday at 8 o'clock in St. Peter's Episcopal church, The Rev. Edward R. A. Green read the marriage service in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. Easter lilies, daffodils, palms and forsythia decorated the chancel which was candle lighted.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Charles Jones presented a short program of organ music and Miss Janet Dickinson sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was attended by Miss Edna Arnold as bridesmaid and Mrs. Sargeant Martin of Charlottesville, Va., as matron of honor. Ernest Morton of Detroit was his brother's attendant and the ushers were Owen and Jack Curtiss and Jack Turner of Detroit. Kathryn Ann Sisson was flower girl.

The bride's gown was of slipper satin with a long train and a veil of white illusion with a wreath of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies. Her attendants were figured organdy with shoulder length veil and headdress of chiffon flowers and carried colonial bouquets.

Following the ceremony a reception for 75 guests was held at the Curtiss home on East Pottawatamie street where refreshments were served from an attractively appointed table centered with a large wedding cake and lighted candles. Designed as companion pieces, the chest and wall shelf pictured here may be spaced to effect balance in a room of awkward wall layout. The shelves are deep enough to hold unit accommodate books and bric-a-brac knacks. The chest has a dual function too, as the top drawer opens into a desk. Similar lines design and with matching drawer pulls, the two units complement each other when spaced within reasonable distance.

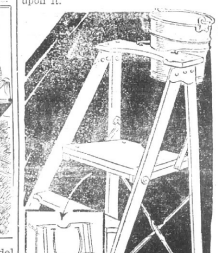
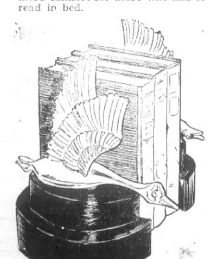
No longer need nighthawks awaken the household by fumbling for the light switch or running into furniture in the wee hours of the morning. Now a luminous carpet has been perfected which lights the way from front door to bedroom. Commercial uses for the magic carpet will, of course, be more common, particularly in theatres where there exists the problem of seating people in a dark room. The chemically treated carpet becomes luminous when the "black light" of an ultra-violet lamp, which is equipped with a cobalt blue filter, is played upon it.

Convinced that frequent model changes are a big factor in sustaining car sales, furniture makers are becoming new model conscious. Stressing comfort and convenience, improved designs are constantly being introduced in the home furnishings field. Evidence of this trend is found in the bed sketched above. Like an easy chair, its headboard is slanted, permitting more comfort for those who like to read in bed.



The program to reduce accidents in the home has an ally in the ladder shown above. Distinguishing features are a heavy wire loop which holds a bucket, a working platform, "non-slip" treads on steps, and rubber-footed legs. Aside from the safety feature of the working platform, its underside accommodates the detachable wire loop when not in use as well as brushes and wiping cloth. The ladder folds compactly.



With the growing diversification of gift items it is no trick at all to find one suggestive of the recipient's hobby. A gift for a person whose hobby is hunting, for instance, is found in this new type bookend with wild geese the motif. The base is of walnut and the birds come in a variety of metal finishes.

STUDY CLASS TO MEET

The Missionary Study Class of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at the Methodist church today at 2:30 p. m. Mrs Jennie Temple will review the first chapter of the book, "Dangerous Opportunity."

The day of the "house wrapper" cut in generous and unbecoming lines is apparently gone forever. At least that is the inference gained from a preview of the many new types of housecoats designed for the season ahead. A typical innovation is the snowy white coat of deep nap fabric pictured above. It is cut in wrap around style and deceitfully simple.

Illimitable Income

TO LIVE within their income appears to present a difficult problem to many people. In numerous cases, the supply seems to be insufficient to meet even legitimate needs, and the ceaseless struggle to make ends meet and to keep out of debt robs human experience of its rightful measure of harmony and happiness. Such a state of affairs ought never to be submitted to unquestioningly, whatever the circumstances.

Nowhere in the Scriptures do we find authority for believing that God's will for His children is limitation and lack. On the contrary, we find that whenever men have humbly and trustfully turned to God for help, they have triumphantly come out of their troubles, no matter how hopeless the situation had appeared to be. God's love for His children has undergone no change. He is eternally our Father, and all may turn to Him in absolute confidence that He will answer their call for help, for did not the Master, speaking of the Christ, Truth, promise (John 14:13), "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son"?

Someone may say, I have asked God, most earnestly and for a long time, to bring me out of my financial difficulties, and I have received no answer. The asking which meets with no response is not prayer based on the spiritual understanding of God and of man's relationship to Him. A state of insufficient income arises from the mistaken belief that man is material, and that matter is substance. . . .

Paul declared to the Athenians (Acts 17:28), "In him we live, and move, and have our being." Referring to Christ Jesus' words (John 10:30), "I and my Father are one," Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, writes on page 361 of her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "As a drop of water is one with the ocean, a ray of light one with the sun, even so God and man, Father and son, are one in being." Such inseparability of Parent and child can be truly conceived of only as that of infinite Mind and infinite idea. . . .

The coming of spiritual ideas to human consciousness is illimitable, for God, divine Mind, is ceaselessly pouring forth His treasures of spiritual thought to sustain, support, and satisfy His children. The real man possesses true substance by reflection, for Mind, substance, is eternally present and knows no limitation or insufficiency. The application of these grand spiritual truths in human affairs should not be thought strange. The strange thing is that men have so unquestioningly accepted evil as a powerful, controlling factor in human experience. . . .

Let all those who suffer the strain and stress of belief in insufficient income, lift thought above anxious human planning and contriving, and let them turn their thoughts in a new direction. Let them ask God for childlike trust and receptivity, for calmness and courage, for an overflowing sense of gratitude and love, for wisdom and the clear spiritual vision which distinguishes between the real and the unreal. Then let them wait with confident expectancy, and the answer will come, even as it did in the father's sweet assurance to the elder brother of the prodigal son (Luke 15:31), "Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine."

All that God has is ours by reflection, and He is infinite Mind, divine Love. When the material income seems inadequate to meet the daily demands, let us remember that God alone is the source of supply. We must love God, good, above all else, acknowledge no substance or intelligence but divine Mind, and strive to reflect the divine nature and character in every detail of daily living. When the spiritual fact is seen and understood, unlimited good flows into human experience, and the false beliefs which have seemed to control us loosen their hold and fall away.

To the listening ear come spiritual intuitions, divine aspirations, holy thoughts of joy and peace, and the wisdom to use the newfound good. The more one uses spiritual ideas, the more they multiply and abound. Thus one finds all his human needs supplied, and so proves the truth of Mrs. Eddy's words (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 307): "God gives you His spiritual ideas, and in turn, they give you daily supplies. Never ask for tomorrow: it is enough that divine Love is an ever-present help; and if you wait, never doubting, you will have all you need every moment." — The Christian Science Monitor.

Today Its Preparedness!

IN these times of War, when history is in the making every minute of the 24-hour day, the people of the United States are preparedness-minded.

They think of preparedness in terms of the nation; in terms of their own community; in terms of their families and themselves.

And the alert merchant, the alert manufacturer is prepared today as never before to serve this public. Like the nation, he too must be "on his toes," ready for service.

Newspaper advertising, a means through which the merchant and the manufacturer may tell his story to the public, is a part of the nation's merchandising service.

In Tecumseh there is no other medium through which this service may be performed other than The Tecumseh Herald, Lenawee County's Oldest Weekly Newspaper.

Life Of A Soldier Is No Longer Made Up of Close-order Drills

Fort Custer, Michigan — What does a soldier do with his spare time? This problem, which has vexed military authorities for many years, is be tackled effectively and realistically by military and civilian authorities both at and near Fort Custer, Michigan.

Charged with the duty of seeing that John Q. Private doesn't find time hanging heavy on his hands during his off-duty hours is a group of skilled recreational personnel. Not all soldiers enjoy the same things or have the same interests and this makes the problem a tough one, but this very divergency of tastes brings to play the entire catagory of recreational facilities.

The neighboring communities of Battle Creek and Kalamazoo have donated their help and their facilities generously while the Army, for its part, is spending thousands of dollars to make sure its soldiers enjoy themselves.

At Fort Custer there is a big new Service Club operated by three trained hostesses, devoted exclusively to the enlisted personnel, and providing a big dance floor, a cafeteria, lounges, a library and reading rooms. Directly behind the club is a Guest House where the families of soldiers can obtain overnight accomodations when visiting their sons in the service. Besides this, Fort Custer maintains and operates four motion picture theatres which play to aggregate audiences of more than 20,000 weekly and offer frequently changing bills booked by the War Department.

Downtown Battle Creek has been no less active in arranging attractions for soldiers who visit the city evenings and Sundays. The city's fully equipped "Youth Center" has made its gymnasium and game rooms available to soldiers while the city recently has opened a downtown Service Club which offers about the same recreational facilities as the one the Army operates at Fort Custer. In Kalamazoo, a trifle farther away, dances, athletic events, lectures and other attractions have been opened to the troops in cooperation with Army authorities.

Dances cannot be a success without girls. "Dates" for the men are carefully selected and chaperoned by the camp hostesses who maintain a list of more than 200 girls in Battle Creek and nearby towns who are willing to attend military dances.

A glance at a weekly calendar published in the newspaper which comes to Fort Custer men shows the diversity of entertainment which is being provided. On Monday night, for example, there may be a lecture in Kalamazoo; a basketball game or boxing match in Battle Creek, and a dancing lesson at Fort Custer; Wednesday night there may be an amateur show at the Service Club, while Friday and Saturday nights there are likely to be dances arranged for specific units either at Fort Custer or in the nearby towns.

A soldier's life isn't all close-order and lectures.

Mr and Mrs Frank Hoekstra will receive free tickets to the Strand Theatre if they will call at the Herald office on or before April 21.

Improving Our Environment

JESUS said (Luke 17:21), "The kingdom of God is within you." Therefore, harmony, satisfaction, contentment, and peace are present for individual realization at all times. . . .

Mary Baker Eddy writes (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 567), "Our proportionate admission of the claims of good or of evil determines the harmony of our existence,—our health, our longevity, and our Christianity." Thus it is evident that what we admit to be true has a marked effect upon our daily experience. . . .

Spiritual understanding is the only effective remedy for erroneous beliefs, since it reveals Mind to be the one true basis for happiness and harmony. The best assurance for maintaining a desirable environment is a consciousness filled with goodness, love, justice—a consciousness imbued with the conviction that "all things work together for good to them that love God" (Romans 8:28). The consciousness of the allness—the omnipresence—of divine Love affords an effective defense against all manner of erroneous suggestion.

Christ Jesus said (John 14:2), "In my Father's house are many mansions." Man, as the idea of God, lives and moves in Mind, the infinite divine consciousness, wherein are only harmony and goodness. Our true selfhood is ever aware of kindness, compassion, peace, health, perfection. God's image and likeness knows no other state of being than that of perpetual harmony. Health, harmony, happiness are attained by spiritualizing individual human consciousness. We should always resist the temptation to believe that we are unable to accomplish a worthy task because of environment, conditions, or unjust opposition. All we need to do is to accept the fact that, as the children of God, omnipotent, infinite Truth, we are endowed with unlimited spiritual capacity. Then we shall begin to express the wisdom and strength necessary to achievement. Consistent harmony and success can be won only as we constantly reason from the basis of Spirit.

As we look at existence from the spiritual point of view, we find joy, beauty, and bliss made manifest in our present experience. If we believe ourselves to be material and separated from divine Principle, the goal we desire seems remote and even unattainable. But when we grasp the fact, even faintly, that true selfhood is at one with God, Love, and has no taint of materiality and mortality, the outlook brightens and we find heaven at hand. . . . He who is conscious of the presence of divine power sees as unreal any sense of a disagreeable or cramped environment.

The song of the bird, the beauty of the flower, the sky, the sunlight, all speak to the human heart of peace. Why? Because they lift our thought above the drab outlook of material sense to the contemplation of these symbols of divine goodness. Then, how much more should the Science of Christ, when understood and applied, increase our peace and joy, and promote harmony and success in all worthy enterprises! The only possible way we have of experiencing real and stable happiness and peace is through spiritual thinking, which recognizes the presence and allness of inexhaustible Love. There is but one really satisfying way to improve our environment, and that is by eliminating evil from our thinking, by banishing envy, fear, selfishness, and hatred. The purified consciousness finds concord and bliss where material sense suggests discord and woe.

When we realize that God is omnipresent, we know that evil cannot prevent us from proving the perfection of man, God's likeness. No claim of evil can interfere with our demonstration of goodness, blessedness, and harmony. If harmony does not seem to be present, we need to draw closer to God, and cling more firmly to His allness and goodness. In proportion to our realization of God's all-inclusiveness, and of man's likeness to Soul, will good come into our human experience. Let us accept wholeheartedly the fact that good is infinite, and that error cannot prevent our recognition of the fact. Then the loveliness of creation will unfold before our spiritualized vision, and our present experience will be filled with opportunities for good, friendship, and righteousness.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

NINETY - FIRST YEAR— NUMBER THIRTY-ONE. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1941. FIVE CENTS PER COPY.

FREE COOKING SCHOOL, MAY 2

SPONSORED BY FREEZ-IT LOCKERS, SLUYTER ELECTRIC, AT STRAND

The first free cooking school to be held in Tecumseh in several years, and to which the women of Tecumseh and its trading area are especially invited, was announced today by Miss Marion Whelan of Freez-it Lockers, and Ray Sluyter, of the Sluyter Electric Store. The school will be held Friday (tomorrow) afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock at the Strand Theatre. No admission ticket is necessary.

The school, it has been announced, is built around the preparation and use of frozen meats, fruits and vegetables, and the use of electrical appliances, especially stoves and refrigeration. Many new recipes will be announced, including the use of frozen dough for baking, and the preparation of an entire meal from frozen foods. The Sluyter company also will demonstrate the newest models in stoves and refrigerators.

"There is a growing demand for information regarding the preparation and use of frozen foods," Miss Whelan said, "and the school will bring out these points clearly by demonstration. Not only will we show how frozen foods—fruits, meats, vegetables—may be served, but the ladies also will be told how to prepare them for freezing, so that they can be kept for months before they are used."

Miss Whelan pointed out that housewives on farms will be especially interested in the school because they will learn how it will be possible for them to conserve foods that otherwise might be wasted and also how it is possible to avoid long, tedious canning processes.

"The school, we expect, will be of unusual interest because it will be something different," Miss Whelan said. "People today are learning more and more about the use of frozen foods, and daily the demand for frozen products is increasing."

Miss Whelan pointed out that besides the actual demonstration work, and the display and demonstration of electrical refrigerators and ranges, there also would be two motion pictures, one of them in technicolor. Free samples of frozen products will be given as well as free recipe books.

Mr. Sluyter, in announcing his cooperation with Miss Whelan in staging the school, said that the companies he represents plans to have the newest in electrical equipment on display during the program. Factory representatives also will be on hand to explain the products, he said.

Old Springville Inn Is Opened By The Hewletts

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hewitt have moved from their home at Cambridge Junction in the Irish Hills to live at the charming old Springville Inn located on M-50 three miles south of their historic Walker Taverns. They will keep Springville Inn open daily including Sundays for those who wish to tour the old inn or acquire from the interesting collection of antiques assembled there.

The old Springville Inn was partly built in 1840 and added to twice later. The dining room has open tamarack rafters. There is an ancient alcove kitchen, a quaint taproom and a spacious country ballroom. In the two-acre garden is a flowing stream.

In early days the Irishmen of the Hills held their debating and political meetings at the inn and started their horseraces from it down to La Plaisance Bay pike. In 1929 the Lenawee Historical Society put up a boulder marking the spot.

Mr. Hewitt, the present occupant, was rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church in Tecumseh from 1912 to 1916.

MRS. GODDARD'S MOTHER BURIED IN MANISTIQUE

Besides her daughter she leaves a son in Manistique, where the body was taken for funeral and burial. Mr. and Mrs. Don Goddard who accompanied the sorry there, returned home Tuesday.

CHURCH RAZED BY RURAL FIRE

SPRINGVILLE M. E., ONE OF COUNTY'S LANDMARKS, COMPLETELY DESTROYED

The Springville Methodist church, one of the old landmarks of Lenawee county, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The blaze, which started from a grass fire in the marsh at the rear of the church, spread rapidly through a pile of dry shingles in the church yard and was out of bounds before help arrived. The Tecumseh, Onsted and Brooklyn fire departments responded to the call but were unable to do much beyond saving the organ and a few pews. The only water available was from the mill pond.

The church which was built in 1868 was located just off M-50 on the Irish road north of the Springville corner. The building had recently been repainted and reshingled and the old shingles had not been removed from the yard. The loss, not yet estimated, is only partly covered by insurance.

Rev. E. F. Hildebrand, pastor of the Tecumseh Methodist church has served as minister at Springville for some time. The church drew a fair sized congregation from the surrounding community and the Ladies Aid Society has been a very active organization.

T. H. S. Tennis Team To Meet Sylvania, Today

In their second game of the season, the Tecumseh high school tennis team will meet the netters from Sylvania, Ohio, on the local courts at 4 o'clock today. Due to the fact that no other schools in the Lenawee county league offer tennis competition, it has been necessary this year to build a schedule with teams outside of this league and also with teams from other than Class C schools. Sylvania high school is rated Class B in Ohio.

Carrying a squad of twelve players Tecumseh met Adrian high school last Friday on their courts. Although the match score appears lopsided in favor of Adrian, the individual scores indicate a possible win in the return match May 9. Following are the scores in Friday's match: Singles — B. Murphy Is Chairman Of Youth Council Drive

The appointment of J. B. Murphy as chairman of the Tecumseh Youth Council Drive, was announced at the regular noon-day luncheon meeting of the Rotary club here, Tuesday. The Youth Drive, a Rotary-sponsored movement to secure funds for the maintenance of youth organizations in the village, has been an annual affair here for several years.

The date of the drive for funds, and the committees in charge of the work will be announced soon by the new chairman. It also is likely that the solicitation will get under way with a breakfast-meeting, as has been the custom in the past.

The program time at this week's Rotary meeting was given over to a business session, at which time Karl M. Schneider, in charge of the ticket sales for the Tecumseh Hospital banquet, May 12, explained how the sale will be conducted. Only 300 can be accommodated at the banquet table, and each Rotarian was assigned six tickets which he will sell before next Tuesday. The ticket demand, Mr. Schneider said, is heavy, and it is expected that the affair will be one of the largest ever held in the village.

William Bruce, the club's president-elect, and Wade L. Jones, secretary, were the present at this week's meeting. They were in Ann Arbor, attending the annual district conference of the organization.

HOSPITAL DAY PROGRAM READY

300 EXPECTED AT BANQUET, MAY 12; HOSPITAL "OPEN HOUSE" ANNOUNCED

National Hospital Day, Monday, May 12th, will be observed here in a two-fold way. In the afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock, the Tecumseh Community Hospital will hold open house, at which time the public is invited to inspect the hospital with its recently completed addition. Then in the evening, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, a public banquet and program followed by a dance will be held in the high school gymnasium.

Dr. Paul Jordan of the University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, will be the principal speaker. He is an able speaker, and his subject will be "What a Hospital Means to a Community Like Tecumseh." The Rev. Edward Escolme, pastor of the Friends' Church, will give the invocation and William J. Bruce, superintendent of the Cyclone Fence Company, will act as toastmaster. A five piece orchestra directed by Paul Johnson will provide music during the dinner, and later in the evening, after the addresses, for dancing. An entertainment feature of the porgram will be Billy Roosevelt, youthful male soprano singer who occupies an important place in the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit. He has sung here before in Tecumseh on two occasions in St. Peter's church, and each time he thrilled those who heard him. This time of course his singing will be to popular instead of sacred music.

The following local people, each representing an important phase of the hospital, will make brief addresses and bring greetings to the guests: J. Floyd Elliott, representing the village council; Miss Gertrude Spalding, superintendent; Mrs. John Larsen, president of the auxiliary; Dr. H. H. Hammel, chief-of-staff; and R. W. Herrick, president of the hospital board. Dancing will conclude the program.

This banquet and program is sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary under the leadership of the president, Mrs. John Larsen. Mrs. Larsen is being assisted by the following committees, the first person named in each case being the chairman: dinner, Mrs. H. D. Iler, Mrs. W. T. Claxton, Mrs. Karl M. Schneider; chairs and tables, Mrs. Paul Keyser, Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. Jens Touborg; dishes, Mrs. Don Heesen, Mrs. George Isaacson, Mrs. Carl Cederquist; table decorations and lighting, Mrs. R. W. Herrick, Mrs. Louis Lindbert, Mrs. F. C. Hanna, Mrs. H. H. Hammel, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. R. K. Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Berry, Mrs. O. W. Parver; gymnasium decorations, Mrs. H. H. Hanna, Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, Mrs. Charles O'Neil; checking room, Mrs. Sam Sisson.

Hostesses at the hospital reception will be Mrs. Glenn Gripton and Mrs. W. S. Niblack of Britton; Mrs. C. Kamhout, Mrs. Cecil Moore and Mrs. Glenn Randall of Clinton and Mrs. C. Squires of Tecumseh.

The ticket sale is now being conducted by the Rotary Club directed by a special committee composed of Karl M. Schneider, Charles O. Butler and Clarence Gilman. Due to the limited space of the high school gymnasium for banquet purposes and gatherings of this kind, only three hundred tickets will be available. Mr. Schneider, chairman of the committee, says that tickets will be at a premium, and therefore urges that purchases be made as early as possible.

The price of the tickets has been put at a figure which will just cover the cost of the banquet and expenses incident to the program and entertainment. The purpose of this celebration is not to make money but to observe National Hospital Day which should mean much to this community through its possession of such a modern, well equipped, institution. Any small profit which may accrue will be turned over to the hospital auxiliary.

KEEPING THE WOLF AT A SAFE DISTANCE

We walk among billions of dollars these days like Little Red Riding Hood in the forest, lost, bewildered, and frequently a little frightened. But surely the best solution when you are astray in the deep woods and have lost your bearing is to pause for a moment like the experienced woodsman and study the details of the situation. That's the first step in the direction of finding your way out into the open again.

The Federal spending situation can be described with greater clarity than the actual program itself possesses. Here's the story in its main elements:

On the basis of the best estimates, during the coming fiscal year the national government will be spending about 22 billion dollars. Spending for military and naval purposes will be at the rate of more than a billion dollars a month, or 15 billions in all. Non-military spending will probably continue to rise, and will consume the other seven billion dollars.

Offsetting revenue, it is said, will be only about nine billion dollars. On this basis, non-military spending will absorb almost 80 per cent of federal revenues.

Thus the problem is posed. We have plumped for adequate defense, and the public is willing to pay for it. But coupled with this, the American people have the right to expect an almost hair-shirt economy in the regular operations of government. Improved business conditions, a rising national income, should relieve some of the pressure of "emergency" spending, so roundly advocated in previous "bad times." More of federal revenues will be needed to help pay the big defense bill.

Little Red Riding Hood, the American public, can reasonably demand of her elected guardians, the Congress and officials of our government, that the elementary safeguard of placing a rein on civil expenditures should be observed. If something of the sort is not done, the Big Bad Wolf of inflation and fiscal uncertainty is likely to put in his unwelcome appearance.

The Corner Pulpit

"I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight." (Isaiah 42:16)

Dark before dawn. But the dawn comes.

How can God's Kingdom come in such a hopeless warring world as ours? We cannot see the way. We are not better than blind. But God promises to lead the blind by a NEW way. "I will make darkness light before them." Hopeless we may be about our world, but in God we are full of hope. His promises hold true. As a great English bishop has said, "Man may wreck and ruin the world, but God still REIGNS over it."

In one of His farewell discourses, Jesus said, "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do." We, as the heirs of those ancient disciples to whom Jesus made that statement, have been trusted to carry on the task. Our resources are far more adequate than were those of the first century Christians. The real question is: Are we available? Are we willing to accept the commission? Have we earned to work together?

The long story of mankind is punctuated with numerous striking interventions of God in the affairs of men. Many feel that the time is now ripe for another irruption of the Divine Spirit, a force so powerful that it will sweep through every area of our domestic and national life, and bring a freshness and wholesomeness into our daily living. In any event, times like these are an extraordinary opportunity to trust God; to believe His promises; to be on the watch for light upon the NEW way, and when we see it to be ready to take that new way boldly and together.

More Money Wanted

Employee—I would like an increase in salary, sir, as I am going to be married.

Employer—And I suppose you would like to have a little bigger fund to draw upon for your household expenses?

Employee—No, it isn't that. My future wife knows exactly how much I get, and I would like a little extra for my own use that she doesn't know about.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Satterthwaite will receive free tickets to the Strand Theatre if they will call at the Herald office on or before May 5.

Insurance was the only thing left for the members of the family that survived this auto wreck! Their car mangled: the head of the family lost to them . . .

Insurance could at least give some monetary compensation with which to carry on. It is foolhardy to put off being protected with the right auto insurance: because accidents give no warning.

Don't Overlook the NEED FOR SAVING

In these days of hurry and bustle, with the newspapers filled with stories of warfare, men and women are going back to work.

Don't forget to save a little out of every paycheck — lay it away for a "rainy day," a time when you may need a little extra cash to tide you over some emergency.

A few dollars will open a savings account at this bank. If you'll add to it regularly you'll be surprised how rapidly it will grow.

Week's Best Recipe

POTATO BISCUIT — 1 cup cooked potatoes; 1 1-2 cups flour; 2 level teaspoons baking powder; 1-2 level teaspoon salt; 1-4 cup shortening; 1 egg; about 3-4 cup milk. Boil and mash the potatoes, having them free from lumps. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder; add the potatoes and cut in the shortening. Mix to a light dough with the eggs and milk, roll out a little thinner than ordinary biscuit, and bake in a hot oven. Serve as soon as done.

A Beauty Hint:

An inexpensive method of removing superfluous hair from arms and legs is to use the emery paper from any hardware store. It is as effective as any of the commercial pads of the same type, and it costs much less.

Cooking Helps:

If food burns in pan, shake a generous amount of soda into it, fill with cold water and let stand on back of stove until pan may be easily cleaned...Leftover mashed potatoes can be fashioned into small cakes and used for holding creamed foods, shaped into flat cakes and browned or they can be used for covering fish, meat or vegetable "pies."

The Family Doctor:

When necessary to compress over a period of time it is often difficult to keep them hot enough without constant reheating. To eliminate this difficulty use two or more compresses, keeping them hot in a colander placed over a kettle of constantly boiling water.

The Sewing Room:

Here is a time-saving hint for those who sew. When starting to sew, thread several needles onto the thread to be used, before it is broken from the spool. Each time a new thread is needed select the end needle, pushing the rest of the needles back toward the spool and break off as much thread as desired. This is also a great help for one with poor eyesight.

An Inspiration:

"I shall pass this way but once. Any good thing, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now."

We Were Not BOMBED!
Our building was not wrecked during a BLITZ-KREIG!

No sir! There were no direct hits scored on Schneider Bros. Garage, Inc., although our building has looked like a wreck for several weeks.

It's this way. The property has been sold — we didn't buy it. It's being torn down and we are forced to move. So, after 21 years in the same location, we have opened a new garage, showroom and service station at OTTAWA & CUMMINS Sts.

(In the building recently built by R. J. McCoy)

We're open for business—an even bigger business than in the past. We've got more room, more to offer our customers.

For genuine service and satisfaction — and where there's plenty of parking space — call on us at 309 South Ottawa street, at Cummins street.

Proving That Doctors Don't Know Everything

A doctor's telephone rang when he was trying to go to sleep. The caller was in a wild state of alarm.

"My wife, doctor!" he shouted. "It's her appendix. You'd better come round quick."

"Keep her quiet in bed," said the doctor, "and I'll come around tomorrow. She hasn't got appendicitis."

The husband became even wilder, however, insisting that the doctor should come at once.

"Look here," said the doctor at last, "you know that I took out her appendix three years ago, and nobody has two appendixes."

"Ever heard of anybody having two wives?" asked the husband.

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 6): "Divine Love corrects and governs man. Men may pardon, but this divine Principle alone reforms the sinner."

Take That!

The fussy dentist was examining the teeth of his patient and assumed an air of great wisdom.

"Have you had any advice before with regard to your teeth?

"Yes. I called on a druggist last night."

"And what foolish advice did he give you?"

The exasperated patient exclaimed desperately

"He told me to come to you."

NINETY-FIRST YEAR— NUMBER THIRTY-TWO. TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1941. FIVE CENTS PER COPY.

300 TO ATTEND CIVIC BANQUET

HOSPITAL DAY TO BE OBSERVED WITH "OPEN HOUSE," DINNER, DANCE

Under the auspices of the Auxiliary of the Tecumseh Community Hospital, National Hospital Day, Monday, May 12, will be observed in a two fold way. Open house and an opportunity for public inspection will be held in the Tecumseh hospital in the afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock. In the evening, beginning at 6:30, a public banquet and program followed by a dance will be held in the high school gymnasium.

The main address entitled "What a Hospital Means to a Community like Tecumseh," will be delivered by Dr. Paul H. Jordan of the Neuropsychiatric Institute in the University Hospital, Ann Arbor. Dr. Jordan comes highly recommended as an able speaker in the medical profession. He was graduated from the college of medicine in the State University of Iowa. He interned in Pediatrics. For a year he was engaged in general practice, and then devoted himself to psychiatric work, specializing in child guidance. For the past three years he has been an instructor in psychiatry, and clinical director to the Michigan Child Guidance Institute. He is also consulting psychiatrist to the Michigan Children's Institute which is the state child placing agency.

A feature of the entertainment side of the program will be Billy Roosevelt, youthful male soprano singer from Detroit. This young man possesses an unusual voice which reflects excellent training and considerable experience in music. He has appeared in New York on the NBC network with Mary Small and Abe Lyman. He was also a member of Nick Kenny's Radio Gang. He has sung in Detroit on the Red Apple Club over WJR. For nine years he has been one of the main soloists in the celebrated male choir of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit.

The posters on display in local stores announcing the celebration were contributed by the pupils in the art department of the Tecumseh high school and the Ford schools in Brownville and Macon, working under the direction of their respective teachers, Miss Sally Humphrey and Miss Margaret Papp. A ticket to the banquet has been given to the pupil in each school whose poster was given the highest rating. Their names are as follows: Billy Bond, Irene Papp, and Lenore Larsen. Clare Camburn judged all the posters.

The ticket sale for the banquet is sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary Club, under the direction of Karl M. Schneider. Mr. Schneider still has a few tickets on hand for sale which can be secured in his office. If any have already bought tickets, and will be able to use them, Mr. Schneider adds that he will try to dispose of them if the people who hold them will notify him.

In order to accommodate the people who were unable to secure hospital Day banquet tickets because of the limited supply, special tickets will be sold at the door about 10 o'clock in the evening which will admit people to the dance portion of the program.

PROCLAMATION

It is but fitting that on one day of each year, all of the citizens of Tecumseh should render special honor to the hospital of their city. On every day of the year, the hospital doors are open. Their doctors, their nurses, and all others engaged in the hospital service are devoting their lives to restoring the sick to health.

...I do, therefore, as president of the Village of Tecumseh, proclaim Monday, May 12, National Hospital Day, in commemoration of Florence Nightingale, whose birthday it is, and in special recognition of the important services rendered by our hospital.

AIRSHIP PLANT SALES ON GAIN

MEYERS COMPANY INCORPORATES FOR $50,000; TO ADD SALES ORGANIZATION

An expansion program, including the addition of a general sales organization, is planned by the Meyers Aircraft Company, which last week filed articles of incorporation with the Michigan Securities Commission at Lansing, with capital stock of $50,000.

The Meyers company, one of Tecumseh's newest industries, coming here from Romulus about two years ago, builds an advanced type of training plane for civilian pilots. The ships are sold to private operators who hold government contracts for training pilots for the Army and Navy. Already some 75 ships have been delivered, and under the expansion plan the output will be increased. Some 100 men are employed at the plant, located at Tecumseh Airport on M-52, immediately north of the village. The Meyers company also operates the airport of 80 acres under a leasehold.

Directors of the company are Dr. H. H. Hammel, Harold Sturdevant, Henry Bender, C. F. Sage and Allen H. Meyers. Mr. Bender and Mr. Sturdevant are Toledo residents. Mr. Meyers, it is understood, is to be named president of the company when the board convenes sometime this week. Meyers is now on a business trip to the west, and is expected to return to Tecumseh today or Friday.

She had served as township treasurer and was a member of the Presbyterian church and the Order of Eastern Star, also a past president of the Lenawee-Monroe Association, O. E. S.

Besides her husband she leaves a son, Charles Robert, and two daughters Jean and Maxine, all at home; one brother Professor George C. Humphrey of Madison, Wis., two sisters Misses Ethel and Elizabeth Humphrey of Palmyra. A son Lawrence preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the funeral home in Blissfield with Rev. H. K. Fox of Adrian officiating. Burial was in Palmyra cemetery.

15 NEW HOMES HERE THIS YEAR

SURVEY SHOWS TREND FOR OWNERSHIP; LOCAL CONTRACTORS ARE BUSY

Tecumseh will again enjoy a normal housing year — normal if one is to consider the past five years as normal years — Robert H. Moore of the R. S. Moore & Son Company, builders and lumber dealers, declared today.

This year, Mr. Moore believes, Tecumseh residents will build 15 new homes, possibly a few more. That is about the average that has been built in the village for the past five years, a survey showing some 75 new houses here since 1934.

Despite the rumor that building prices are up, Mr. Moore says that prices have advanced only slightly so far as lumber and materials are concerned. A five per cent range, he said, would cover the advances, and many people are taking advantage of the comparative low costs.

Mr. Moore's Indian Acres subdivision on North Union street has been one of Tecumseh's popular building sites since 1939. Thus far, 16 new homes have been built there and it is likely that eight more will be constructed this year.

At the present time the Moore company is furnishing materials for the building of nine new houses, some of them under construction, others to start within a few days or weeks. The building roster this year in Tecumseh lists Dwight Hodges, South Union street; A. O. Howard, North Maiden Lane; Bert Fliter, E. Shawnee street; Harvey Dinse, E. Shawnee street; A. L. Van Winkle, East Logan street; Lawrence Bater, E. Logan street; John Frantz, E. Kilbuck street. Two other homes are under construction southwest of here in the rural area. These are owned by Clarence Miller and Russell Havens.

800 FEET OF SEWER BUILDING UNDER WAY

The construction of some 800 feet of new sewers on Wyandotte and Shawnee streets, to serve a sub-division development in that area, has been started under the direction of Al Bagshaw, village engineer. The sewer is being built in keeping with a state order, requesting that a disposal plant be built here within the next few years.

Construction of the sewer was authorized by the council in regular session on Monday evening. Purchase of the tile was left to the judgment of a committee.

The council also voted to pay $50 toward Tecumseh's community dish fund, and accepted the report of R. G. Fuller, accountant, of the audit of the village books. Current bills were audited and ordered paid and committee reports were placed on file.

URGE REPEAL OF SUNDAY HUNTING

COUNTY CONSERVATION LEAGUE DIRECTORS TAKE ACTION AT MEETING

The Lenawee County Conservation League at a recent meeting of its directors, voted in favor of the repeal of special no Sunday hunting acts, as was adopted in Lenawee county 10 years ago. At that time the County Sportsmen's Association, of which the Conservation League is the successor, joined with the farmers in advocating the adoption of the no-Sunday hunting act.

The vote was taken at the request of the state organization, which is working for the repeal law declaring that the prohibitory acts are largely in effect in the southern counties and tend to concentrate hunters on Sundays in the more northern counties. It likewise contends that the special acts are unfair to city dwellers, that the only time they can hunt is Sundays and in the case of Detroit hunters many of them have not the time nor the funds for the long trips that are necessary.

Community Dish Fund Sought By Just-A-Mere

Contributions of cash amounting to $125 already have been received by Mrs. Charles O. Butler, and an additional $275 is needed to make possible the realization of a project sponsored by the Just-a-mere bridge club—a set of dishes sufficient in size to serve community banquets. It is believed that the $400 quota will be reached this week or next, making possible the buying of the dishes in time for their use at the Community Hospital banquet at the school, May 12.

Dishes available at the school for banquet purposes now will accommodate only 100 people, it was said, and heretofore it has been necessary to borrow from homes and organizations when larger banquets have been served. It is the plan of the club to buy the dishes and leave them at the school, where they will be available for use at any time by any contributing club or organization. A nominal fee will be charged for the use, plus a charge for any breakage. The dishes, however, will be community property, housed in a special school cabinet.

"Private and club gifts are coming in every day," Mrs. Butler said, "some of them as much as $50. However, we want individual donations of any size, from anyone who desires to aid this worthwhile community project."

Contribution to the fund may be made directly to Mrs. Butler or left at the Butler Garage.

HUGUENOTS TO CONVENE HERE

ANNUAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE TO BE HELD AT ST. PETER'S ON MAY 18TH

The Huguenot Society of Michigan will hold its annual Day of Remembrance at St. Peter's Episcopal church in Tecumseh on Sunday, May 18, when between 75 and 100 members from Lansing, Detroit, Marshall, Jackson, Reading, Fowlerville and Adrian are expected to attend.

Rev. E. R. A. Green will deliver the sermon at 11:15 a. m., and Huguenot hymns will be sung.

Following the service, dinner will be served at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. L. Wyman on South Union street. This dinner is open to the public and reservations may be made with Mrs. Hoyt E. Whelan on or before May 16.

For the afternoon an interesting program has been arranged and will include special musical selections, also talks by Mrs. Florence McDuffee Nevin and daughter Alice Louise Nevin of Kalamazoo who have recently returned from spending several years in France. While there they worked with the Red Cross and assisted in Belgian and French relief work, and have an especially intimate and clear view of the French morale, reactions to the German occupation and to the Vichy government.

The Huguenot Society of Michigan was organized June 22, 1937, at Hasbrouck House, the home of Mrs. George Moran and Miss Marion N. Wilcox, Marshall, Mich., with thirty-five organizing members, and Mrs. Moran as president.

The object of the society is to promote recognition of America's indebtedness to the French protestants, and such recognition may be the means to promote patriotism, quicken appreciation of civil and religious liberty, heighten in the Americans of today a sense of their responsibility to preserve those rights and blessings which cost the Huguenots so dearly to establish firmly on our shores.

MONROE PLANS FARMERS' DAYS

THREE-DAY HONOR CELEBRATION BEGINS ON THURSDAY, MAY 8TH

Realizing that in the production of food the farmer is serving in the first line of American defense, Monroe, Michigan will honor the farm population of Michigan and neighboring states in a three-day celebration, which begins Thursday, May 8.

The first two days of the celebration will be generally given over to events of interest to children, but the third day, Saturday, will be entirely dedicated to the farmer and a special program for his entertainment is being sponsored by The National Farm Youth Foundation, the agricultural education and research organization, which established a record last year in training 10,000 farm youths.

A blanket invitation has been issued by Mayor Charles Haas of Monroe, chairman of the general committee to all farmers of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, asking them of a welcome to the celebration.

Mayor Haas, in discussing plans for the event, declared it was a matter of great pride with him to pay honor where honor was due to the farmer for the modest way in which he served his country.

"Bear this in mind," said the mayor. "The ultimate outcome of the war in Europe will depend largely on food supplies, the industry manned by the farmer."

Mayor Haas explained that the opening day of the celebration will be occupied with an excursion to Greenfield Village for school children and sponsored by the American Legion.

The second day, he said, will be given over to The Eighth Annual Monroe County School Day, opening with a formal flag-raising ceremony and continuing with a series of athletic events on Navarre Field.

Saturday, or National Farm Youth Foundation Day, will be ushered in with a tour of Monroe's large industrial plants. This event will be followed by a noonday luncheon in St. Paul's Methodist Church, at which the governor and other distinguished guests will be entertained and an address will be made by C. B. Gregory, Agricultural Priorities Commission Officer of Production Management. This program will be broadcast over a Mutual Radio coast-to-coast network.

Beginning at two o'clock the Monroe High School auditorium will be the scene of a colorful graduation ceremony. Michigan farm youths, who have completed the courses of The National Farm Youth Foundation, will receive their diplomas and otherwise participate in an elaborate program of exercises.

Guests of honor at these exercises will be twenty-nine young men, representing many parts of the United States, who have won the Foundation first award and, as such, are in Dearborn, taking an advanced course in power farm equipment engineering.

This part of the program will be broadcast from the stage of the auditorium by Station WJR, under the direction of Duncan Moore, widely known for his "Farm Forum" of the air.

The events of the day will be concluded with an old-fashioned barn dance to be held in the Monroe National Guard Armory on the Dixie Highway south of Monroe. One of the features of this dance will be the music to be provided by Ford's old-time fiddlers.

O. E. S. ASSOCIATION IN MEETING AT ADDISON

The spring meeting of the Lenawee - Monroe Association, Order of the Eastern Star, is being held today in Addison, with the Addison chapter as hostesses. At the evening meeting which opens at 7:30, the initiatory work will be exemplified by a group of officers from the various chapters.

Mrs. Gladys Russell of Tecumseh chapter is the second vice president of the association.

CLOUDS OF WAR SHADOW SOLONS

NATIONAL DEFENSE, SCHOOL AID AND $200,000,000 BUDGET UP TO LEGISLATORS

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, May 8—A medley of state topics occupies attention of the state legislature, now in its final weeks of session — national defense, school aid, the $200,000,000 biennial budget, revenue consolidation, dog racing and crippled and afflicted children.

(Bi)partisan support is being given to an extensive program of state defense as Michigan's part in national defense.)

An 11-member council of defense, supported by a $85,000 appropriation, is to be created with general authority to coordinate state and local activities. The house approved the bill 83 to 6 after Republican and Democratic leaders pleaded for its enactment.

Shadow of the darkening war clouds was felt as legislators discussed the bill.

"If we knew the truth, we are at war and don't know it," reminded Rep. John P. Espie of Eagle, chairman of the house ways and means committee. "The state police commissioner and the adjutant-general of Michigan have called this bill necessary. We don't know what faces us in the next few months."

If the decision of Senator Prentiss M. Brown (D) of St. Ignace is any index of Michigan public opinion and Brown is expected to run for re-election next year, Michigan voters are still cool to the idea of America getting into a "shooting war" on the side of Britain.

Senator Brown has announced he is opposed to use of the United States navy to convoy defense products to Great Britain.

AFTER THE WAR

Once the war is over, factories that are now making defense material will be changed over for the production of many industrial materials that are now unheard of by most people.

Necessity is the mother of invention, and with imported products greatly reduced or out of the picture entirely, the world is turning to the scientist in his laboratory for substitutes. The scientist is not disappointing us, but is proving himself equal to the task.

Not many years ago people laughed at Henry Ford's crazy idea that the materials used in industry could be raised on farms. Mr. Ford proceeded to show them in many ways just how this could be accomplished. We understand that he now has an automobile made entirely of plastics that is as strong as the steel cars. Practically everything we need to eat or wear can be produced from the soy bean alone, and the Germans are finding this crop invaluable to them in wartime. A pound of soya flour contains twice as much albumen, six times as much fat and four times as many calories as the same amount of beef. German soldiers are fed a mixture of liver and blood sausage mixed with soya flour. It tastes and looks like a meat patty and is said to be of high nutritive value.

Synthetic fibers are made from such material as wood pulp, straw and potato tops. Germany in 1939 produced a new fabric—Pe-Ce-fibre—made from coal and limestone. It is absolutely acid and water proof and it is also inflammable and does not conduct heat or electricity. It is an ideal filter material for use in chemical works and other industries.

Many rubber-like products are still in their infancy. These are made of synthetic resins and can be made in any degree of pliability. They deteriorate much more slowly than real rubber, have greater resistance to the action of acids and alkalis and a far greater capacity to withstand the effects of the weather. These products will rapidly replace many things now made of rubber and leather. It is stated that this new material — mipolam — will make ideal flooring material for bathrooms, private homes, public buildings, factories, railroad cars, boats and aeroplanes.

The great demand for bombers and fighting planes has created a tremendous interest in light metals and their alloys. This will be carried over into industry once the demand for war material ceases.

The Corner Pulpit

"And Peter took Him, and began to rebuke Him saying, be it far from thee, Lord: this shall never be unto thee. But He turned and said unto Peter, get thee behind Me, Satan; thou art a stumbling block unto Me: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men." (St. Matthew 16:22-23)

St. Peter, in his love for Jesus, wanted to shield Him from suffering. Peter himself at this time was unprepared to face such a cost as Jesus here discusses.

Too often we endeavor to use God for our own ends rather than to let God use us for His own. Jesus was wholly given to the will of God and neither foe nor loving disciple could deter Him.

How important it is that in giving love and sympathy we help someone else to strength and not to weakness. Frequently parents in their love help children to the point where they stunt the child's development in personality and ability.

The disciples loved the Master but they were often centered in their own interests. They did their thinking on too low a level. They could not understand why Jesus must suffer death. Do we?

God's ways are higher than our ways and His thoughts than our thoughts. There are times when we cannot see His purposes. It is then that like St. Peter, we shall wish to rebel or lose confidence. But as a poet has wisely said:

"behind the dim unknown
Standeth God within the shadow

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedanet, $1006. White sidewall tires extra.*

THERE'S a rule for your guidance you may not find in the copybooks — but that doesn't subtract one whit from its truth.

Because when you buy a new car this spring you want one that will see you through many a summer.

So while you're trading it's good sense to trade up — up to something solidly good through and through.

Trade up, for instance, to the FIREBALL power of Buick's more efficient valve-in-head straight-eight.

Trade up to the thrift of Compound Carburetion† — exclusively Buick's, and as much as 10% to 15% more economical of gasoline than last year.

Trade up to a splendiferous big Body by Fisher — to Buick's all-coil springing that is forever cushiony yet forever free from service attention — to stout, ride-steadying torque-tube drive with nothing about it to go wrong.

50,000 CASES OF MEASLES REPORTED SO FAR IN 1941

Although 50,000 cases of measles have been reported so far this year in the state's measles epidemic, the Michigan Department of Health says it is likely that individual protection for babies and young children has been better than in the 1938 outbreak.

"Physicians in many instances are finding immune globulin useful in making an attack of measles shorter and lighter," says Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State Health Commissioner, "If the attack is modified successfully, complications are rare, and it is the complications that cause most measles deaths.

"Whether or not to give the protecting treatment must be left to the judgment of the physician. To be effective, it must be given by the eighth day after exposure to a case of measles, which is before symptoms develop."

Measles cases will continue high in May, Dr. Moyer said, if the 1941 epidemic follows the pattern of 1938 and 1935. March, April and May were the big months in those years, when 80,000 cases were reported.

HAY FEVER DUE TO POLLENS

For some people, spring means a short hay fever season due to pollen from trees, says the Michigan Department of Health.

"In some cases persons who suffer from what they think are spring colds actually are affected by pollen from trees," says Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State Health Commissioner. "Tree pollen causes less hay fever than pollen from weeds or grasses, but oak, poplar and maple trees are among those that cause a considerable amount of spring hay fever."

Immunity to pollens that cause hay fever can often be built up by injections given just under the skin by a physician. The doses are usually gradually increased, and most doctors like to start them two or three months before the protection is needed. For those whose hay fever is due to ragweed pollen, the most common cause, immunity injections should begin now, since the ragweed season starts in August.

CLOUDS OF WAR

Instead, he would turn over more destroyers and other naval craft to British and Canadian sailors of which an ample supply is said to be available.

In taking this stand Senator Brown is in agreement with Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R) of Grand Rapids. Both Brown and Vandenberg voted against the selective service draft; Michigan representatives were overwhelmingly opposed to the act.

In giving his reasons Senator Brown pointed out that the American people, as shown by frequent Gallup public opinion surveys, are opposed to an "all-out" participation in the European war with all that this would mean—transporting of a huge expeditionary force 3,000 miles to a Nazi-dominated continent, unreserved use of our naval and air force, and a sky-high boost in our national debt.

Right or wrong, public opinion continues to influence the actions of men who depend upon ballots for re-election.

More school aid for rural districts would be forthcoming under the Michigan Education association bill, now before the legislature.

The M E A formula of school aid, for example, would give Detroit only $300,000 more out of $46,000,000 that it received last year out of $41,000,000.

The minimum amount would be $42,000,000, an increase of a million dollars; the maximum would be $48,000,000. The former amount is more likely than the latter.

State payrolls for the first quarter of the Van Wagoner administration were substantially higher than for the same period one year ago.

Furthermore, a $200,000,000 budget is in prospect for the coming biennium. Governor Van Wagoner asked the legislature to appropriate $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 to apply directly on retirement of the state's $28,000,000 debt. The legislature's decision, as shown by passage of a bill by Senator Bishop, would not earmark definite money for debt retirement but would take pot-luck with chances of surplus revenues. The Bishop measure, already adopted by the senate, would prohibit expenditure by a state agency of any money in excess of the legislature's appropriation.

Governor Van Wagoner would be without executive power to trim state spending through the budget director. All budget prerogatives would be held by the legislature; the "little legislature" council would be abolished; any emergency funds would require a special session of the legislature.

A bi-partisan measure that faces a doubtful fate is a bill to consolidate tax collecting agencies.

Sponsors claim that the plan would effect an annual "saving" of $5,000,000 to $20,000,000. Critics say this is nonsense, that it would only clip Republican branches of state government of present prerogatives and that economies would be disappointingly small, if any at all.

Governor Van Wagoner has cast his support to the bill with a flat declaration that its defeat would be "outright betrayal" of the wishes of the people.

Dog racing in Michigan appears to have a fair chance.

Again, it is an old story of rural vs. city, plus a friendly interest in Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor sports promoter.

Three times in past sessions the house of representatives has voted favorablely for a Fitzsimmons-sponsored dog racing bill. And three times the state senate has applied the brakes.

This time it may be different. The bait for onstate vote exists in a provision that 90 per cent of the state revenue (Fitzsimmons believes Michigan could net $750,000 to $1,000,000 a year from six to eight tracks) would be returned to counties in proportion to their population. Ten per cent would be earmarked for crippled children.

Dog racing is a city sport, ideal for gamblers. Races draw patronage from city dwellers; they are held at night, permitting attendance of factory workers and housewives. With national defense payrolls mounting even higher, dog racing promoters believe Michigan is ripe for a "killing."

A hard fought battle is raging between the probate judges and county supervisors and a group of other interests headed by the State Medical society over authority to dispense state aid for crippled and afflicted children.

In 61 out of 83 counties doctors receive no fees for services performed in behalf of either crippled or afflicted children. Hospital fees are now $3.50 a day, and only hospitals in Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Traverse City and Marquette possess surgical equipment to take care of crippled children.

Because medical care has been authorized by the probate judges and the bill has been turned over to the state, doctors charge "political patronage" while the judges decry "high medical fees." It has been a bitter controversy.

The medical society's plan, which is endorsed by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign War, Michigan Welfare league, Michigan Hospital association, Michigan Crippled Children's society and members of the state crippled children commission, would establish a "filter" system, first to determine the economic need through the local department of social welfare in each county, and second to ascertain the medical need by medical examiners who would donate their services.

The probate judges' bill, House Bill 297, would continue power in hands of the probate judges. The medical society's bill, House Bill 317, would effect a double check on economic and medical needs, while permitting applications to be received by the probate judge.

Retailers are being cautioned by the Michigan Retail Institute not to rely heavily on installment selling. In fact, the use of extensive credit for merchandise has reached such a proportion that it is said to be headed for a disastrous collapse.

J. Anton Hagios, credit executive of the Retail Dry Goods Association of New York, recently warned in an address at Muskegon:

"Installment selling is destined for a fall—yes, a terrific fall—unless steps are taken now to restrict and readjust the installment terms structure. Credit volume is much greater, time payment terms are excessively long, and above all, we are granting credit to customers in very much lower income levels than at the end of the last World War, or even eight years ago."

Ford Is Interested In "Growing" Automobiles

Henry Ford is interested in "growing automobiles," he is interested in bringing agriculture and industry nearer together, Floyd Radford, a representative of the company, told members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club when he addressed the group following its noon-day luncheon meeting, Tuesday.

Soy beans, Mr. Radford declared, is one of Michigan farmers' best industrial crops, and he explained how the Ford company at the present time is consuming hundreds of thousands of bushels of them in automobile manufacture. The company also uses other farm products from millions of acres, including wool, cotton, corn, wheat and sugar cane.

Mr. Radford declared that it is now possible to make a synthetic wool from soy beans, a product that resembles the real product so closely that it is hard to distinguish. The cost of the synthetic wool, he said, is about one-fourth that of real wool.

The board of education, in regular session on Tuesday evening, formally approved a list of 31 students to be graduated from Tecumseh high school this year, and fixed Thursday evening, June 5, as the commencement date. The speaker will be the Rev. Laurence Taylor of Addison.

The list of the graduates, one of the smallest classes to receive diplomas here in many years, follows:

Leola Boyce, Ruth Brainard, Margrett Cadmus, Jane Clark, Margaret Clark, Dorothy Cole, Hugh Des Ermia, Harold Easton, Ruth Galloway, Frances Glenn, Juanita Graf, Olive Gurtzweiler, Robert Hamilton, Florence Hunt, Robert Jewell, Bertha Kring, Betty Kruger, Bill Leonardson, Evelyn Lindsley, Bill Mackey, Bobby McKee, Ernest Oliver, James F. The board received a communication from the North Central Association state committee, advising that the high school had again been placed on the list of secondary schools approved by the association of colleges and schools.

Superintendent W. L. Berkhof presented a plan, adopted by the board, calling for a reorganization of work in the school's commercial department over a period of years. The changes to be made are: first, to include typing one as a tenth grade subject, permitting the eventual inclusion of a third year of typing in the curriculum; second, the addition of a second year of shorthand to be offered as a junior subject next year; third, the offering of commercial geography and law and bookkeeping as alternate subjects to juniors and seniors.

A report from the committee in charge of the building of the new athletic field told the board that the tiling and draining of the natural amphitheatre would be completed within the week or 10 days. Seed and fertilizer for the seeding of the field already has been purchased.

The committee is following the advice of the Michigan State College in preparing the field and a special athletic planting committee is to meet at the school this evening to canvass details. The committee is made up of members of the following organizations: John Lanning, board of education; C. M. Funds necessary to finance the school's annual May Party, to be given May 29, were approved by the trustees.

POPPY DAY HERE ON SAT. MAY 24

PLANS FOR OBSERVANCE OF DAY BEING COMPLETED BY LEGION AND AUXILIARY

Memory of America's war dead in the first World War will be honored here on Saturday, May 24, when everyone will be asked to wear a memorial poppy in tribute to their service and sacrifice.

Plans for the observance of Poppy Day are being completed by the Underwood-Orr Unit of the American Legion auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. Ned Baldwin, Poppy Day Chairman. The memorial flowers, made by disabled war veterans, will be offered on the streets throughout the day by the Auxiliary women.

This year, with the threatening shadow of a new World War falling across America, the memorial poppy has new significance. It shows that America still remembers and honors those who fell in its defense twenty-three years ago; that Americans still believe that America's free way of life is worth any sacrifice, and that the spirit of patriotism still burns strongly in American hearts.

The poppies grew on the battle front in France where the young men of America defeated the military miyht of autocracy in a gallant display of the strength of aroused democracy. When we wear them on Poppy Day, their bright red blooms will remind us that our democracy has the strength to repel any dangers if we will serve as they served. There is inspiration for us all in the poppy of great memories.

The poppies which the Auxiliary will distribute here have been made by disabled veterans. All Poppy Day workers will serve as volunteers and all of the money contributed to them for the flowers will go into the welfare funds of the Auxiliary to carry forward the Auxiliary's work for the disabled, their families and the families of the dead during the year ahead.

GREEN RESIGNS CHURCH PULPIT

ST. PETER'S EPISCOPAL RECTOR ACCEPTS CALL TO SERVE AT SAULT STE. MARIE

The Rev. Edward R. A. Green, for seven years the rector of historic St. Peter's Episcopal church in Tecumseh, last Sunday tendered his resignation to the vestry, effective as of June 30. The resignation was accepted, and on July 1 the Rev. Mr. Green will become the rector of St. James Episcopal Church at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

St. James church at the Soo, a small cathedral, is one of the largest Episcopal churches in Michigan. It has a membership of well over 500, a very active church school, and is widely visited by summer tourists.

The vestry, upon accepting the resignation, granted Mr. Green a month's vacation, as of June 1. He expects to be away from Tecumseh during the first three weeks of the month, and from June 21 to 28 he will direct a younger girls' conference at Pine Lake, a job he has had for the past two years. It is expected that he will preach his farewell sermon at St. Peter's on Sunday, June 29.

Mr. Green was born in Lansing, June 19, 1909, and went to the public schools there. In 1931 he graduated from Michigan State College with honors, receiving an A. B. degree. He then attended for three years the Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill., a clergy training school of the Episcopal church and also an affiliate college of Northwestern University. He was awarded three scholarships in the course of his seminary career, and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in June, 1934. During the summer of 1932 he had charge of St. James' church, Cheboygan, while that parish was without a rector, and he served in St. Thomas' church, Detroit, the summer of 1933 during the rector's absence.

In September, 1934, Mr. Green came here as deacon-in-charge of St. Peter's church. On January 17, 1935, he was advanced to the priesthood in St. Peter's by the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, bishop of the diocese of Michigan. This is thought to be the second ordination in the history of the historic Tecumseh church. On June 19, 1935, he was united in marriage to Miss Fannie A. Nadler of Peru, Ill., in the Bishop Anderson Memorial Chapel of the Seabury-Western Seminary. The Greens have one child, a son, David.

St. Peter's has experienced a wholesome growth and development under Mr. Green's rectorship. The church's membership has been greatly enlarged. The church school has increased its enrollment, attendance gains of more than 100 per cent having been recorded. A chapter of the Girls' Friendly Society has been organized under Mrs. Green's leadership.

Many repairs and improvements have been made to the church, parish house and rectory, and a large addition to the parish house is now in progress of construction.

Mr. Green has been active in civic affairs. He is a member of the Rotary Club, a member of the Tecumseh Hospital Board of Control, and for several years headed the Rotary club's program committee.

St. Peter's vestry and the bishop will confer soon to select a successor to Mr. Green. Until his successor is named the office will be filled by a lay reader, Lester Rogers, senior warden of the vestry, declared.

Tecumseh Warriors Lose Close Game To Manchester

Showing a distinct improvement in fielding, but still woefully weak at the bat, the Tecumseh high school Indians went down to defeat at the hands of Manchester high on the baseball diamond there last Friday, by a score of two to one.

A bad first inning with a walk and two doubles was too much for the Warriors to overcome and they were unable to score more than one run in the remaining seven stanzas. They did, however, keep Manchester from scoring after the opening inning.

Coffey and Brooks were the battery for Tecumseh, with Fielder and Sutton doing the honors for Manchester. Curtiss and Overport received the only two Tecumseh hits while Manchester got four. Tecumseh made three errors to Manchester's four.

On Friday afternoon the Indians will meet Clinton on the diamond here.

PASTOR'S WIFE DIES SUDDENLY

MRS. O. V. ROBINSON SUFFERS HEART ATTACK; BURIAL IS IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Myrtle Robinson, wife of Rev. O. V. Robinson, passed away early Monday morning at University hospital in Ann Arbor, where she had been taken Sunday morning following a severe heart attack and the formation of a blood clot. An operation was performed Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Robinson who was 33 years of age was born in Chicago August 11, 1908. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Oberg and spent most of her life in Chicago where she was a teacher in city schools. She came to Tecumseh to make her home after her marriage five years ago to Rev. Robinson, pastor of the Baptist church.

Besides her husband she leaves her parents, one brother Milton Oberg of Chicago and a sister Mrs. Luella Purcell of Homewood, Ill.

The body was brought to the Belding Funeral Home Monday and funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist church, Rev. Edward Escolme officiated and was assisted by Rev. Alvin Brazee who gave the scripture reading; Rev. E. F. Hildebrand the prayer, and Rev. E. M. McGehee who sang two hymns. The body was later taken to Chicago for further services and burial this afternoon.

It's A Real Job To Spend $400,000 A Month, Wisely

E. E. Berry, assistant purchasing agent of the Tecumseh Products Company, gave an interesting talk on price trends and the work of his department, when he addressed the regular noon-day luncheon meeting of the Rotary club here, Tuesday.

"There are more purchasing agents in the United States than those following any other vocation," Mr. Berry declared. "Every man, woman and child is a purchasing agent, for he or she daily or several times a day makes a purchase. However, the business is now being reduced to a science, with courses offered in the leading colleges and universities."

The industrial purchasing agent's job is to watch price trends, to determine supply and demand, buy in volume where it is warranted, and attempt to keep a smooth-running organization without a lack of any needed supplies, Mr. Berry pointed out. The Products company spends an average of $400,000 a month in purchases of one type or another, buying several thousands of different commodities.

Mr. Berry explained how the federal government is using priority orders to obtain steel, copper, aluminum, rubber and other materials needed for defense work and gave an insight into proposed laws and regulations now before Congress. His talk was both interesting and educational and was greatly enjoyed.

GETS NEWS OF DEATH

E. J. Muir was notified Tuesday of the death of his sister, Mrs. Corrine Coen, which occurred suddenly of cerebral hemorrhage at her home in Bowling Green, Ohio. Mrs. Coen who was 38 years of age, had been ill for six weeks, but her death came unexpectedly.

Besides her brother she leaves her husband, two children, her mother and six sisters.

The funeral and burial will be held Friday in Bowling Green and Mr. and Mrs. Muir will attend.

TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday afternoon, May 21, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Penman. Mrs. Margaret Kidman will be program leader.

I will be out of town Saturday and Sunday, 17th and 18th of May. My office will be open as usual on Saturday, for collections.

OFFICERS HUNT GIRL'S SLAYER

TORCH KILLER BLAMED IN MURDER OF 28-YEAR-OLD WOMAN NEAR MANCHESTER

After days of investigation, Washtenaw County authorities today appeared without a clue, a suspect or a motive in the torch murder of 28-year-old Hazel Briggs of Detroit, whose body was hacked and burned on a rubbish heap near Manchester.

Relatives of the dead woman and a close friend with whom she lived in Detroit, Miss Beatrice Buresh, 42, were unable to cast any light on the mysterious murder in statements to deputies.

Puzzling was the fact that no one could be found who had seen Miss Briggs after she left her family's farm house near Manchester on April 10.

To get to the spot where the charred body was found in the ashes of a bonfire two miles from the Briggs farm, she would have had to walk along three roads, unless she inexplicably followed a railroad track.

There were no indications of slugging or beating found on the body except for one mark at the side of the head, on which pathologists were uncertain.

Two sons of Raymond F. Trolz, discovered the charred remains of the Detroit woman on the Trolz farm, 22 miles southeast of Ann Arbor, Friday.

Most important clue so far, Sheriff John Osborn said, is report of another Manchester farmer, Benjamin Evilsizer, who said he saw two men and a boy around a bonfire, probably April 10, on the spot where the body was found.

Deputy Raymond Roy brought Miss Buresh from Detroit to the scene, where she wept as she identified contents of the purse found with the body as belonging to Miss Briggs. Miss Buresh lived in Detroit with Miss Briggs at 516 West Grand boulevard and they had vacationed together at the Briggs family farm.

The dead girl's family told Sheriff Osborn that Miss Briggs carried some insurance but they did not know the amount. Miss Buresh said it was for $1,000, made out to her mother, Mrs. Stella Briggs.

A searching party found several more gasoline cans near where the body had been burned.

A pet dog of the Trolz boys, Wayne, 10, and Duane, 5, led to discovery of the body. Sniffing around the rubbish heap, the animal refused to leave and going after him the boys made the discovery.

Steel hoops encircled the body, left from the salt barrel into which it had been placed before it was cremated.

Both legs had been severed at the thighs and her skull had been crushed.

Sheriff Osborn said he believed

Notices are served upon persons participating in such schemes whose names come to the attention of the postoffice inspectors requiring them to show cause why fraud orders should not be issued against them. Such orders forbid the delivery of any mail to the persons named therein."

HOSPITAL DAY OBSERVED HERE

INSTITUTION OPEN FOR INSPECTION; 300 AT CIVIC BANQUET IN EVENING

National Hospital Day, the anniversary of the birthday of Florence Nightingale, internationally famous for her contribution to the development of nursing and the improvement of hospital standards, was observed in Tecumseh on Monday, when hospital doors here were thrown open during the afternoon hours for public inspection, and some 300 persons attended a dinner-dance in the evening at the high school.

Dr. Paul H. Jordan of the Neuropsychiatric Institute in the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, was the principal speaker at the banquet in the evening. He complimented Tecumseh highly upon its modern, well-equipped hospital and pointed out that such an institution is a community's greatest asset.

"The pendulum is swinging away from the specialist, and more and more people are learning to rely upon the family doctor—the general practitioner—who has at his fingertips the information that a specialist must know about the patient before we can successfully diagnose his case."

The reason for this swing to the general practitioner of medicine, Dr. Jordan said, is because the so-called family doctor has more with which to work than he did a few decades ago. No longer, he said, is it necessary to travel great distances to obtain the services of X-ray machines, fine operating rooms and modern hospitals. And because this is a fact, and because the general practitioners of medicine are keeping abreast with all scientific developments, it is seldom necessary to travel great distances to get the advice of the specialist.

"Should a case develop in your community requiring specialists' diagnosis, it would be a very simple thing, for a specialist in a hop or a skip can come from Ann Arbor or fly from Chicago in a few minutes or hours. He also has a modern workshop, your community hospital, to aid him upon his arrival."

The Rev. Edward Green acted as general chairman of the banquet, sponsored by the Tecumseh Hospital Auxiliary and served in the gymnasium of the school. The Rev. Edward Escolme pronounce the invocation, and during the dinner and dancing, music was furnished by Paul Johnson's orchestra.

William J. Bruce was the toastmaster and he introduced Mrs. John Lanning president of the hospital auxiliary, Miss Gertrude Spaulding, superintendent of the hospital, R. W. Herrick, presi-

STRIKE — WHILE THE IRON IS COLD

We have had a lot of talk about whether or not strikes were causing much havoc in the defense program, but until recently we haven't had very much in the way of calm and authoritative figures. Now the National Association of Manufacturers has issued some statistics on defense and other strikes that should sweep a number of unfounded declarations into the discard.

The N. A. M. study shows that total number of man-days lost from strikes in the first three months of this year were more than three times as great as for the same period in 1940. In all, 3,022,918 man-days were lost in January, February, and March of this year; and of this total, 1,578,000 man-days were directly in defense industries.

The time lost in those industries would have been enough to equip about 1,402,480 American soldiers with the latest Garand rifles, or to provide more than five BILLION rounds of ammunition for those rifles. Seen in those terms—or in any others—the harm done can hardly be minimized.

The great danger lies in the attitude of some who continue to claim, in the face of the evidence, that the number or result of strikes in defense is really not very important. The figures knock that complacency galleywest.

Defense is either vital or it isn't. The American people think that it is, and will be paying billions in taxes to support their belief. In the light of that stand, there is an all-important need to work out solutions for any problems that arise without recourse to strikes that cripple our all-out effort for national defense.

AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP

Not since the rights of citizenship in this country of ours were first established has there been so much cause as there is today for pride and thankfulness as each of us utters the words: "I am an American!"

We enjoy precious rights in the United States, ones to be found in few other lands. Freedom of speech, freedom of religion (even the right to follow any religion except state-worship has been lost in some foreign lands), the right to move freely from place to place, the right to engage in the occupation of your choice, the right to start your own business and take your own chances—we Americans are so used to these and other principles that we seldom give a thought.

But there's an opportunity this month to pause and remember the above considerations. For Congress has set Sunday, May 18, aside as Citizenship Recognition Day, in recognition of the 2,500,000 young men and women who have reached the estate of American citizenship during the past year. Posts of the American Legion throughout the country and many other groups and individuals will co-operate in giving this occasion its full meaning.

And not just the 21-year-olds should celebrate their citizenship at that time. In the midst of a troubled world, all Americans, young and old, can profit by rededicating themselves to the meaning and importance of American citizenship, and to their rights and duties in this society of free and enterprising men and women.

Citizenship Recognition Day belongs to all Americans.

WE WOMEN WATCH HISTORY

We are a peace-loving people, and we hoped, when the tumult and the shouting of the World War died down, that the nations of the earth were ready to live together as friends. We hoped it so strongly and believed in it so sincerely that we insisted on getting rid of the plants and factories that had been used to provide our arms and munitions in '17 and '18. Wartime machinery was smashed under gigantic hammers and sold for scrap metal. The making of smokeless powder declined to a tiny fraction of previous output, and the industries involved turned to the making of goods and products for normal consumption.

We women played an important role in the peace movement. Remember? We realized, probably more keenly than men, the bitterness of war, and we dreamed a great dream of well being and abundance. Why shouldn't these things be ours, we asked, with the greatest industrial system in the world devoting itself exclusively to the production of peacetime products.

We worked out many of the elements of that dream here in America, too, before the period of world unrest which saw European dictatorships grow daily more powerful as they battened on economic unrest in their own states. And one fateful week last Spring, American—men and women alike — were brought face to face with the realization that the way of life we cherished was menaced.

American industry was called upon to forge the weapons that would make our freedom strong. At first it was on the basis of "business as usual" PLUS defense. Then, as events continued to unfold ominously, industry was called upon to apply "speed and more speed" to production for defense.

The defense accomplishments of industry to date will go down in the annals of history as living evidence of the potentialities of a free people. It is not the way that American men and women would wish to prove the value of their free institutions. But it is striking proof that they cherish those institutions above all else, and that we in this country are enterprising enough and intelligent enough to find the means to see that we can have a future which will be worthy of all the endeavors and all the strivings that the history of the last few decades has imprinted on the scroll of American history.

The CornerPulpit

"And others fell among the thorns...and others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit... and He said, 'Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.'" (St. Mark 4:3-9)

How much we enjoy life depends upon our willingness to receive! Jesus realized this when He told the familiar Parable of the Sower. It is really a story about soil. The seed sowed by the sower in each case is the same, but the quality of what is produced is determined by the kind of ground upon which the seed falls.

When we go to church, the individuals in the congregation hear the same sermon, participate in the same worship, partake of the same sacraments. One person is helped. Another gets little of nothing. What makes the difference?

A woman relates how she regarded the church in a critical spirit. She prided herself on her analytical mind and judgment. But one day a friend pointed out that this attitude might be separating her from a larger experience of God. She changed her mind, and to her joy received a new appreciation of the church and of God. A life hitherto good, but not good enough, began to bear fruit.

Are you critical about the church and her ministry? Perhaps you have good reasons, but does your criticism really do the church any good? Does it not rather separate you more and more from the congregations whose worship schould claim your participation?

Have you ever prayed for your clergyman while he is conducting worship? Next Sunday, instead of criticizing the service or the sermon, try joining two or three others in asking God to bless it.

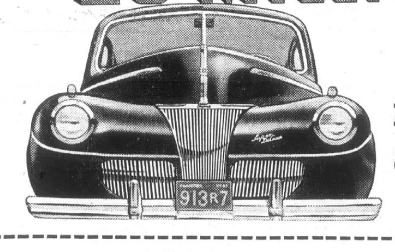
29 MILLION!



A record never before approached!

★When the 29,000,000th Ford rolled recently from the assembly line, an all-time record for the industry was set. 29,000,000 units built by the same management and all bearing one name—a name that has become one of the best-known trade-marks in the world!

It is significant that this achievement comes at a time when our country is making a mighty effort to re-arm swiftly. For to further that effort, to help speed it along in any possible way, we have offered the vast facilities of the Rouge Plant and every ounce of our experience.

As you read this, a new $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine plant, started only last fall, is nearly completed. A new magnesium alloy plant, one of the few in the country, is already in production on lightweight airplane engine castings. Work is right now under way on a new $18,000,000 plant for mass production of big bomber assemblies. Orders have been filled for military vehicles of several types, including army reconnaissance cars, staff cars and bomb service trucks.

In the midst of this activity for National Defense, building the 29 millionth Ford car is simply one part of the day's work.

The public has acclaimed the 1941 Ford car as the finest in Ford history. Ford Dealers are enjoying their greatest sales and expecting their best year since 1937.

It is good to be producing the things America needs, and to be setting records on the way!

. . . And Sunday night supper, especially is a time for spreading geniality "across the board." Make the menu simple but intriguing; satisfying the most unpredictable appetite and the demands of a budget, at the same time. Here's our suggestion:

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER

Pineapple and Apricot Juice Cocktail
Sour Cream Rarebit on Toasted Bread Cubes
Bread and Butter Pickles
Tomato, Spinach and Lettuce Salad with French Dressing
Strawberry Ice Cream Angel Cake
Milk Coffee with Cream

SOUR CREAM RAREBIT

1½ cups thick sour cream
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¾ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ to ¾ teaspoon salt
3 cups grated American cheese
Toasted bread cubes

Mix the sour cream and flour until smooth and cook over hot water until thickened, stirring constantly. Combine the mustard, Worcestershire sauce and salt and mix to a smooth paste. Add the cheese and seasonings to the sour cream mixture and continue to cook until the cheese is melted, stirring constantly. Serve on the bread cubes. This mixture thickens somewhat on standing. This recipe may be increased to serve large numbers. If desired, serve from chafing dish. Six servings.

OFFICERS HUNT

the legs had been severed to permit stuffing the body into the barrel. The remains were burned so badly he could not identify all the parts of the body, he said.

Plaster casts were made of tire prints in the lane leading to the rubbish heap. The spot where the body was found is about 500 yards from the Trolz home but reached from the highway by the lane which passes through a woods within 200 yards of the house.

Evilsizer told Sheriff Osborn he was driving by when he saw the men and boys and what appeared to be either an automobile or a small truck. He phoned Trolz, he said, who looked out and saw the smoldering embers of the fire but did not investigate.

A second possible clue was furnished by Miss Buresh. She said a Mrs. Edwards of Manchester told her she saw a woman of Miss Briggs' description on US-112, April 13 near Ypsilanti, who appeared dazed.

Mrs. Edwards told Miss Buresh she offered the woman a ride but instead the woman got into another car, with three women and a man driver.

Miss Buresh said she and Miss Briggs had been taking a vacation on the Briggs farm because Miss Briggs had lost 60 pounds by a rigid diet and as a result was ill.

HOSPITAL DAY

dent of the hospital board, Dr. H. H. Hammel, chief of the hospital staff, and B. B. Turnbull, a member of the village council. All of them spoke briefly concerning the work of the hospital, and of the effort that is being made to make the institution the finest of its size in the middle-west.

Billy Roosevelt of Detroit, soprano soloist, sang three numbers. Mr. Roosevelt previously has appeared on programs at St. Peter's Episcopal church and is widely known for his voice in the Motor City.

After the dinner and program, the gymnasium was cleared for dancing and there was added entertainment, a novelty band, furnished through the courtesy of C. O. Butler, local Ford dealer.

The dinner was sponsored by the hospital auxiliary with these committees in charge: Dinner, Mrs. H. D. Iler, chairman, Mrs. W. T. Claxton, Mrs. Karl Schneider and Mrs. John Larsen; table arrangement: Mrs. R. W. Herrick, chairman, Mrs. Louis Lindbert, Mrs. F. C. Hanna, Mrs. H. H. Hammel, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. R. K. Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Berry and Mrs. O. W. Farver; chairs and tables: Mrs. Paul Keyser, chairman, Mrs. Carl Thompson and Mrs. Jens Toubore; dishes: Mrs. Don Heesen, chairman, Mrs. George Isaacson and Mrs. Carl Cedergust; decorations: Mrs. H. H. Hanna, chairman, Mrs. Glenn Driscoll and Mrs. Chas. O'Neil; checking room, Mrs. Sam Sisson. C. M. Wagner acted as treasurer of the committees and Karl M. Schneider was chairman of the ticket sale committee, conducted entirely through the Rotary club. A group of home economics girls and junior and senior boys of the high school, under the direction of Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, served at the banquet tables.

A 200-piece set of dishes, purchased by the Just-a-mere Club through a community dish fund, were used on the tables for the first time.

Some 170 persons visited the hospital during the "open house" in the afternoon. They were shown through the nursery, operating room, the private rooms and the nurses quarters. A new incubator, recently purchased and given to the hospital by the Child Study Club, was on display and in use.

The hospital, one of the largest in a town the size of Tecumseh in Michigan, has an average daily inpatient count of 31.57, since its opening. During the last 11 months it has given more than 9,000 days of patient care.

Others in the group are: "Gabriel's Search," by Lutes; "Whiteoak Heritage," by De LaRoche; "Best Plays, 1939-1940," by Mantle; "Mrs. Miniver," by Struther; "Lassie Come Home," by Knight; "World Poetry," by Van Doren; "Bright Mexico," by Baretto; "Through Embassy Eyes," by Dodd; "Practical Carpentry," by Hodgson; "Practical Wood Finishing," by Pattou; "Night in Bombay," by Bromfield; "Children of God," by Fisher; "Blue Water," by Deeping; "Royal Regiment," by Frankau; "Handsome Road," by Bristow; "Journalist's Wife," by Mowrer; "Blood Relations," by Gibbs; "Tree Of Liberty," by Page; "Good Home With Nice People," by Johnson; "Reaching For The Stars," by Waln; "Hello, Michigan," by Leow; and "And Tell Of Time," by Krey.

INVITED TO CONFERENCE

Members of the Tecumseh village council have received an invitation to attend the annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League to be held in Traverse City this fall.

Although these invitations were sent out early, this convention of the League will probably be one of the omst important and significant since its organization. Defense problems will be paramount on the program and it now appears that official Washington will be well represented among the speakers.

State Legislature Is Faced With 'Eleventh Hour' Rush

STATE CAPITOL, Lansing, May 15—May 1 found the Michigan legislature swamped with a traditional eleventh hour rush.

Steering committees of the House and Senate hope work may be completed within two or three weeks. The date of adjournment may depend on progress of the senate finance committee with house appropriation bills.

While accomplishments to date do not appear on the surface to be outstanding, the legislative session may be said to have the following benefits:

1. Time acts as a sieve to cull out much of the good, reject much of the bad. A 60-day session, such as is constitutionally required in Indiana, invites rash action. And haste can be costly, if legislation is not accorded thoughtful deliberation.

You may fret over it, but an extended session covering five months, as the Michigan session usually does, permits legislators to get their bearings and to "size up" on new ideas.

2. The two-chamber legislature, in contrast to the unicameral chamber of Nebraska, is an effective system of checks and balances which tends to resist pressure groups rather than encourage them.

(For example, the house may vote for a dog racing bill with the tacit agreement that the senate will bury it in committee. Pressure can be relieved, faces "saved," and certain constituents appeased—all by diplomatic co-operation.)

This democratic method of government may not be streamlined. It does not meet the modern conception of business efficiency. Time and money apparently are wasted.

Furthermore, the lack of co-operation between house and senate is hard to explain at times, let alone to justify.

And yet, as one veteran lobbyist in a philosophic mood recently observed, the Michigan legislature does an exceeding good job, on the whole, in keeping expenditures within reasonable bounds and in limiting the state debt.

"Compared with many other states which have a high bonded indebtedness, Michigan is well off. We have money in the bank, so to speak."

"Except in Wayne, Genesee, Oakland and a few other populous counties, Michigan has no vexatious tax problem. The property tax is not a state burden; it is a local problem. The state sales tax is a prolific source of revenue for state needs and local aid. We can be thankful that the legislature is largely rural and small town in its membership. Believe me, when you get an appropriation through the House with John Espie's approval, you've done something. And deliberative Don VanderWerp of the senate finance committee isn't throwing money away, either."

(In the opinion of this observer, who is a city man, the above tax situation largely accounts for a lagging zeal in the "ax the tax" crusade. As commendable as was Lansing's 1941 anti-spending rally, a state-wide attendance of around 400 taxpayers was not altogether flattering to the cause.)

Puzzling at first, and now apparently solved, was a recent attempt by the unemployment compensation commission to sponsor an amendment to the state act whereby any deficit would be payable out of the state general fund.

When an item of $34,000 was inserted in a house deficiency bill, Chairman Espie was told of a ruling by the social security board at Washington.

From reliable sources we hear that the commission last year fired a batch of employees and hired proteges of a Wayne county politician. Then the civil service commission ordered the ousted workers to be restored with back pay. Hence the deficiency.

According to carpenters who recently joined the C. I. O. union at Fort Custer, a reoccurring "shortage" of lumber caused many newly hired workers to be dismissed after three or four weeks of high wages.

One young attorney from a nearby small town, whose practice was disappointingly small, earned close to $80 a week including overtime pay as a carpenter at the new army camp until a "shortage" of lumber suddenly developed.

But only after he had paid the $50 membership fee!

Congressman Engles of Michigan, who has been pressing an investigation into army cantonment construction and purchase of land, may strike pay dirt when he digs into this Fort Custer situation.

While insisting on the right of labor to collective bargaining which favors unionization, Governor Van Wagoner is said to be convinced that governmental curbs are needed to slow down strikes in national defense industries and a resultant loss of vital arms production.

Furthermore, as a result of the Ford plant trouble, he favors a two-year increase of 200 troopers in the state police force. He supports an appropriation of $200,000 annually for support of 2,500 home guard troops. (The home guard would not be used for strike duty, however; its organization is required by existing federal law, the governor points out.)

The Handy-Decker "anti-strike" bill in the House, which was a direct result of the Ford strike, is being revised with considerable bi-partisan support.

Changes would include:

(1) A strike vote of union members in a plant would be held under auspices of the state labor mediation board. A bare majority of 51 per cent would be needed to make a strike legal. (Sponsors say this safeguard would halt wild-cat walk-outs.)

(2) Give legislative sanction to the present 30-day negotiating period required for strikes in national defense plants. A month's notice for strikes of this type is at present only an administrative ruling of the state board, supported by the attorney general.

Will these restriction be enacted into law?

Time is short. Legislators must run for re-election in 1942. Figure it out for yourself!

The Golden Text (Proverbs 9:6) is: "Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 8:5, 6): "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 492): "For right reasoning there should be but one fact before the thought, namely, spiritual existence. In reality there is no other existence, since Life cannot be united to its unlikeness, mortality."

John—Which way, Teacher?

Teacher—What do you mean, which way?

John—On top or sideways?

Teacher (bewildered) — What difference does it make?

John — Well, half of the top eight is zera; but half of the eight sideways is three.—Ex.

Taint the Flu!

Haint got no pip and haint got no fun!
All I need is a day or two
Far away from the haunts of men,
Where I can be a boy again.
Water in can awful drain
On a feller's fishing brain.
Makes a feller sort of pine
For the wettin' of a line;
Dreadful weary hereabout.
When he thinks of jumpin' trout.
Seems as though this very thing
Came to me along last spring;
Felt right mean for a day or two,
Awful down and out and blue.
Twant the pip and twant the flu.
Just got restless like and mean
Longin' for a laughin' stream.
Gosh, I guess, I'll turn about.
Go and get my tackle out
Glad I know just what to do!
Taint the pip and taint the flu.
—The Kentucky Sportsman.

"Hey, what are you doing?" yelled the foreman.

"I'm just sharpening a pencil," called back the bricklayer.

"Well, don't let anybody see you. That's a carpenter's job, you know."

LARSEN, HAMMEL SPEECH WINNERS

ARE VICTORIOUS AT DISTRICT CONTEST LAST WEEK AT COMSTOCK

Robert Larsen and Richard Hammel, Tecumseh high school juniors, returned victorious from the annual District Speech Contest held last Thursday, May 9, at Comstock, Michigan. Robert Larsen's winning extempore speech was on the topic "The Rights of Labor and the Present Emergency." The title of Richard Hammel's winning oration was "Can Democracy Survive in the United States?"

Each of the boys had previously entered a subdistrict contest held at Spring Arbor on April 22. Six schools were represented in the four divisions of the contest and at that time Tecumseh's contestants won first in oratory, first in extempore speaking and third in dramatic declamation. The contestants were respectively, Richard Hammel, Robert Larsen and Bertha Mae Kring. This is the second time Richard Hammel has taken top honors in a subdistrict speech contest, having won first place in oratorical declamation in 1940.

The winners from each subdistrict contest in this district were invited to participate in the district at Comstock. Five subdistricts were represented at each district contest throughout the state. Michigan is divided in fourteen districts and seventy subdistricts, representing approximately 450 Michigan high schools.

Each subdistrict winner was presented with a Webster's dictionary, suitable engraved, and the winners of the district contests were presented with yellow satin banners, lettered in blue felt. The dictionaries were awarded by a Detroit newspaper and the banners by the University of Michigan. In district "H" of which Tecumseh is a member, Tecumseh won first places in oratory and extempore speaking; Paw Paw won first in oratorical declamation and in dramatic declamation.

Tecumseh high school now possesses two banners won in oratorical declamation, three won in oratory and one won in extempore speaking.

YOUTH COUNCIL IN $1500 DRIVE

MONEY TO BE USED FOR SUPPORT OF BOY, GIRL, CUB SCOUT ORGANIZATIONS

Tecumseh's annual drive for the support of its Youth Council—an organization set up to administer funds necessary for the operation of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts and allied youth needs in this village was launched this morning following a breakfast of workers at the Boston Lunch. J. B. Murphy, a member of the Tecumseh Rotary Club—which organization is sponsoring the movement—is general chairman of the campaign.

The Youth Council this year, is seeking a $1,500 goal, the funds to be used entirely by the listed organizations, under the direction and guidance of Council directors.

Of the funds to be raised this year, Mr. Murphy explained, $150 will be used to pay Tecumseh's fee to the Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, with which local Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts are affiliated. Another sum will be allocated to the Girl Scouts. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts also hope to use about $750 of the money to build and equip a cabin for the use of the two organizations. The cabin will be built on Ford property, the old pageant grounds, immediately east of the Hayden Mills. Such a project has been discussed here for many years by scouting leaders, and is badly needed in the training of the youth it was explained.

Captains and their assistants in charge of the drive launched this morning will contact prospective contributors today and tomorrow, hoping to end the campaign tomorrow evening.

They're Somebody's Sweethearts

Can you look at these little tots without feeling a tug at your heartstrings?

No, they are not residents of this or nearby communities. In fact, they live quite a distance from here. We print the pictures of these fine little folks merely to emphasize our belief that there are many little men and women right here in our own territory who are equally personable and whose pictures would look equally attractive in these columns.

In a special position next Thursday provided the photograph can be secured and the engraving made in time, The Tecumseh Herald will print a similar likeness of the first baby from this section to be entered in our "Babyland Revue," announced today. It all depends on who acts most quickly to enter his favorite.

Now, all you mothers and dads, uncles and aunts, sisters and brothers, grandmothers and grandfathers — if you would like to see your favorite tot enjoy the distinction of being the first nominee in this interesting project, get busy right now.

Send or bring a nomination in without delay.

The grading will be completed this week, the tiling within a week or two, and a water main to supply the field is now being laid. $700 In Prizes And Cash Sums Offered In "Babyland Revue"

ALL BABIES UP TO SIX YEARS OLD LIVING IN HERALD TERRITORY ARE ELIGIBLE; PHOTOS FREE OF CHARGE.

Are you one of those fortunate individuals whose home resounds to the prattle of childish voices, the patter of dancing feet?

Is there a chubby, round-eyed youngster who daily weaves a bright thread of happiness into the fabric of your life?

If such there be—if you are the fathr, mother, grandfather or grandmother, sister, brother, uncle or aunt—here is an interesting piece of news for you!

For the little men and women of The Tecumseh Herald territory, at last are coming into their own. Today, The Herald inaugurates one of the most interesting features ever carried by any newspaper. This feature is the "Babyland Revue", a contest to confer real distinction on, and to present valuable awards to, the attractive babies of this and sister communities.

This is an age of pictures. The public demands them; newspapers are full of them; from almost every page of your favorite newspapers and magazines, the faces of prominent athletes, politicians flyers, actresses and actors peer out at you.

But the Tecumseh Herald wants to be different. It wants to give you something else to look at and think about. It wants to give you the most interesting, appealing, fascinating pictures in all the world —the fresh young faces of your own community's attractive tots.

Many Personable Tots

Now, we of The Tecumseh Herald staff are convinced that right here in the Herald's territory you will find the finest collection of attractive, vigorous and healthy babies existing anywhere. Other communities might challenge this statement. Nevertheless, we make it. And before the Babyland Revue is over we intend to prove it. After you have watched the columns of this paper for the next few weeks and have seen these baby faces, full or charm and personality, looking out at you we believe you will agree with us.

Pictures Will Be Published

The Tecumseh Herald will publish the pictures of a large number of these tots, and hopes the parents will cooperate with us just as soon as possible.

If you have a good, recent photograph of your baby, bring it in so we can have an engraving made. If you have no picture, we will arrange to have the official photographer of the Babyland Revue make one for publication without cost to you.

The Colier Studio of Tecumseh is coperating in handling this important detail, This fine studio is thoroughly experienced in child photography, and already is known far and wide for its excellence of its art. You may be sure that a Colier "personality portrait" will do full justice to your child's personality.

As previously stated, there is no charge of any kind for having your baby' photographed for publication. The picture is made and run in The Tecumseh Herald free. Just come to our office, tell us you would like a photograph order, and it will be furnished without cost to you.

And you should have your baby photographed without delay, for although Mr. Colier has promised the quickest possible service, it nevertheless takes time to develop and print the photo, to show proofs, etc., and then have an engraving made for publication.

To Run Several Weeks

UNNECESSARY PARADOX

"At the end of the first nine months of the present fiscal year the number of persons holding jobs in business and industry was 5 per cent higher than at the start of that period. Over the same nine months WPA rolls showed a net increase of 5.9 per cent despite the demands of defense production."

Thus the New York Sun reports the present paradox of better business on the one hand and more Americans on relief on the other. It would be hard to think of an explanation of this fact that made much sense, but there is certainly a need for some careful examination to discover what is wrong with the picture.

The rise in relief rolls at a tme when industry is steadily taking on new workers is similar in nature to expression of government activities and increase in costs a number of other non-defense fields. These activities were depression-born; they were conceived as "emergency efforts;" and it was surely the theory of their sponsors that substantial business recovery would bring about a complemental lower cost for them.

The Sun study indicates that these hopes are not beng realized Surely it is fair to carry the argument one step further and suggest that they can and should be. When the nation is bending every effort to defense, when the taxpayer is facing unprecedented burdens, the average American citizen has the right to demand that his governmental representatives keep non-defense coss as low as possible.

The evidence mounts up that economy of this type is both reasonable and possible.

BABY REVUE

polling the most votes without other consideration.

In this enterprise, the lowly and the lofty have equal opportunity. Each has an equal chance to be designated as the winner of the loving cup and to share in the cash awards. Of course, no immediate member of a Tecumseh Herald employee's family may take part, but this does not include correspondents.

No papers will be sold in bulk from The Herald office. Votes cast for any baby cannot be transferred to another later.

How Winners Will Be Selected

Winners in The Herald's Babyland Revue will be determined on the basis of votes. The baby receiving the most votes will be adjudged winner of the first prize, the one receiving the second highest number of votes will be awarded second prize, the one receiving the third highest number of votes will win third prize; and so on.

In case of a tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded. A committee of judges composed of prominent local citizens will count the votes and designate the winners at the close of the contest on July 22. Decision of the judges will be final.

Each baby will be allowed one nomination coupon good for 5,000 votes. During the first five weeks of the contest, a coupon ballot good for 100 votes will be published in each issue of The Tecumseh Herald and these coupon ballots may be filled out with the baby's name and turned in to The Herald office, each coupon containing 100 votes for the baby designated, and with no limit on the number that may be turned in.

During the contest, each subscription to The Tecumseh Herald either new or renewal, will count votes according to the following schedule. Patrons paying their subscriptions direct to The Herald office must tell us the name of the baby for whom they wish to cast their votes when the subscription payment is made. Also, parents or sponsors may act as authorized agents of The Tecumseh Herald and, as such, using special receipt books supplied free for that purpose, may actively solicit subscriptions and turn them in with the votes going to their babies.

The following is the schedule of votes allowed on subscriptions:

1 year	5,000 votes
2 years	15,000 votes
3 years	30,000 votes
4 years	50,000 votes
5 years	75,000 votes

In addition to the above "regular" votes, extra bonus votes will be issued as follows: Beginning at once and lasting until 9:00 p. m. June 24, next, 6,000 extra votes on each one-year subscription; from then until 9:00 p. m. July 8, 25,000 extra votes on each "club" or accumulation of subscriptions adding up to five years; from then until the end of the contest on July 22, 45,000 extra votes on each "club" of subscriptions adding up to 10 years. A subscription turned in for any baby and later extended for the same baby will count the same "regular" votes as though the entire subscription had been turned in at first, if properly designated when extended. The right is reserved to add to the prize list.

After the winners have been determined, each of the remaining babies whose sponsors have remained active in his behalf to the finish of the contest but who failed to win a prize will receive a commission of 10 percent of the subscription money turned in for him. However, prizes or commissions will not be paid where sponsors do not remain active until the finals.

Further Details Next Week

Space is not available for complete details this week so be sure to get a copy of next week's Tecumseh Herald.

Better still, do not wait for next week's issue but get in touch with the Babyland Revue headquarters at the Herald office right away. Turn in a nomination coupon for your baby, arrange to have a photograph taken for publication, and start out after the prize winning votes immediately.

Office Open Evenings

For the convenience of those who cant come in during the day, The Herald office will be open evenings from 7:00 to 8:00 for the next two weeks.

"Babyland Revue?"

Across the pages of The Tecumseh Herald during the next few weeks, there will move a picture parade featuring the photographs of babies from this and nearby communities to be known as the Babyland Revue.

In he Babyland Revue, many charming child personalities from every section of the territory will be presented to readers of The Herald —and babies, just like adults, DO have distinct personalities, but more likely to be pleasing because they are as yet removed from the hardening elements of life. The way they smile; the postures they assume; the expressions in their eyes—these and a hundred other characteristics go to make up the distinct personality each baby possesses.

There are many attractive tots with keen, outstanding personality in The Herald territory—and during the next few weeks you will see pictures of many of them looking out from the columns of The Tecumseh Herald.

Neighborsand Good Citizens

Few Michigan citizens stop to think how much the raillroads mean to Michigan today. In this era of commercial and industrial development the railroads are vitally essential to Michigan's progress.

For example: In the average year the railroads spent more than 75 millions in Michigan —$55,007,715 in payrolls to 47,000 men; $5,759,621 in taxes; and, in 1939, $15,473,292 for supplies purchased in 248 communities in 69 counties in our state.

The railroads are our neighbors. They operate in all but two counties in Michigan. Their employes live in nearly every community in the state.

The railroads are good citizens. They furnish us with an indispensable service. They are the state's largest taxpayers. Railroad taxes help make possible the schooling of hundreds of children in this county. Railroad taxes last year in Lenawee County amounted to $50,608.99, all of which went into the Primary School Fund The prosperity of the railroads and of their employes helps make the business of all of us prosprous. Railroad employes in Lenawee County were paid last year the sum of $244,572.47, most of which was spent with local merchants.

We urge our Legislature and Congress to be just and fair in considering any legislation intended to remove the inequality under which our railroads are forced to operate.

MORE NURSES NEEDED

Employment of at least twice as many public health nurses as are now at work in Michigan is necessary to meet accepted requirements for adequate nursing service, according to a survey just completed by the Michigan Department of Health. The 976 public health nurses in the state represent a ratio of one nurse to 5,385 persons as compared to the ratio of one to 2,000 regarded as adequate by public health authorities.

"The number of public health nurses is divided equally between Detroit and the rest of the state," said Dr. H. Allen Moyer, state health commissioner. "This gives Detroit a ratio of one nurse to 3,326 persons and makes the ratio in the out-state area one nurse to 7,443."

Last year Michigan ranked seventh in the nation n the qualifications of its public health nurses with 52 per cent having completed at least one year of advanced public health training in a university in addition to their basic nursng course. Current figures are not available for other states, but the Michigan percentage this year is unchanged.

The largest number of public health nurses are employed by agencies supported by public funds such as city, county and district health departments. Visiting nurse associations are the leading non-official agencies employing public health nurses in Michigan.

Distance never lends enchantment to the motorist who is out of gas.

Still another thing that could be classed as a miracle would be to find a couple of girls discussing bread recipes instead of permanent waves.

Why is it that when a woman in a crowd starts crying all the other women present seem to think they have to join in?

Another fellow who has a hard time building up his list of personal friends is the one who thinks that a perpetual grouch makes him look dignified.

OPENING LIST OF ENTRANTS IN TODAY'S ISSUE

ALL BABIES IN HERALD TERRITORY ELIGIBLE; PHOTOS TAKEN FREE; HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS IN PRIZES AND CASH SUMS OFFERED.

Today—First pictures of local tots in the "Babyland Revue." Next Thursday many more pictures. Watch for them!

We want pictures—of babies up to and including six years of age. If you do not have a good recent photo of your baby, The Tecumseh Herald will gladly arrange to have one taken for publication without expense to you.

First List—Of entrants in the "Babyland Revue" today on inside page. Is your baby's name on this list? If not send or bring in a nomination coupon without delay.

Some little tot, six years of age or less and living in the territory served by this newspaper will soon be named as the area's "personality baby." With this distinction will go a beautiful lifetime loving cup and $125.00 in cash.

Many other babies will receive cash awards ranging from $75.00 down—in fact, there will be a cash award for every single tot who is actively sponsored. There will be no losers. And the winning of these prizes will be accompanied by a picture serial in which the photographs of all these attractive babies will be published, thus creating a pictorial record of surpassing interest not only in the present but through all the years to come.

This is the program of the "Babyland Revue" and it has struck a responsive chord in the hearts of mothers, fathers and admirers of local babies. On an inside page in this issue you will find a complete list of all babies who up to Tuesday night had been entered in the Babyland Revue. We are proud of both the quantity and quality of these entrants, and it would be a very apathetic individual who could not find some little man or woman in the list to enthuse over.

Must have Sponsors

It is quite noteworthy that a high percentage of these nominations have been sent in by persons other than the parents themselves. Now the next move is up to the parents.

So, if your baby's name appears on today's list, it is suggested that you get in touch with The Tecumseh Herald office right away relative to having a picture taken and getting started Remember, no matter how many friends and admirers your baby may have unless you cooperate, the good wishes of these friends and their desire to aid will not avail.

How to Secure Votes

The Tecumseh Herald's Babyland Revue will be an interesting friendly voting contest in which some personable tot will win the title of the Tecumseh area's "Personality Baby," a beautiful loving cup and $125.00 in cash. Nine other liberal cash awards also will be paid out, and then there is a 10 per cent commission for those who do not carry off one of the 10 prizes but remain active to the finish of the contest. All prizes will be awarded on the basis of votes received during the contest.

In addition to collecting the coupon ballots good for 100 votes each that will appear in each issue of The Tecumseh Herald for several weeks, votes also will be allowed on both new and renewal subscriptions to The Herald. A schedule for these votes already has been published and will be repeated as space permits.

It should be noted, also, that until 9 p. m., June 24, a special extra bonus offer makes each subscription count more votes than later; consequently, every effort should be made to get as many as possible while the big vote count is on.

Help For You

The Herald will be glad to supply you with a pocket subscription receipt book and also other information which will make it very easy to pile up votes for your baby and you should call The Herald office for it without delay.

We Want Photographs

The Tecumseh Herald is anxious to secure a photograph of your baby as soon as possible. If you have a good picture, bring it in. If not, we will be glad to have one taken without expense to you.

The Coller Studio of Tecumseh has been engaged to take needed photographs, and their work is so well known it is hardly necessary to tell you they will make excellent "personality portraits" of all the babies.

Of course it is not necessary to have a picture taken in order to take part and to win in the Babyland Revue; but the picture serial is one of the most interesting parts of the contest and your friends as well as yourself will enjoy having your tot's photo appear in the series.

Police Seek Youths Who Freed Prisoner From Jail.

B. W. Mominee, chief of police here, said last night that oficers have information that will lead to one or two, possibly three arrests, in connection with a jail break which occurred here about 2 o'clock last Saturday morning.

According to officers, Patrolman Wilson arrested a youth here about midnight last Friday night for disturbing the peace. He lodged him in the jail at the council building. About two hours later, a group of young men inquired about "their friend" and engaged Officers Wilson and Hand, night police here, in a lengthy conversation They were told that "their friend" could not be released until after court arraignment.

About 4 o'clock Saturday morning, Wilson visited the jail. The door was open, the prisoner was gone.

Police say that the lock on the jail had been forced with the aid of a steel bar. They also say they have information which will lead to the arrest of those involved They also have arrived at the conclusion that while they were talking with "Friends" of the youth others were busy "breaking into jail."

SPECIAL MEET

ELECTORS TO DECIDE WHETHER DISTRICT SHALL OPERATE PLAYGROUND SYSTEM.

A special meeting of the electors of Tecumseh School District No. 7 on Monday evening, June 2, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, was called today by Perry C. Satterthwaite, president of the board. The decision to hold the special meeting followed a special board session last week, at which time the operation of Tecumseh's new playground and athletic field was discussed.

The purpose of the special meeting is to decide whether or not the district shall operate and maintain a system of public recreation and palygrounds in accordance with Michigan state law. If the electors apvrove the proposal, the board is then empowered to name a board of control of the athletic field, to act as a governing body under the direction of the board of education. The governing board would be made up of representatives of many local organizations, including Rotary, Chamber of Commerce, Tecumseh Club, labor unions, and other groups.

It is believed that by the formation of such a board interest would be increased in playground and recreational activities, and that funds might be raised by subscription and otherwise to speed to completion the new field, a natural amphitheatre, immediately north of the central school building.

THE GRADUATES

White envelopes, carrying very special invitations, are arriving on every mail this week announcing that the so-and-so high school, the such-and-such college, requests the honor of your presence at their annual commencement. And you will be saying, "it doesn't seem possible that little John or Mary, or Helen or George, is old enough to be graduating. Now, what shall I send for a present."

But there's something more important you can do for John or Mary than sending them a billfold or compact with your congratulations. You can remind them of what a challenge it is to be starting out in the world at a time like his, when half the nations are at war and the United States itself is at work on Defense with almost a million and a half men in uniform; with taxes mounting and uncertainties increasing.

It is not as pleasant a time to get started, although here are plenty of jobs his spring of 1941. For there are problems as grave as any this nation has ever faced. And the boy or girl who finishes school this spring will be plunged into the turmoil of one of the great crises of history.

We are at work on the greatest armament program in the history of this country. We are training a great army of men. But we must not only make America strong enough to resist any physical aggression. We must rebuild our faith in democracy and the American way of life if we are to continue to be a country where men may speak as their pleases—even if we don't agree with them; where we choose by ballot the men who shall govern us and where we conduct our business in the way we see fit as long as it doesn't interefere with the rights of others. So the boy or girl, going to work this spring will count not only as another pair of hands to help with Defense but as a citizen whose belief in Americanism will help to bring it safely through this emergency.

America has always been the land of opportunity. The oppressed peoples of the earth have turned to it in their despair and thousands of them have come here to find a better life. It must continue to be the land of opporunity for them and for us—the country which will be the first to realize the true brotherhood of man that is possible in a land where the mass production of a free industrial system makes possible an abundance of the good things of life for everybody.

That is the situation which young people finishing school this spring will have the privilege of helping to develop. For we have reached the end of an epoch. We are at the beginning of something new and something better. With the increase in our productive capacity we will be able to realize the real destiny of America if we continue to build on the same foundation our forefathers used. And that is inevitable for as Mr. C. M. Chester, noted industrial leader, said recently, "the American's love of liberty, demand for opportunity and faith in the cherished institutions of Democracy are as sound as new and as precious today as they were in the days of Washington, Jefferson, and Franklin."

First List Of Entrants In Herald's "Babyland Revue"

Opening Roll Call Names Many Attractive Youngsters Voting Is About To Start

Today The Tecumseh Herald anounces the first list of entrants in its "Babyland Revue." We are proud of these early nominees, and we believe no community in the world could furnish a more attractive group of little folks.

It must be emphasized how ever that a very large majority of these nominations have been seint in by persons other than the parents themselves—that is by admiring friends and relatives by our correspondents and so on.

And it must be further emphasized that these tots, while considered as having been formally entered in the Babyland Revue, nevertheless are nominees IN NAME ONLY until such time as their parents come forward to accept the nominations and signify intention to sponsor their babies in the contest. Only a very limited time will be allowed for this and then the names of all unsponsored babies will be eliminated, for it is the wish of the baby editor to list only the names of tots whose parents are really interested in making them winners.

So if you have a boy or girl under six, better scan this list to see if a nomination already has been sent in. If it has, we hope you will not delay getting in touch with The Tecumseh Herald relative to having a photograph taken and for other details. If as yet no nomination has been sent in for your baby, use the nomination coupon on another page for that purpose.

Bear in mind that this list was hastily compiled just before The Herald went to press, and undoubtedly contains some errors. Parents are requested to notify us of errors in names, spelling, addresses and so on, before our next publication.

Pictures of the babies are being taken by the Collier Studio of Tecumseh without charge to the parents. All you need is a photograph order which you may have for the asking at The Tecumseh Herald office; so come in and get one right away.

One thing more—voting starts in The Tecumseh Herald next Thursday. Be sure to get your vote coupons and subscriptions in before 8:00 o'clock Tuesday night so these will show up in the voting list in Thursday's issue.

Names of the babies entered to date, together with their nomination votes follow:

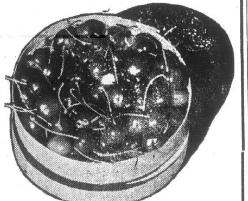
CUT YOUR LIVING COSTS
The Freez-it Lockers Way



Of course your family enjoys delicious fresh fruits in the winter time but—because of the budget—you sometimes neglect them on your menu.

You can forget high costs when you keep your fruit in a Freez-it locker. The cost in the winter—so far as you are concerned—is the summertime cost, because that is the time you buy.

Right now is the time to "locker-freeze" your asparagus and rhubarb. In a short time it will be cherries, berries, and other vegetables and fruits.

See us now about a locker. Avoid canning and cold-packing. Enjoy "fresh fruit" not "canned fruit" next winter.

THE AMERICAN SOLDIER . . . A DEFENDER OF TRUE DEMOCRACY

Many are the years that have passed since the first American soldiers emerged victorious from the battle which determined a people's right to a democratic life. Many are the battlefields to which solders wearing the uniform of the army of the United States of America have carried the spirit of democracy.

Tomorrow, we in Tecumseh observe another Memorial Day. Wreaths will be placed—cemeteries visited—speeches made—all over the land, in tribute to the men who lived, fought and died that freedom might continue to ring out, here. Yet the best tribute any American can pay those men's memory is to pledge himself to living democratically, whatever part he plays in civil life, or as an active participant in our nation's defense.

Dear Friends: We are very grateful to you all for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy extended to us in the recent loss which we suffered in the passing of Myrtle Oberg Robinson. We found it utterly impossible to remember each one of you personally, but the personal way in which you all united to help in the hour of bereavement helped us more than we can tell. No matter what time may bring to us, we shall always remember the graciousness of your ministry during the very trying days we had to face.

Please think of this as a personal thank you to each member and friend of the church.

THE BABYLAND REVUE ALBUM

Sylvia Ann Helzerman is a happy combination of smiles and sunshine. She has blue eyes, light brown curls, and she is a very pretty Miss with a winning personality. Sylvia Ann is the three and one-half year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Helzerman, of Tecumseh. Grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. W. S. MacKenzie of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Al Helzerman of Tecumseh. Mrs. Ida Teal of Milan is a great-grandmother A general favorite and a promising Babyland Revue entrant is little Sylvia Ann.

A leading juvenile citizen of Clinton and a talented and charming little belle in her own right is Anna Mae Pawson, aged two and one-half years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Pawson, well known Clinton residents, and the grand daughter of Mrs. Estella Yenor of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. J. Pawson of Onsted. This attractive blue eyed and blonde little candidate enters the Babyland Revue with every prospect for success, for she has many admirers intent on seeing her win.

Here is a typical American boy—healthy, happy, and a fine little citizen in every way. He is Bruce Edward Falk, aged 4 years and 10 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Falk of Tecumseh. Grandparents are Mrs. Opal Brady of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Falk of Sandusky. Great-grandparents are Fred E. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Beevers of Tecumseh. An interesting chap like Bruce Edward couldn't help having lots of friends, and they will all be boosting hard for him on Booster Day.

Intelligence, good humor, and personality are apparent in the face of this 16-months old lad. He is Earl Duaine Bilby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bilby of Macon, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coller of Macon and Fay Bilby of Onsted. A fine looking boy with a decided talent for making friends, Earl Duaine will be a favorite with many Babyland Revue fans; and it is predicted that he will be a busy and successful little campaigner.

Margie Barbara Papp, aged three years, is a classic little beauty with blue eyes, dark hair, and a fine, friendly personality. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Papp Jr., of RFD 1 Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, RFD No. 2 Tecumseh, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Papp Sr., Britton, are grandparents. Chas. Booth, RFD No. 2 Tecumseh, is a great-grandparent. The smile you see is only one of Margie Barbara's numerous charms.

He is the seven-months- old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Butler of Tecumseh; grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Butler of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bird of Britton; great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Phillips of Deshler O., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bird Sr. of West Toledo, O. Jerry Lee has made a surprising number of friends during his short life, so don't be surprised to see his votes taking some big jumps right along.

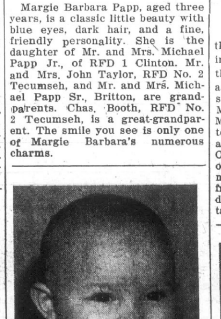
Strong and sturdy as a young oak is Thomas James Tressler, aged 15 1-2 months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tressler of Tecumseh and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCann of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tressler of Tipton. This handsome little lad has entered the Babyland Revue with pep and enthusiasm and from now on it will be "full speed ahead" as far as he is concerned.



Carol June Barnes, aged 15-months, is a captivating little sweetheart with all the "it" of a movie queen. She has a ready smile and many appealing ways. Carol June is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barnes of Tecumseh, and the granddaughter of Mrs. Clara Barnes of Tecumseh and Edward Detmer of Napoleon, Ohio. Mrs. Nettie Mumholland of Findlay, Ohio, is a great-grandmother. Already launched as an "active" candidate in the Babyland Revue she is looking forward to further important gains.

Better watch out or you'll fall in love with this little charmer at first sight. Nancy Ann Dinse is a quite irresistible Miss, as you can see. This tot with blue eyes and blonde hair is seven months old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dinse, RFD No. 1 Tecumseh. Mr. and Mrs. George Soncrant are grandparents. As the Babyland Revue gets under way, Nancy Ann is right up among the "active" contenders, and the prospects for capturing a major award are bright.

Baldwin and Brown New Hospital Board Members

One of the busiest sessions of the village council in many months was held on Monday evening when the trustees confirmed two appointments to the Tecumseh Hospital board of control, heard reports from several committee and department heads, and audited and paid outstanding bills.

Ned Baldwin was named as a member of the hospital board of trustees for a five year term, succeeding R. S. Moore, and Lillard E. Brown was named for a three year term, succeeding the Rev. Edward Green. The term of Mr. Moore as a member of the board had expired. The Rev. Mr. Green who leaves soon for a pastorate in Sault Ste Marie, tendered his resignation.

The council named Mrs. Charles Howe and C. A. Barber as members of the board of review. The street committee was authorized to lay new sewer mains on Wyandotte street, south and Kilbuck streets. The report of B. W. Mominee, chief of police, was placed on file, as was the reports of other department heads.

Cooperating with the board of education in the improvement of the new athletic field north of the high school, the council gave notice of its intent to close and discontinue Ottawa street, which runs in a southeasterly direction from Mill street to a point where the street turns and runs south. This action will close Ottawa street as a through street from Shawnee street to Mill street, but will leave about 75 feet of the street open north of Shawnee street. This is necessary, it was explained, to permit driveways into the corner residence.

AID BOYS SCOUTS PLEA OF WARREN

SCOUT EXECUTIVE SAYS COMMUNISTS SPENDING MILLIONS ON PROPAGANDA

Declaring that one of America's best bets for the preservation of democracy lies in the uninterrupted functioning of the Boy Scouts of America, Leslie Warren, executive of the Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of Lenawee, Monroe and Wayne counties, urged that communities like Tecumseh give liberally for the support of the movement, when he addressed the noonday luncheon meeting of the Rotary club here, Tuesday.

"It is known that Communist and allied organizations spent a billion dollars in this country last year for propaganda for the education of the American youth," Mr. Warren declared, "The Boy Scouts spent some $11,000,000 during the same time. We should awaken to the situation and bend every effort now to it that the teen aged boy is trained along the proper line."

Mr. Warren declared that Hitler's success was built from the pattern of the Boy Scouts.

"We teach scouts that their first loyalty is to their home, to their church, and to their country. Hitler removed home and church from the list and set himself up as the country. He taught this to the German youth and today he is the fear of the entire world. It is a well known fact that any man who can obtain the support of the youth for a period of 10 years can rule the country. We must not allow the youth of America to become entangled in the Communistic propaganda."

At the present time there are some 900 Scouts in the Wolverine area, and several hundred cub scouts. Tecumseh has a full troop of active scouts and a waiting list, under the direction of B. C. Dannells. The scout movement is growing in the area, Mr. Warren declared, and it is believed that the list will exceed 1,000 before the summer ends.

Mr. Warren reviewed the activities of the scout organization, praised scoutmasters and committeemen for their interest in the work, and called attention to the summer camp at Washington Lake where each summer several hundred Scouts receive recreational training.

School Census Shows Decrease Over 1940

A decrease of seven, in the number of school-age children residing in the Village of Tecumseh, as compared to a year ago, became known today as Miss Bess Spayde completed the census for the local district.

The 685 total school age children is seven less than the number reported in 1940, when the figure was 672.

GOVERNOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION; LOCAL COMMITTEE WILL SEEK FUNDS

Sunday, June 8, has been designated by Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner as a day of observance for United Service Organizations in Michigan and next week a temporary committee in Tecumseh, named at a county-wide meeting in Adrian this week, will begin functioning in an effort to raise $700 as this village's share of the state quota. The committee is made up of Perry M. Hayden, Glenn Driscoll Dan Corkery, Joseph Palman and Arthur Harding.

Russell B. McAfee of Adrian is county chairman of the Lenawee organization, which is seeking Michigan-wide assistance in raising funds for the establishment of recreational and religious services at army training camps.

The village of Clinton under the chairmanship of Dr. J. R. Foreman, already has over-subscribed its $200 quota and expects to more than double the amount. It is the first village in the county to report and to reach its quota.

Governor Van Wagoner's proclamation follows in part:

"The young men and women who are serving our country in the armed forces and in defense industries are makng many sacrifices in our behalf. The United Service Organizations for Natonal Defense composed of six basically religious welfare agencies are sponsoring a nation-wide U. S. O. Sabbath to be dedicated to these young people and to call attention to a two week campaign for the raising of funds that will be used in the work of building and maintanng the morale of these young people engaged in defense activities.

"Michigan's quota in this campaign is $600,000. Protestant, Catholic and Jew—every man woman and child in our State—all have good reason to share in this Sabbath observance and to participate in raising the U. S. O. fund.

"Wth deep reverence, therefore, I, Murray D. Van Wagoner, Governor of Michigan, hereby proclaim Sunday, June 8, 1941, as a day of observance of the United Service Organizations Sabbath and call upon every citizen of the State to join with others of his particular creed to reaffirm their faith in the infinite mercy and justice of God and pray with common voice, for the safety and well being of those in the service of our country that their minds be free from care their spirit undaunted and in their hearts great courage.

SATURDAY — Booster Day in the Babyland Revue. Booster Day is the official start of the contest. Be sure to turn in your first report of subscriptions Saturday, and thus give the baby in whom you are interested a flying start in next week's voting list!

On Saturday, June 7 — That's this coming Saturday — sponsors of the numerous attractive tots entered in the Babyland Revue will have a chance to show their colors.

Saturday is BOOSTER DAY, and it also will be voting day for all those people who want to see substantial vote standings credited to their favorites when the voting list appears in next week's Herald.

Booster Day is expected to bring out the first real showing of votes in the Babyland Revue. In fact it is the actual and official start of the contest. Of course, some votes already have come in, and the results of this preliminary balloting are indicated in today's issue. But, as was to be expected, the great majority of sponsors have not swung into action yet, and SATURDAY IS THE DAY when activity is scheduled to begin.

Not many parents of these favored little ones who have been entered in the Babyland Revue will be content to sit idly by and make no effort to advance their babies' votes toward winning the honors and cash prizes offered. Quite the contrary! And with this in mind we have set aside next Saturday as Booster Day, the time for all parents and sponsors to come forward and give their tots a flying start in the voting.

Big Votes Available

The big votes are secured by picking up subscriptions on which the count is especially high right now. Our subscribers are lying all around you, and a great many of these subscriptions are coming due at the present time. Others will be due soon. Again, many of your friends, not now subscribers, nevertheless realize the value and pleasure they would enjoy from receiving their own copy of The Herald through the mails each week, and will gladly give you their subscriptions with the votes going to your baby.

The Tecumseh Herald, with complete news coverage of this village and the rural area for miles in all directions, is at its present low rate one of the greatest newspaper bargains in America. It contents will be found vilally interesting not only to the local communities but also to former local residents who have since moved elsewhere. This means you will find both new and renewal subscriptions easy to get, and every one you do get will represent a big step forward toward winning a liberal cash award for your baby.

Next Week to Show Leader

The program of the Babyland Revue will continue to unfold next week, and for the first time the actual leader in the contest will be NAMED together with the runnerups. While the contest had not progressed far enough to permit doing so in today's issue, it is expected that Booster Day on Saturday will speed the voting to a point where, in next week's issue, we will be able not only to classify the entrants according to the various degrees of activity shown by their sponsors, but also to announce who is leading, and who is running second, third, fourth, fifth, etc etc. So if you want your baby to have a good rating in next week's voting list, get busy right away and turn in not merely coupons but subscriptions as well on Saturday.

Revue Just Starting

And now, as the Babyland Revue is just getting under way, if you have not yet done so you can enter your baby on equal footing with the others. Use the nomination coupon on another page for this purpose to enter a new candidate.

Honors and many splendid cash awards are to be won and these can be yours if you will just put forth a little effort during the next few weeks. Get in touch with your friends and neighbors (many of whom already are subscribers) and ask them for their votes and subscriptions. Do this now, while the big vote bonus is on.

Bonus Lasts 2 1-2 Weeks

Remember, the bonus offer of 6,000 EXTRA votes on each year of a subscription will expire June 24. This gives you about two and one-half weeks to take advantage of this liberal bonus offer, and you should make the most of it.

A one-year subscription, either new or renewal, if turned in now during this bonus offer, will count a total of 11,000 votes for your baby. A two-year subscription will count 27,000 votes, etc. Just a few of these will work wonders for

THERE IS ONE SURE GOAL!

If you have rowed a boat across a wide lake in order to reach a definite point on the other side, you know that it's a good idea to look over your shoulder from time to time and make sure that you're still headed right.

This country is rowing pretty fast and furiously at the present time. It's a good moment to take a look at the objective, so we'll be perfectly clear where we're going.

National security is the port we have set out to reach. In the midst of a chaotic world, Americans have determined to make sure that the great advantages in living which they enjoy shall not be rubbed out through any neglect or carelessness.

Particularly prized have been the various liberties we in this country enjoy—civil and religious freedom, a political system of representative democracy, and the private enterprise system for earning one's living.

It is to defend these that Americans are arming in so determined a fashion. And, paradoxically, they are willing to accept the imposition of certain emergency regulations upon certain of these rights, knowing that they will thereby aid the defense effort. Just as heavier taxes are being accepted to support defense, so restrictions on business of certain kinds have been admitted necessary, in order that the industrial machine can work most effectively for defense. For example, in certain cases where there is an extraordinary demand for materials needed in defense the application of priorities may be expedient. Export licensing to guard against depleting this country of vital materials and products might be another case in point.

There is surely, however, one paramount point to remember. The regulations are temporary. They have been accepted as needful by the people of this country because the people are convinced that the present emergency warrants their application. This being the case, all Americans, interested in the characteristic habits of life in this country, look forward to the day when these special rules and hobbles will be loosened.

After all, it is to guard against the universal spread of just such constraints that our national defense program has been embarked upon.

Only upon those terms would it be worth the effort!

TO DEDICATE FORD CHAPEL

HENRY FORD AND WIFE TO WITNESS PROGRAM AT MACON, THIS AFTERNOON

Martha and Mary Chapel, built near the site of the old Dutch Reform church at Macon by Henry Ford, and intended for the use of the students of his schools in this area, will be formally dedicated at 3 o'clock this afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Ford are expected to attend the service.

Patterned after the Martha and Mary chapel at Greenfield Village and named in memory of the mothers of Mr. and Mrs. Ford the Macon chapel is of frame construction some of the timbers coming from the original Dutch church. The interior is finished in walnut cut from Ford's Macon farms. The church will be used entirely by the children of his schools for chapel services and today's dedication will be in charge of the children.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the chapel, the fourteen graduates of Ford's Macon high school will receive their diplomas. They are: William Chase, Guy Beevers, Douglas Hall, Roland Wittrup, Joe Hendershot, Donald Froelich, Elroy Finnigan, Ralph Mehler, Ruth Hendershot, Eva Munnaw, Irene Papp, Bertha Kovach, Betty Frazier and Pearl Clark.

The Ford Macon high school has 57 students enrolled. It offers a full course of training, but emphasis is placed on vocational work. Its science laboratory is complete, there is a wood working shop, blacksmith shop, garage, mill and home economics department. During summer vacations, the boys are gainfully employed on the farms, the girls in the home ec kitchens, canning fruits and vegetables for next winter's use. Ivan Parker is principal of the school, L. C. House is the science instructor, and Mrs. Ione Gordon is the home ec director.

432 KILLED IN U. S. TRAFFIC

FIFTY DEAD IN MICHIGAN OVER MEMORIAL HOLIDAY; TWO IN COUNTY.

One of the heaviest Memorial Day death lists in the nation's history was counted this week when a compilation of state accident reports showed 432 lost their lives in the three day holiday, 50 of that number in the state of Michigan. A majority of the fatalities occurred in traffic accidents, 71 were drowned and 13 were killed in railroad mishaps. California led the states with 52 deaths and Michigan was second.

Two persons were killed in Lenawee County traffic accidents over the holiday. Fifteen others were injured in the six automobile accidents.

H. W. Campbell, aged 71 years of River Forest, Ill., was killed instantly on Thursday afternoon when his car collided head on with one driven by Curt M. Patsch of Detroit. Mrs. Campbell and their eight year old grandson, who were with him were both cut and bruised. They were brought to Tecumseh hospital for treatment, and are returning to their home today. Mr. and Mrs. Patsch and Miss Valeria Pittrens, passengers in the other car were also treated for minor injuries and left the hospital yesterday.

It is believed Mr. Campbell may have suffered a heart attack as witnesses told state police that neither car was going at a very high rate of speed.

Friday just before noon, Miss Allene Apel, 17, of Toledo, suffered a broken neck and skull fractures in an accident near Rome Center and died while being rushed to Adrian hospital. The accident occurred when the driver Paul Soncrant, 18 Toledo, lost control of the car on the gravel road. It overturned after striking a culvert. Four other occupants suffered cuts and bruises. The young people were on their way to Devils Lake to spend the day.

Michigan's toll of 50 deaths in traffic and three drownings was the state's record for a Memorial holiday.

The state's all high death list came in the face of a sharp warning from Highway Commissioner Kennedy last week, when he pleaded with motorists to reduce their speed and exercise care, in an effort to reduce accidents.

Kennedy also called attention to the mounting death toll from traffic accidents. Said he:

"A toll of 12 deaths in street and highway crashes over the last weekend continues the bad record of the present year, the first three months of which witnessed a total of 403 fatal crashes in Michigan. This was an increase of 50, or 14 per cent more than for the corresponding period last year."

Kennedy stated it was significant to note that the traffic accident rate virtually parallels the curve of industrial activity, and with business soaring to unprecedented heights as a result of the national defense program, a rising tide of traffic fatalities is imminent.

Revealing the stress that has been placed on present transportation facilities, Kennedy cited figures showing that traffic on Michigan highways this year has jumped more than 11 per cent over last year's figures and was 40 per cent higher than that of three years ago, and now stands at the figure previously estimated to be reached in 1945.

Voting To Begin Saturday --- It's Booster Day

Will Give Sponsors Opportunity To Put Favorite Candidates Well Up In Next Week's Voting List

Saturday, June 7, will be Booster Day in the Babyland Revue.

Booster Day will be the occasion when every tot entered can and should get a flying start in the voting. A glance at the list below indicates that only a few of the sponsors have shown any activity on behalf of their candidates so far. That is all right this week, but it would not look so good next week.

So on Booster Day give your favorite baby a boost. Make it a point to get and turn in a report of subscriptions. Every one of these subscriptions counts big under the present vote schedule and with just a little effort you can make sure your little candidate will make a good showing when the standngs are published next week.

The first vote count in the Babyland Revue will be made next Tuesday night at 8:00 and will include all of Saturday's Booster Day reports. On the basis of this count the actual LEADER and the runners up will for the first time be NAMED in the following issue of The Herald. Meanwhile although the contest is not yet far enough advanced to permit a vote count for publication this week the following classifications reflect the activity of the sponsors to date and give an accurate picture of the Babyland Revue's opening phase as it now stands.

KEY TO TODAY'S VOTING LIST—In the following preliminary voting list, candidates are divided into three general classes as follows:

CLASS A—consisting of babies who have received not only nomination and coupon votes, but also their first subscriptions. The letter "A" appears after names of those in this class.

CLASS B—consisting of names of babies who have received both nomination and coupon votes, but no subscriptions as yet. The letter "B" appears after their names.

CLASS C—consisting of names of babies who have been nominated but have received no further votes of any kind. The original starting credit of 5,000 votes appears after their names. ALL BABIES' NAMES IN THIS CLASS WILL BE DROPPED FROM THE NEXT PUBLISHED LIST UNLESS PARENTS OR OTHERS COME FORWARD TO SPONSOR THEM DURING THE NEXT WEEK.

Names and classifications as compiled at 8:00 Tuesday night follow:

The Coller Studio is giving us fine service in taking and finishing the Babyland Revue photographs. However, remember all this work takes time, so do not expect to see your baby's picture in The Herald immediately after the sitting. These pictures will be published in serial form over several weeks, and there will be plenty of time to run the photos of all the entrants who are being actively sponsored.

Remember, too, that when more pictures come through in any one week than can be handled in that week's issue, preference must necessarily go to those tots whose sponsors are most active. The best way, therefore, to secure an early publication of a picture is first, to have the photograph taken as soon as possible and second, to become active immediately in your baby's behalf.

Hardys Observe Loyalty on 8,000 Mile Journey

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Hardy returned Sunday from a 7,000 mile motor trip, through 26 states. They visited friends in Lexington, Kentucky, and went through some of the racing stables, where they saw among other Derby winners, Man of War and War Admiral.

They stopped at Camp Lee, Peterburg, Virginia, where their son, Major C. W. Hardy, M. C., is chief surgeon of the new 1,000 bed hospital the camp itself having now 25,000 men, but it is being enlarged. The Wright Memorial at Kitty Hawk, N. C., was passed, and they were fortunate in catching their limit, 20 fish each, in Lake Mattamaskeet, in less than an hour. They drove over the Florida Keys to Key West, where they had over 12 inches of rain in less than two days and the worst storm in 61 years. The Keys were cut off from the main land.

Dr. Hardy caught a channel bass, and altogether 15 larger fish off Marco Island.

Continuing through Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, they saw the tornado that wrecked Plainfield, Texas and missed the one near Childress. They continued through New Mexico and the Raton Pass, and ended at Manitou, Colorado, were Pike's Peak was still covered with snow. On the return they stayed with friends in Kansas.

What impressed them happily and favorably on the eight weeks trip, was the absolute loyalty and sturdy Americanism they found in all the Eastern, Southern and Western states; a willingness to make every sacrifice, and to go the limit to prepare for National Defense. And this was present in both men and women, in men of draft age, and in those above and below it.

Regardless of politics, regardless of party, the spirit of union, the aim to stand together for home and country was everywhere evident.

She is now featured with Billroy's Comedians, which with a company of eighty people, including many lovely girls and fifteen featured vaudeville acts, is coming to Tecumseh on Sunday June 8, for one performance only in its huge tented theatre, located at Athletic Park.

TECUMSEH ASKED TO AID BRITISH

GUNS, HELMETS, BINOCULARS NEEDED TO HOLD OFF HITLER INVASION.

British civilians, faced with the threat of a Hitler invasion and parachutists, are in desparate need of arms for the defense of their homes, and the American Committee for Defense of British Homes through the Tecumseh Rotary Club has issued an appeal for steel helmets, pistols, rifles, revolvers, shotguns, binoculars and stop watches the contribution made locally to be sent to New York and shipped directly to the British Isles.

E. M. Campbell, president of the local club, has named W. J. Bruce and Perry Satterthwaite as a committee to receive Tecumseh's gifts and the collection will begin at once. Any local resident desiring to contribute is asked to turn his gift over to the committee and a display of equipment will be made in the windows of the Palman store bulding on East Chicago boulevard.

The action of the local Rotary club is in keeping with a movement that is nation-wide, with hundreds of committees already functioning in thousands of cities and villages. Thus far the New York committee has forwarded to England some 3,700 guns, 4,800 revolvers, 2,172 binoculars, 414,724 rounds of ammunition, 12,000 stop watches and steel helmets. All articles are tagged with a special label, showing the owner's name, etc.

"The British are asking for guns instead of pitch forks with which to fight off the invaders," Mr. Bruce said in making the local appeal. "The material is shipped to England is small lots, on many ships so as to lessen the risk of loss. Only one shipment thus far has been lost at sea. We hope that Tecumseh will make a good showing by giving liberally."

The Michigan chairman of the solicitation is Ledgard Mitchell, vice president of the Chrysler Corporation.

Athletic Control Board Is Named for Tecumseh

Acting in accordance with the wishes of the voters at the recent special school election, the board of education in session Tuesday evening, named a seven-member board of control for the new "Community Recreation Center" in Tecumseh. The board, named unofficially several weeks ago, and now given legal status, is as follows: C. M. Brown and Fay Whelan, one-year terms; O. J. Winter and Albert Bagshaw, two-year terms; Dr. William Britton and Claude Smith, three-year terms. The board determined the length of term by drawing the names by lot. John Larsen, a member of the school board, was named as the seventh member of the board of control, represeuting the board of education.

The duties of the new board will be to administer public recreational activities here, particularly the new athletic field, now under construction. It is hoped that the board will be able to lend the trustees considerable assistance in financing the improvement program.

The board received official notification of the recently enacted state law, effective on July 1, whereby non-teaching public school employees will be placed under the state retirement fund act. The law applies to all school employees who work 60 hours or more per month, beginning the first of next month.

Boys Run Nine Times the Risk of Drowning that the Girls Do

If there's a school boy in your family, he will run nine times the risk of drowning this summer that his sister will, according to figures reported by the Michigan Department of Health.

"Last year's records show very definitely that nine times out of ten it's the boy who is the victim of a drowning accident," says Dr. H. Allen Moyer, state health commissioner.

"With the summer months at hand, when two-thirds of all drownings occur, parents will want to know what the chief hazards in swimming are, and these are two. Usually the boy who drowns can't at all, or he can't swim all and attempts something beyond his ability.

"What's needed, as lifeguards often say is more swimming lessons and then more sense in the water. The old rules are good: don't hwim alone, don't show off in the water, don't swim swift water or where there are unexpected deep holes."

Last year 36 boys but only four girls of high school age drowned in Michigan. The same nine to one proportion also applied to drownings as a whole. Out of 247 persons who drowned in the state last year 222 were males and 25 were females. Half of all persons drowned were below age 22.

At all age groups, more boys and men drown than do girls and women. The 1940 figures for certain age groups are:

Age	M	F
Under five	15	3
10 to 14	19	7
15 to 19	36	4
20 to 24	22	0
25 and over	106	6
	222	25

Two-thirds of Michigan drownings occur in the three summer months. Last years figures were: June 45, July 71, August 50, or 166 of the year's total of 247.

Twelve More Days Of Big Vote Count; End of Bonus June 24 To Spur Activities of Sponsors

Quest for Vote-Producing Subscriptions underway; First Report of Progress of Candidates Made in Today's Voting List.

Interest in the Tecumseh Herald's "Babyland Revue" is mounting daily, Pictures of fascinating tots, appearing in each issue of The Herald are being scanned with pleasure and admiration both by relatives and friends and by people not personally acquainted with the babies or their families. From every corner of the territory, favorable comments are coming in, and the voting also is beginning with indications its pace will increase rapidly within the next few days.

It is quite evident that the Babyland Revue has caught the public's fancy and people everywhere are starting to pledge support to their favorite tots.

Booster Day, staged last Saturday, put several additional candidates in the "active" class. Others are jumping into this class right along, and the next 12 days are likely to stir up further activity for the big bonus has just that long to run, ending on June 24, Sponsors of the various babies naturally will want to make the most of this bonus while it lasts.

Eliminations Today

When you turn to the list of candidates in today's issue on an inside page, you will note a material shrinkage in the number. This is because, as was forecast last week, names of nominees have been eliminated in all cases where parents failed to come forward and accept the nominations.

It is a very easy matter to win a substantial prize in the Babyland Revue, but no prize ever comes to any body unless they show enough spirit and pep to go after it. Hence the elimination of "inactive" names today will be followed with further eliminations if and when circumstances warrant. Believe us, we hate to remove any of these babies' names from the list, but if the parents themselves refuse to take up the cudgel in behalf for their little tots, their names might as well be taken from the roster, thus saving their friends further embarrassment.

Of course, as some names are dropped new names are added and today's voting list contains a number of these new entrants, some with growing vote totals. More new entrants are expected next week, for the elimination of inactive candidates will create more room for sponsors imbued with the desire actively to support their babies.

If your baby has not already been entered, do not hesitate to bring in a nomination within the next few days. You may be sure your little one will be welcome and that it will require only a little activity on your part to give your favorite a vote standing at or near the top next week.

Bonus Offers Expires June 24

The bonus offer of 6,000 extra votes on each years subscription (12,000 extra votes on a two-year subscription, 18,000 extra votes on a three-year subscription, etc.) will expire at 9:00 Tuesday night June 24. Don't forget this all-important date, and do not fail to put your best efforts to get every possible subscription before that time. Use personal visits, telephone calls, and see personally. Remember subscriptions are what give you the big votes—the coupon votes, while valuable, are supplementary to subscriptions and will not win by themselves.

Right now, with the contest just starting is the time to hustle Remember the old slogan—"Well begun is half done," so start right out to make a good beginning before another day passes.

VACATIONS MEAN MORE NOW

Americans take vacation time seriously. We work hard and play hard in this country. The English humorous magazine Punch, paying too much attention to the latter habit, once declared that America isn't a country—it's a picnic.

Vacations mean a lot to us because they are ap art of the whole pattern of freedom under which we live. No state-arranged "workers' tours" and "labor battalion holidays" for us! The people of the United States pay their ten billion dollars annually for amusement and recreatios in their own liberty loving way!

Well, summer is nearly here again and this is not quite like other years. A huge national defense program is under way, calling for the best that is in every one of us. And it is already apparent that for some Americans, there will be less time for relaxation this year than heretofore.

Skilled management will be in great demand at this crucial time in the defense program. The busy employer, whose symbol at present is the sandwich and cup of coffee for a lunch at his desk, will often be forced to forego a vacation this year.

Skilled workers will be in great demand, too, Already the employees of some companies working on defense have voted to take their vacation pay as a bonus and go right on working to make sure that their country will be armed in time.

But if the management and workmen in our industries and all those who have a stake in building this nations defenses can give less thought to the pleasures of a summer in the mountains or on the beach, there is at least one point they will not forget. It is privileges like these that they are working harder now in order to render secure. And any liberty is only a thing of worth and dignity if those who enjoy it are willing to make sacrifices to insure against its being taken away.

That is the vacation spirit of Americans in these difficult times.

Michigan Becoming Leading Arsenal As Nation Speeds Defense Program

LANSING — Whether for western hemisphere defense or "all-out" war in Europe for defense of democracy, Michigan is rapidly becoming the leading arsenal of the nation as well as a military center of recognized importance.

This is the picture today as Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner and the Michigan legislature act to create a state council of defense.

What the President and Congress may do during the coming weeks is obvious speculation. If this momentous decision were left up to the state legislature, little doubt exists what would be done, for both houses accorded Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana isolationist, a tremendous ovation at his recent appearance in the capital city.

The attitude of Michigan's senators and congressmen is also against involvement in a "shooting war." Senators Arthur Vandenberg and Prentiss Brown are pledged to oppose the use of convoys which the President has said is an open door to active war. Furthermore, Michigan congressmen voted overwhelmingly against the selective service act, Michigan being one of a very few states to appear prominently in the opposition column. All this is a matter of record.

Yet, come what may, the state government is preparing for any emergency that may arise. Michigan is getting ready to do its part.

To evaluate the magnitude of the defense council's job in Michigan, you must first know what the federal government is undertaking here.

Brace yourself for a surprise!

Centers of military consequence are nine in number.

Guarding the locks of the Soo canal at Sault Ste. Marie is Fort Brady. It is also a training camp for military police. To augment protection against bombing of the locks, the government is expending a half-million dollars on an airport base.

An expenditure of five millions is scheduled to enlarge the locks as safe-guard against possible paralysis of waterway facilities.

Little known to the public is the military use of an island off Alpena.

This bit of land is a practice target for bombing planes which simulate somewhat the actual war problem of a flight from an air base to an enemy concentration.

It is an extension of Selfridge Field near Mt. Clemens which is being mushroomed into giant size by the war department. Whereas only one pursuit squadron previously nested there, Selfridge Field has 3,700 pilots and enlisted men on duty.

A total of 213 new buildings are "on paper," under construction, or already completed. The air force would number 6,000 men.

Because of its pool of skilled labor and machine tools, the Detroit metropolitan area is becoming the leading arsenal city.

The war department has built near the Chrysler automobile plants a center for making medium and heavy tanks. It will employ 3,200 workers, three shifts 24 hours a day.

The navy department has contracted with the Hudson Motor company to operate a government arsenal in Warren township of Macomb county for manufacture of naval ordinance. This plant, when in full production, will employ 3,800 workers.

Within the city of Detroit is Fort Wayne, a historic military post, the future status of which is yet to be announced.

A naval aircraft station has been established at Grosse Isle near Detroit where preliminary ground work is being given prior to actual flight training at Pensacola, Florida.

The navy department has also established a machinists' training school at the Ford Motor company's River Rouge plant. Emphasis is placed on use of torpedo boats and submarine chasers.

These two training stations of the navy, together with the force at Fort Wayne, also constitute a military reserve for emergency use in the Detroit area.

A few miles from Battle Creek is Fort Custer, headquarters of the Fifth army division, a so-called streamlined blitz-style unit of combat teams.

Besides the 12,000 men in this division, Fort Custer has some 5,000 draftees who are undergoing training. This spring the government acquired 4,300 more acres for use of an enlarged airport and artillery practice range.

Sprawling over hundreds of acres are 832 new buildings, while some 200 more are "on paper" or under construction.

If the nation's destiny in 1941 is to be involvement in the European war, Fort Custer may be called upon to house two to three times its planned capacity.

Grayling, the national guard camp, may become a chemical warfare center.

It is inevitable that nine government military centers in Michigan in addition to the privately owned and operated "arsenals" throughout the state will create a multitude of problems, mostly within a radius of each center: Defense against sabotage, civilian protection, health safeguards for both soldiers and civilians, wholesome recreation possibly at resort centers as official "leave areas" for soldiers, and sailors, agricultural resources and production, housing for industrial workers, price stabilization and consumer interests, training of human resources and so on.

The subject of civil defense alone—and this is only one problem of many—would require preparedness to meet possible emergencies due to air raids, fire, medical care and sanitation, and chemical warfare.

Thus the council will become a clearing house to integrate the activities of governmental and private agencies in the defense effort.

Co-operation with the Michigan Food Council which is a separate coordinating agency for food production, distribution and retailing in the state, the defense council would be expected to integrate action against unwarranted rises in prices or depreciation of quality and supply of consumer goods or services.

Price activities would include strengthening of machinery for consumer protection to prevent speculative accumulation, withholding and hoarding of materials and commodities; checking of food laws; comparing and following up enforcement methods; publicizing laboratory tests; assisting in inspection and grading of food supplies.

The two councils would work closely together with farm co-operatives, the Grange, and state and federal departments of agriculture.

Regardless of the immediate outcome of the "Battle of the Atlantic," whether England goes down or not, authorities apparently agree in forecasting a unparalleled expansion of the present industrial and military activity for many, many months to come.

Financially, the cost leaves the average citizen punch-drunk and numb; the total sum will be fantastically unreal.

Fraught with other potential perils will be the post-prosperity period, call it by any name you choose.

Come on! Drive a Car with "Second Wind"!

You say a racehorse has "heart" when he can turn on the drive coming into the stretch and bring the crowd to its feet with an all-out finish.

Okeh—come try a car that can turn on extra wallop like water from a tap—and see what you would say about Compound Carburetion!†

For this stunning Buick straight-eight swings you along sweetly on only half-carburetion as long as you're taking it easy in everyday sort of travel.

But step down on the gas treadle—and things happen.

A second carburetor opens up. Air supply as well as gas supply is increased. Power rises instanter. You get your "stretch drive" any time you give the word.

But—this isn't only for thrill.

This engine's actually more efficient because it has this "second wind."

It gives you a car that has the life and lift you like—and still delivers (on owners' say-so) as much as 10% to 15% more miles per gallon than previous Buicks did.

That would be important any time; it's all the more important now—at the low delivered prices your Buick dealer is asking.

†Available on Buick SPECIAL models at slight extra cost, standard on all other Series

$930 for the Business Coupe (illustrated above) including Compound Carburetion

Earl Bilby Leads, Tommy Tressler 2nd, In First Vote Count

Vere Hart Third, Gayle Swift, Fourth Many Other Tots High as Balloting In Babyland Revue Gets Under Way

Earl Duaine Bilby of Macon steps out at the head of the list today as voting in the Babyland Revue begins, and the first lap of the race gets under way.

In second place and separated from first by about the width of an eyelash is Tommy Tressler of Tecumseh.

Vere LaRue Hart of Tecumseh is running a close third, and Gayle Kay Swift, also of Tecumseh, is a strong fourth.

Blanche Irene Potts of Tecumseh holds fifth position Catherine Marsh of Tecumseh is sixth, and John William Swanston of Tecumseh seventh.

Diane Marie Socks of Tecumseh occupies eighth place, Ruth Ann Bryan of Tecumseh is ninth and Thelma Blanche Strahle, RFD 1 Tecumseh, stands tenth.

Following these comes a whole host of little candidates treading closely on the heels of the "upper ten" and likely to overtake them at any moment.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly that, with the contest just beginning, only a mere showing of votes has been rung up by anybody at this early stage of the game.

However, THE RACE IS ON! It is time for alert campaigners to start moving! Only 12 days of the big votes bonus remain, and the sponsors of tots in the Babyland Revue had better let this important fact sink in.

The best move every would-be winner can make is to get going immediately. Subscriptions are all around you waiting to be collected Every one of them, either new or renewal, will count big votes for your baby. They can be had—all you need to do is to go after them —but you must go after them, for they won't roll in by themselves Even your best friends like to have you pay them the compliment of requesting their support and showing that you appreciate it. As soon as you do start out after subscriptions, you'll be amazed at how rapidly your votes will pile up and your baby's name will rise in the voting list.

Any candidate away down in Class "D" today, or an entirely new entrant for that matter, can easily rise to the top before the next voting list is compiled next Tuesday night—let's see how many sponsors of these Class "D" candidates will rise to the challenge and put their babies' names in top position in the coming week's voting list!

Following are names and classifications of candidates on the basis of votes received up to 8:00 P. M. Tuesday:

SMALLPOX IN PORT HURON

Michigan experienced its second outbreak of smallpox this year when 22 cases were reported in Port Huron during the first three weeks of May, according to the Michigan Department of Health.

"The first outbreak occurred early in January when nine cases were reported in Richmond, just north of Mt. Clemens in Macomb county," said Dr. H. Allen Moyer, State Health Commissioner "Cases of smallpox have been reported here and there in the state since that time, but not until the Port Huron outbreak has the disease been found in significant numbers in any single area. The disease is occurring in a mild form, but of course we are never sure when a virulent type may appear."

The crent spread of smallpox brought the total number of cases reported in the state to 74 since the first of the year. This is just two less than the total number of cases reported during the entire year of 1940.

U. S. BOND SALES GET STATE TEST

MICHIGAN CHOSEN BY TREASURY AS ONE OF SIX "TRY-OUT STATES IN NATION

LANSING June — Michigan has been chosen by the treasury department at Washington as one of six states where organized committees buying of U. S. national defense bonds will be tested on a big scale.

Upon the outcome of a high pressure campaign led by the dynamic Frank Isbey, Detroit appointee of Gov. Frank Murphy as state fair manager in 1937 and 1938, may rest the federal administration's decision whether to expand the plan nation-wide or to recommend congressional enactment of compulsory payroll deductions.

"As any leading Detroit business men see it," confided Isbey, "the country has the choice of either assuring the adequate financing of our national defense program through purchase of government bonds as well as taxes or opening the door wide to disastrous inflation, signs of which are already at hand.

"If the bonds are not bought voluntarily, the government may be forced to require compulsory savings through payroll deductions."

An educational program is being launched through the public schools local governments, and industrial concerns to acquaint the public with the merit of the new bonds.

Whereas the World war Liberty bonds were bought at par and often sold at a loss, the 1941 securities are redeemable at any federal reserve bank at not less than par, plus any interest accrued.

School children are being asked to buy saving stamps in denominations of 10 cents and upward, available at local postoffices. Stamp "booklets," when filled, have a cash value of $18.75 good for the purchase of a $25 bond. The bond is redeemable in ten years at the latter amount, a 33 1-3 per cent increase on the original investment.

All bonds constitute a direct obligation of the United Statees government itself.

Rep. Fred L. Crawford, Michigan estified before the house banking committee at Washington that the treasury's quota of a billion-a-month sales of defense bonds was lagging badly.

Declaring that a plan of compulsory bond buying had been adopted in both Germany and Britain, Crawford said that such a proposal had been made here by Isador Lubin, commissioner of labor statistics. National defense contracts would carry a provision whereby a certain percentage would be automatically deducted from each worker's pay and invested in government saving bonds redeemable in full at the end of the emergency.

C. I. O. and A. F. L. workers in Detroit were warned by Isbey (state chairman of the saving bond campaign) to "get in step."

The initial success of the pressure drive indicates that Michigan may again lead the way, not only in mass production of vital armament but in mass purchase of government saving bonds. If it succeeds, it will be democracy in action.

The Corner Pulpit

"Jesus answered . . . except one be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God . . . Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born anew (St. John 3:5-7).

These words occur in the conversation which took place between our Lord and Nicodemus. Nicodemus was like many fine men in our community today. He was earnest and wellmeaning. He was a scholar; he kept abreast of the times; and his opinions and advice were respected by other people. Yet in spite of his worldly knowledge and activity, he is both intrigued and puzzled by Jesus' teachings. He thinks, by a private interview, to get a logical clearing up of the whole matter, just as our own leaders in civic and business affairs will discuss religion privately with a clergyman, and perhaps praise the clergyman's work, and yet will have little to do with the Church and religion except on occasion.

It takes more than a bright mind to know God and to understand the Church. Our WILLS must consent. When we let God take charge of us; when we take the Church as seriously and as regularly as we do the luncheon and bridge clubs and our various other social interests, we see religion in a new and better way. We think, feel and will, not on the low level of our human nature, but on the higher level of God's purpose.

"I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead thou me on."

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

NINETY - FIRST YEAR— NUMBER THIRTY-EIGHT — TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY JUNE 19, 1941 — FIVE CENTS PER COPY.

LOCAL TAX RATE IS FIXED AT $14

BUDGET ADOPTED BY COUNCIL ON MONDAY; IS 50 CENT CUT OVER YEAR AGO.

The village council in regular session on Monday evening, adopted a tax rate for Tecumseh in the year of 1941-42 of $14 per $1000 assessed valuation. The new rate is a reduction of 50 cents a thousand over that approved one year ago. The collection of taxes here will begin in July.

According to figures compiled by the board of review and submitted to the council, Tecumseh's assessed valuation amounts to $2,248,700, of which amount $1,965,450 is real estate and $283.250 is personal. The $14 rate will raise a total of $31,481.80, of which amount $13,492.20 will go to the general fund; $11,243.50 to the highway fund; $5,621.75 to the sewer fund; $1,124.35 to the hospital sinking fund. There was no provision made for the raising of money for the water fund, which department is more than self sustaining.

The president and clerk were authorized to borrow $6,000 from the cemetery emergency fund for use in the water fund, and a $6,000 loan from the water fund to the highway fund was ordered repaid.

The council rescinded its action of two weeks ago, ordering a partial closing of Ottawa street. Current bills were audited and ordered paid and reports of committee chairman and department heads were heard and placed on file.

Site of Tecumseh's New Recreational Center and Playground

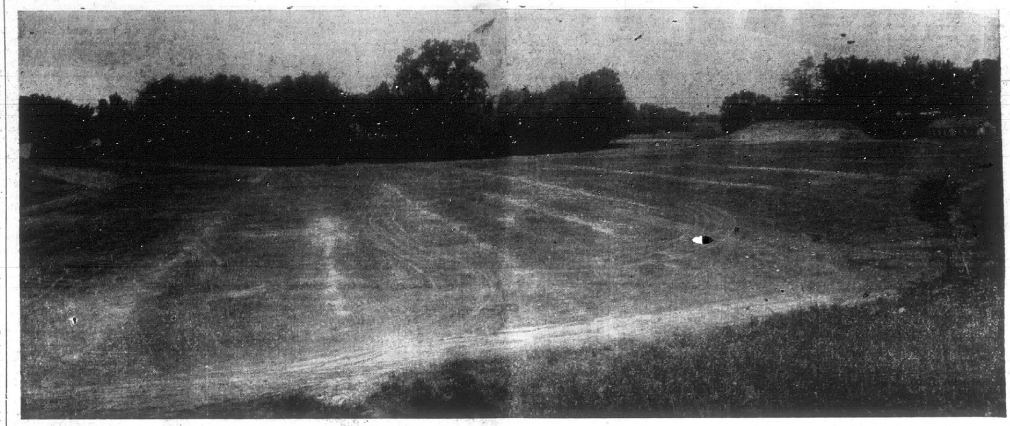

Photo show natural amphitheatre on Mill street, just north of the high school building, that is being developed into what will be one of the finest recreational centers in Southern Michigan. The land already has been purchased by the school district and as the picture shows, the work of grading and tiling is nearly completed. The amphitheatre, when finished, will provide recreational and entertainment facilities for both young and old in Tecumseh and its immediate vicinity. Work on the project is being rushed in an effort to have the field in readiness for some activities this fall and winter.

Elva Mae Dickinson Is Chosen To Attend Wolverine Girls State

ANN ARBOR June 19 — Elva Mae Dickinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dickinson, of Tecumseh, has been chosen to attend the first annual Wolverine Girls' State, a week's leadership training program for girls, to be held at the University of Michigan June 19 to 26. The program is sponsored by the Michigan department of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Two hundred girls, sponsored by women's organizations in their home communities, will come to Ann Arbor to take part in the program, designed to produce leaders for future generations of women. Miss Dickinson is sponsored by the Legion Auxiliary of Tecumseh.

The Girls' program will stress women's place in the home and in the community, says Mrs. Norton H. Pearl, president of the Michigan Auxiliary. "The trend today for women seems to be directed again toward the home," she says "and the present national defense effort makes women's place in home and community one of outstanding importance."

The program is being planned to present a picture of the opportunities open to women in the fields of home economics, nursing occupational—and physio-therapy, dietetics, dramatics, music, and the arts.

Features of the program already arranged include a visit to the University Hospital and its department of home economics program, the University's Commencement exercises, and attendance at a play in Ann Arbor's spring Dramatic Festival.

The girls will live at Jordan Hall University residence for women students. A staff of ten counsellors will supervise the activities of Girls' State.

Votes Drop Tuesday Night

END OF FIRST BONUS AT 9 P. M. JUNE 24; SPONSORS, SPEED UP!

All Subscriptions Must Be in Babyland Revue Office or in the Mails at Closing Hour to Earn Big Votes—Backers of Tots Entered in Babyland Revue Have Opportunity to Boost Their Tots Into Top Brackets.

Five more days—and then the votes go DOWN!

This is the slogan of the Baby land Revue today as the First Bonus period draws to a close. Nine o'clock Tuesday night June 24, is the hour at which the First Bonus expires. Immediately thereafter there will be a drop in the number of votes allowed on subscriptions. It looks as though the next few days will be busy ones, for the sponsors of tots entered in the Babyland Revue will not want to let these days of opportunity slip past without taking full advantage of them.

A glance at the standings this week will indicate what long strides could be made by any of the entrants with just a little effort on the part of their sponsors The plain facts are, that during the past week little or no progress was made by most of the sponsors It may have been the weather, or it may have been something else; but whatever the reason, today's voting list tells a story of "suspended animation" for many contestants.

But, after this short "vacation," sponsors who really are interested in winning for their babies are likely to come to life in a big way, NOBODY worth his salt is going to sit down and loaf during this critical period when some real snappy hustling will make so much difference in the votes of his favorite little candidate.

Nine O'Clock Is Deadline

Nine o'clock Tuesday evening, June 24, is the deadline for the First Vote Period. When the clock strikes nine next Tuesday night the big count on subscriptions will end, and never will be repeated. If you want to make the most of your opportunity to put your tot up in the front ranks, don't neglect these next five days.

In order to obtain the big count, all subscriptions must be in the Baby Editor's office not later than 9:00 p. m. Tuesday, June 24. Don't overlook this, and don't be late However, if you live out of town you may mail your subscriptions in and they will be given the big vote PROVIDED the envelope in which they arrive shows a post mark not later than 9:00 p. m., June 24.

How Subscriptions Count

On another page of this issue a table has been prepared showing just how many votes subscriptions will count from now until Tuesday night at nine.

Consulting this table, you will learn that, including the first bonus the votes allowed on subscriptions are:

1 year	11,000 votes
2 years	27,000 votes
3 years	48,000 votes
4 years	74,000 votes
5 years	105,000 votes

Only five days of the Big Vote Bonus—make them big!

Rotarians to Pick Up Rocks Here, Friday

CLUB RECOGNIZE RECREATIONAL PROJECT BY VOTING TO ASSIST WORK FOR THREE HOURS

Members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club will "go on the rock pile" next Friday afternoon in an effort to speed up the work of developing the new natural amphitheatre on Mill street and, physically speaking in an effort to reduce the club's collective waist-line.

And, completely off the Rotary record, the club is hurling a challenge to the rest of the community by saying in a "three hour work bee' that it believes both financially and physically in the enterprise—and that it is willing to back up its considered judgement by real effort.

The eight-acre plot the site of the new community recreational center, already has been purchased by the school district. It has been graded and tiled, and the turf is now ready for fitting preparatory to the spreading of top soil and seeding.

Dr. Wm. Britton, who is a member of the recreational control board advised the Rotary Club on Tuesday of the progress of the development, and said:

It's a darned good job, as far as we've gone, but the thing thats giving trouble now is that the field is so full of stones that we can't seed 'till they're picked up. If you fellows had a heart, and some good strong backs, you'd come down and help us. What we want is some real stone pickers.

"We know the control board is short of funds to do all of the work that is to be done," Britton continude. "There's no doubt but that we can raise all of the money we need in a drive later on, but what we want is some "umph" back of this movement, now.

"I've looked over most of the members of this club, and believe me now, if you fellows will spend a few hours picking up rocks there'll be plenty of umph, or I don't know my waist lines."

Karl M. Schneider, acting club president, advised Britton that he was sure the club would assist in the work.

"I think it would do the Rotarians good to go on the rock pile for a few hours," Schneider said, "and I'm suggesting now that every member of this club join in a rock picking bee, next Friday afternoon from four to seven.

The club voted unanimously to hold the stone picking bee. Every member must become a stone picker for three hours, else he must pay a fine of $1.

"While this stone-picking bee is a Rotary sponsored movement Britton said, "we don't want the community to feel that it can't join with the club in the movement, we'd like to have half a dozen Rotary Clubs down there next Friday afternoon—meaning that we'd like to see hundreds of local men and boys join in the movement."

"And, incidently," Chuck Butler confided, (Chuck's helping to engineer the stone pickers) any spectators who get too wise with their wisecracks, may be asked to join the club in the work or donate to the worthy cause.

Make it a date with the Rotary club next Friday afternoon — join in the stone picking bee for the benefit of the community. The stone pickers will meet at the "four corner" and march to the field, where the work will be done.

The Michigan State Defense Savings Committee has announced the appointment of a Tecumseh committee, organized for the purpose of promoting the sale of Defense Savings Stamps and Bonds through a systematic plan of saving.

The local committee is made up of: Mayor J. Floyd Elliott, honorary chairman; Frank K. Berkhof, chairman of educational groups; Fred Dickinson chairman of labor groups; Earl L. Wickwire, chairman of trade and transportation groups. Each committee chairman will immediately appoint a group of workers who will handle the organization of each group falling under his classification.

In announcing the committee appointme nt, Mr. Smith also made a special appeal to boys and girls of school age, uigrng them to start now to make regular purchases of Savings Stamps at the local postoffice. "Stamp Banks" will be established at the local schools at the beginning of the fall term, and after the required number of stamps have been purchased they may be exchanged for interest bearing bonds.

ELEVEN MEN WHO KNOW

They've been over in battle-torn Europe, these American war correspondents, and seen modern tanks crash through defenses manned by free men who were brave enough but simply didn't have enough modern equipment of their own to halt the aggressors. Now they have returned to this country and there is no one with a clearer realization that airplanes and tanks and guns are needed to make a nation safe in today's chaotic world.

Over there in the midst of the war, the machines were either there or they weren't. All too often they weren't. Now that the reporters are here in the United States, they have time to pause and ask afew important qustions: "Where do the machines come from? Are we making sure that America will have enough of them to make its defenses unassailable?"

The answer to the first question, of course, is that industry must make the equipment, and so, through an arrangement made by the National Association of Manufacturers, the eleven noted correspondents are making a tour by air of many of the leading defense plants of the nation. There they are finding the strong, affirmative answer to their second query.

The articles these men are writing for their own newspapers and services are giving the public facts, which show how determinedly industry has attacked the biggest production job in all history. The stories are big because the people who are writing them know the meaning of defense in its very broadest terms. They are just as big news in that they will give the people of America the best possible chance to see the central fact—that only industry can do the work of defense production, and that in reality industry represents the main line of national defense!

It is that fact above all others which surely needs driving home till it becomes part and parcel of all public thinking on the key subject of America's security. Viewed thus in perspective it is hard to over estimate the value of hearing these eleven men report on the plants of America, whence come the guns and tanks and planes for defense!

HOME DEFENSE Should Begin In Your Coal Bin!

Insulate For Warmth

For greater warmth in your home next winter, let us suggest that you insulate this summer.

You will get immediate dividends on the money you spend for insulation. This summer and fall your house will be cooler—insulation protects you from the heat—and next winter you will burn less fuel; the heat will stay in the rooms instead of going through the ceiling. Let us figure with you on costs. You'll be surprised at the very low price.

Today, as never before in the history of the nation, Americans are discussing HOME DEFENSE. It is a paramount issue, vital to each of us.

And to residents of Tecumseh we say that HOME DEFENSE should begin in the coal bin. It is a vital spot.

Next winter, when below zero temperatures fall, a bin full of coal will afford security—security against the chill of winter winds—security for every member of the family.

Why delay ordering your winter supply of coal any longer? It is a certainty that prices are going to increase on the first of July.

Phone us your order today.

Sponsors Have 5 More Days To Gather The Big Votes!

Bonus Ends Tuesday Night at 9:00; Subscriptions Count More Votes up To This Hour Than They Will Later

Sponsors have exactly five more days in which to gather the big votes allowed on subscriptions! This big vote count comes to an end next Tuesday night, June 24, at nine o'clock when the first bonus offer expires, and the votes drop.

This coming five-day period presents parents and other sponsors with an excellent opportunity to increase their babies' vote totals rapidly. Coming at a time when the contest is just beginning to move ahead it is one big reason why alert sponsors will want to shake off their lethargy, and really get out and get busy.

Regardless of how attractive and popular these little Babyland Revue entrants may be—and they ARE attractive and popular, every single one of them!—parents must apply a little push and energy to make them winners. And right now is the best time of all to make the applications.

We don't mean to say that the contest will be over next Tuesday night—far from it. But we do say that candidates whose sponsors get out and hustle before that date and turn in a real report of subscriptions while the big count still remains, will enjoy a definite advantage toward winning the beautiful loving cup, the $125.00 in cash or one of the other major awards.

This week's list, compiled Wednesday morning, shows that when the votes were counted last TOMMY TRESSLER had edged into first place, VERE LARUE HART had risen to second, and EARL DUAINE BILBY was holding third.

BLANCHE IRENE POTTS was running a strong fourth, THELMA BLANCHE STRAHLE had advanced to fifth, and GAYLE KAY SWIFT stood sixth.

In seventh spot was JOHN WILLIAM SWANSTON, with DIANE MARIE SOCKS eighth, BONNIE JEAN CURRIER ninth, and COREEN YVONNE MARSH tenth.

BRUCE EDWARD FALK occupied eleventh place, ANNA MAE PAWSON twelfth, CATHERINE ANN MARSH thirteent, and RUTH ANN BRYAN fourteenth.

NANCY ANN DINSE was No. 15, JOAN MOBLEY sixteenth, and RUTH ANN BRYRINGTON seventeenth.

GAIL FRANCES EHLERT held eighteenth position, and RITA KAY RICHARDSON nineteenth.

The above entrants constitute the Class "A" division it must be emphasized that while the relative positions in this class run from one to 19, many of these are so close together as to be practically tied and in numerous instances just one more subscription before the paper went to press would have moved the contestant receiving it several places higher in the list.

And also following these Class "A" candidates and down the ladder only half a step are numerous others whose sponsors are not overlooking the desirability of the big prizes and who will be right in there boosting hard to upset the line-up and bring their favorites to the top during the next five days.

Following are the names and classifications:

Athletic Park Plan Outlined

WILL PROVIDE SPACE FOR ALL TYPES OF SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY RECREATION

Along the hallvily wooded banks of Evans Creek is a level 8-acre field, completely surrounded by steep banks twenty feet or more in height and covered with native trees and shrubs. In this spot of rare scenic beauty, Tecumseh is building its new Recreation Center. Few communities are so fortunate as to have a natural ampetheatre of this size.

Last week The Herald reproduced an actual photograph of the field of the new Community Recreation Center. This picture was taken after completion of the rough grading and tiling of the field. Thousands of yards of earth had to be moved in this project, including the cutting away of an entire hill. Approximatély one mile of drainage tile has been laid ensuring dry playing condition shortly after any storm. Last Friday, the Rotary Club turned out almost to a man and with the able assistance of several other public spirited citizens, picked up several tons of stones and rocks, preparing the field for final grading, top dressing and seeding. This is the present development of the Recreation Center.

C. M. Brown, chairman of the Board of Control says, "It is our plan to push the development to completion as rapidly as possible At least we want to have the football gridiron ready for play at the opening of school and the grounds prepared for the winter sports. The playgrounds, swimming pool and other sports and play equipment, will follow as rapidly as funds are available."

When completed, the Recreation Center will be one of the most complete, self-contained, civic creation centers in lower Michigan Not only will it provide for the major outdoor sports of all of the schools, but it will also serve the whole community in other recreational activities.

The Football Gridiron

The football gridiron will be the first unit of the center completed. This has been planned with the consultation of several famous athletic directors and coaches of nearby universities and will be the equal of any in this vicinity It will be laid out along the eastern edge of the main playfield.

The banks surrounding the field form a natural amphitheater "or bowl". It is proposed to build permanent bleachers on the east bank either of concrete or concrete supports.

Also, temporary, moveable bleachers will be located along both side lines, These latter bleachers can be set up for either baseball of softball or any other of the sports and recreational events. (The temporary bleachers are indicated in the sketch both on the football field and on the baseball diamond.) It is proposed to provide seating facilities for one thousand or more spectators.

When funds are available, lighting will be installed for night football. Most fans are at work at the time of the high school football games. Many have never seen the Indians play. Night games would give all the opportunity and would revive civic interest in high school sports.

A building is already constructed adjacent to the gridiron which can be remodeled and used for locker and dressing rooms. Shower baths will be installed in this house

Winter Sports on Program

Nowhere is the natural typography of the Recreation Center of greater advantage than in winter sports. It is planned to flood a portion of the field shown as the baseball utfield fr a skating rink. This would provide a place for children and adults to skate without danger of a cold dip through the ice on the creek. It would be illuminated at night from the football field.

If sufficient interest is developed an ice hockey rink can be made on a part of the skating rink by forming the necessary boundary and "blue" lines in the ice and setting up goals. (A hockey rink is indicated in the sketch). Also the eastern bank provides a natural drop of about twenty feet, which is ideal for a ski slide and tobogganing.

Spring School Sports

In the spring, there should be a heavy turf over the entire field and it is proposed to layout a baseball diamond with home plate in the southwest corner of the field. This diamond will be comfortable in size with most of the major league baseball parks. Only left field will be slightly short and this will be so long that few players will be able to "knock one out of the park."

A one quarter mile oval cinder track will surround the football field. Also a 220-yard "straightaway" has been located along the eastern edge of the fild with the finish line near the grandstand. Very few of the high schools have as fine a track as planned for Tecumseh and undoubtedly many of the regional tarck meets will come to Tecumseh when this track is completed.

In the area between the north end of the football field and the track, space has been provided

Babyland Revue Shifts Into High; New 25,000 Vote Bonus Announced

Race Gettng Closer and Keener as Contest Passes Halfway Mark and Head Down Home Stretch.

With the first bonus offer a matter of history, and a new and exciting vote bonus announced today, the Babyland Revue is really shifting into high gear.

Interest was at a new peak last Tuesday night as the stroke of nine marked the end of bonus No. 1 and ushered in bonus No. 2 Quite a few sponsors took advantage of the last few days really to become active in behalf of their favorite tots, and as a result improved materially their chances for success. To date, all the candidates in the "active" classification have run along pretty evenly matched and a spirited competition during the closing periods of the contest is being forecast.

25,000 EXTRA VOTES

on each "club" or accumulation of subscriptions adding up to five years—this is the new bonus offer now in effect! This bonus is short and snappy—good only until 9:00 p. m, July 8. The extra 25,000 votes are IN ADDITION to the "regular votes" which do not change but remain the same throughout the contest. See details in the display announcement on an inside page.

Second Bonus Offer

The second bonus offer, announced in today's issue, is a dandy. Under the terms of this offer, sponsors will receive 25,000 additional votes over and above the "regular" votes on each "club" or accumulation of subscriptions adding up to five years.

For example, five yearly subscriptions would count 25,000 "regular" votes just the same as always. Then since these five yearly subscriptions also would constitute a "club," another 25,000 bonus votes also would be allowed on this combination. Total votes for five yearly subscriptions under this bonus—50,000!

Another example: three yearly subscriptions would count 15,000 regular votes and a two-year subscription would count 15,000 regular votes. This combination would add up to five years and so would entitle the sponsor to the 25,000 bonus votes. Total votes on this ar-

Wagon loads of rocks—literally tons of them — were removed from Tecumseh's new proposed Recreation Center last Friday afternoon and evening when more than a score of Rotarians, assisted by nearly as many business and professional men, and young boys, joined in a rock-picking bee at the natural amphitheatre just north of the high school building. As a result of their work, the plot is nearly ready for fitting and seeding.

The rock-picking bee, in which the Rotarians joined, proved much fun for the out-size waistline members of the club and —off the record—some members hired boys to substitute for them when they found that the distance to the ground was too great for htme to endure in comfort. However, no one shirked their work and a dozen members of the club, who found it impossible to attend the bee because of conflicting appointments, paid $1 fines when Rotary met this week Tuesday. The money fs to be used Tuesday. The money field for seeding.

The Rotarians who reported for work were: Karl M. Schneider, P. C. Satterthwaite, Earl L. Wickwire, D. J. Carson, C. O. Butler, John R. Thompson, J. H. Anderson, E. C. Brandt, C. W. Gilman, Chas. O'Nell, Al Bagshaw, D. L. Burleson, Lester Robers, S. H. Smith, H. H. Hanna, C. M. Brown, Bert Ousterhout, Ralph Comfort, W. J. Bruce, M. L. Dannells, L. W. Larsen and Wade L. Jones.

Business men, not members of the club, who also helped with the work were: Nelson Bascom, Melvin

Must Register Tuesday, July 1

EVERY MAN WHO HAS BECOME 21 SINCE OCT. 16, MUST REPORT.

Preparations were complete today, Lenawee draft officials announced, for the registration of every man in the county July 1 who has become 21 years old since last October 16. The registration will be held by order of President Roosevelt, who announced the date more than a month ago.

Following a pattern similar to the registration last autum of more than 6,000 men between the ages of 21 and 36 years for selective service in the U. S. Army, the new registrants will be classified and called for training. It is estimated that 350 men will register in Lenawee county.

The registration will take place next Tuesday between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 9 o'clock at night with a force of 46 Adrian and Lenawee county resident volunteers assisting the draft board members and clerks in taking the registrations.

The help of the volunteers will make it possible to handle each new registrant in a minium of time To further facilitate the registration the board members requested that every 21-year-old in the county report at the armory office on West Maumee street in Adrian as early as possible on July 1.

All men who have become 21 years old since October 16, the date of the first registration, must report at Adrian July 1, draft officialse emphasized. The selective service act provides a penalty for draft evasion for men who do not register. The Adrian armory office is the only place in the county where registrations will be taken.

The board said today the classification of all registrants presently registered probably will be complete before the end of July and that the classification of the new registrants will proceed immediately thereafter.

BUSY DAYS AHEAD

Looks like a busy summer for us all. No long idling on shady porches even for "home bodies" who used to have hours to spend as they pleased. Not so many fishing trips for father. Perhaps less time for John or Mary.

The times are badly "out of joint" all over the world. The president has declared a national emergency Our army is gathering in camps all over the country and industry is working as it never had to work before.

First there were orders for a few billions of dollars worth of defense materials to be produced as quickly as possible. But it soon became evident that this would not be enough to make this great broad peaceloving land safe. And still more planes and guns and ships and tanks were ordered. First we were told by government that our comfortable way of living wouldn't have to be upset; that we could produce all we needed for defense in addition to normal peace-time production. Then we began to realize nothing could stand in the way of the manufacture of needed defense materials. New shifts were added to enable factories to function 24 hours a day and a priority ruling concerning basic materials for defense production was passed.

Today all over America people are working as they have never worked before. More than a million young men must follow the stringent rules of military training. Millions more are at work in the industrial plants of the counyrt—men who had been retired, who have just recently been trained. women who have special skill or aptitude as well as our vast "regular" army of skilled labor and management.

But even machines and armies, essential as they are, aren't all. There's the question of morale and thousands more of us must work to keep alive a burning belief in the American way of life. . . . Others must see to it that the boys in camp have places to go and things to do in their time off. Still others are occupied organizing the women of the country for home defense activity should that be needed.

It's a tense, busy, anxious time. But for anyone who can contribute to the common cause of the country there is something satisfying about it. We're all needed once more to revive the old spirit of America. That spirit, to quote Walter D. Fuller of the National Association of Manufacturers "which turned a wilderness into the greatest richest and happiest nation on earth . . . the spirit that guides the plowshares—that moves along the assembly line—that brings fuel from the ground—sends ships to sea and fills the sky with planes. This is the American industrial system, today keyed to a tempo never before known.

TOURISTS PROTECTION

Inspection of Michigan's 2,700 resorts is in full swing as county, district and state health departments join forces to protect the health of summer vacationists.

"Water and milk supplies, sewage, garbage and refuse disposal, food handling methods and bathing beaches are thoroughly inspected and where standards are met, large sanitation approved signs are posted," said Dr. H. Allen Moyer, state health commissioner. "This sign tells the tourist that the resort has health department approval. Look for the white metal signs iwth 'Sanitataion Approved, Michigan Department of Health' in big big black letters. It will be a good place to stop."

Resorts are divided into seven types by the Michigan Department of Health. These are: summer trailer camps, cabin camps, summer recreation camps, state county and township parks, amusement resort hotels and community resorts.

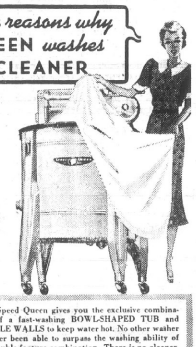
There are 2 main reasons why the SPEED QUEEN washes FASTER and CLEANER

1 The BOWL-SHAPED TUB
Rounded, bowl-shaped bottom eliminates corner "pockets" so that every drop of water is constantly at work. Employs "mixing bowl" principle for maximum water agitation.



2 DOUBLE WALLS
The Speed Queen has double walls which insulate the tub and keep the water piping hot through an entire washing. The last batch of clothes comes out as clean as the first. Outside wall also protects porcelain tub.

Only Speed Queen gives you the exclusive combination of a fast-washing BOWL-SHAPED TUB and DOUBLE WALLS to keep water hot. No other washer has ever been able to surpass the washing ability of this double-feature combination. There is no cleaner, faster washer than Speed Queen!

NEW BONUS OFFER ANNOUNCED, VOTES MOUNT IN BABYLAND REVUE

25,000 Extra Votes To Be Allowed On 'Clubs of Five' Until 9:00 P. M. Tuesday, July 8

NEW STARS RISING IN THE BABYLAND REVUE THIS WEEK

New stars have been rising to challenge the field for leadership during the past few days.

Anna Mae Pawson of Clinton continued the climb she started last week.

Sherry Ann Moore of Holloway bounced into Class "A" and a greatly improved position.

Gerald Munger of R. F. D. 1 Tecumseh zoomed up into Class "A" and tenth position.

Jane Ashley of Tecumseh also ascended to Class "A".

Phyllis Joanne Craig of RFD 1 Britton and Glenda Kay Pennington of Britton improved their standings to a marked degree.

Others, too, have swung into action during the past few days, and it is an interesting story of close and keen competition that is told by today's voting list!

Sixty-five candidates now are listed as "active" contenders for the loving cup and the cash prizes and commissions waiting for participants in the Babyland Revue. The prizes will be awarded to the ten who stand highest at the close of the contest on July 22 and all others will receive a cash commission, provided, of course, they remain active to the finish.

Twenty-one of these candidates appear today in Class "A" and these 21 are running "neck to neck", so close, in fact, that in many cases you could hardly get a sheet of paper between the positions they occupy.

Half a step behind are many additional candidates, some of these actually less than one subscription out of Class "A" and likely to break up the formation of the leading 21 and take over top places at any moment.

Almost overnight, the Babyland Revue has speeded up its tempo by 100 per cent, and suddenly blossomed out into a close, exciting thrilling competition. From now on it will be nip and tuck to see who will emerge the winners when the final count is made July 22.

When the contest passed the half way mark last Tuesday night, Earl Duaine Bilby of Macon had edged back into first place, and Tommy Tressler was crowding him hard as a very close second.

Vere LaRue Hart of Tecumseh was booming along in third, while Gayle Kay Swift had ascended to fourth.

Blanche Irene Potts, Tecumseh, was fifth; Diane Marie Socks, Tecumseh, sixth; John William Swanston, Tecumseh, seventh, and Thelma Blanche Strahle, RFD 1 Tecumseh, eighth.

Anna Mae Pawson, Clinton had jumped to ninth; Gerald Munger, RFD 1 Tecumseh, also had scored an advance to tenth; Bruce Edward Falk, Tecumseh, was eleventh, and Coreen Yvonne Marsh, RFD 2 Tecumseh, was twelfth.

Nancy Ann Dinse, RFD 1 Tecumseh, stood thirteenth; Mabel Marie Harrington, Tecumseh, fourteenth; Ruth Ann Bryan, Tecumseh, fifteenth.

Sherry Ann Moore, Holloway, had jumped into Class "A" and sixteenth position; Rita Kay Richardson, Tecumseh, was seventeenth; and Bonnie Jean Currier, Tecumseh, eighteenth.

Joan Mobley, RFD 1 Tecumseh held nineteenth place; Jane Ashley Tecumseh, was twentieth; and Catherine Ann Marsh, Tecumseh, twenty-first.

The entire Class "A" cotingent was packed in pretty tight and treading on their heels were numerous additional contenders who can easily bridge the gap and jump to leadership during the ensuing days.

The new bonus offer—25,000 extra votes on each "club of five" is now in effect, and offers an exceptional opportunity for sponsors to improve their tots' vote standings. This offer is short and snappy, lasting only until 9:00 p. m., July 8 Clubs are trumps while the 25,000 extra vote bonus is on.

COUPONS DISCONTINUED

At the suggestion of a number of sponsors and as previously stated in the first announcement of the vote schedule, the free 100 vote coupons are discontinued this week. Subscriptions are the major source of votes, and the contest now has reached the stage where sponsors will want to devote all their time to obtaining votes in the most effective way. And the most effective way is to concentrate on getting new and renewal subscriptions!

Following are the names and classifications of candidates compiled on the basis of reports received up to 9:00 p. m. last Tuesday night.

ATHLETIC PARK

for other events of the track meet, shot-put, high jump, broad jump, pole vault and other events.

Soft Ball Sponsored

One of the most popular of all sports outside of interscholastic games, is soft ball. Provision has been made in the plans for a soft ball diamond with home plate near the north end of the football gridiron.

The location of this field is chosen because it makes possible the lighting of softball games partially from the same poles as the football field.

It is planned to start an industrial and business mens' soft ball league. This league would play either twilight or night games depending upon the lighting. Since this diamond would be independent of the hardball diamond neither sport would tear up the infield for the other and a turf infield could be maintained.

For Future Athletics

"The kiddies have not been forgotten in the program," says Chairman Brown, "At the north end of the property we propose to construct a complete childrens playground. This will include such equipment as slides, swings, traveling ladders, a merry-go-round wading pool and sand boxes. This playground will be easily reached from James Street.

Other Sports

The layout includes provisions for many other sports and it is planned to add these as rapidly as there is demand and funds are forthcoming.

Four clay tennis courts are shown in the extreme northeast end of the field. This undoubtedly will be one of the early projects. Volley ball, Badminton and croquet courts are also planned in this section. A shuffle board may be constructed. "The committee," according to Mr. Brwn, "will welcome all suggestions as to sports that should be included in the plan and where sufficient interest is evident or leagues or tournaments are organized, we will do our best to provide the facilities."

Horseshoe and Quoit

In the northwestern part of the field quoit and horseshoe courts are planned and will undoubtedly be very popular. Archery has been located along the east bank, where there is little danger of people walking in front of the "bowsmen," and the "misses" will go into the hillside.

Outdoor Pool Included

No Recreation Center would be complete without an outdoor swimming pool. Tecumseh has been badly in need of a pool for many years. This project is a major item of expense when one considers all of the necessary purifying and filtering equipment and lighting so that it can be used at night. It is not included in the 1941-42 program but is a definite part of the completed plans of the Recreation Center.

At the end of Jamse street is a wooded section where it has been proposed to set up picnic tabels benches and outdoor fire places. This would make an ideal spot for picnic lunches and "potluck" gatherings without going outside of the village limits.

Advantage will be taken of the grandstand and bleachers together with the lighting of the football field to hold all types of evening entertainment for the community at the discretion of the control board.

Out door band concerts, pagents, home talent plays and many other forms of entertainment can be held in this natural amphetheatre. A moveable band shell and stage is shown in the artists sketch. The control board states that civic celebrations, holiday gatherings and mass meetings may be held on the field.

Supervised Play

It is planned to have the field in charge of a playground director whose duty it will be to supervise play, arrange and schedule athletic events and have general control over all of the various functions of the recreation center.

Obviously this program calls for the expenditure of a considerable amount of money and a great deal of work is involved in its completion. The control board will not hazard a guess as to when it may be completed. However, they do say that, if the community will get behind this movement they can complete a large part of the entire program in the next year.

Vacation School Will Give Program, Friday

rangement—55,000 votes!

Furthermore, it is not necessary to turn the entire "club" in at one time to get the bonus. Turn your subscriptions in as you get them. "Regular" votes will be issued on each subscription when received and then when you reach five years the additional 25,000 bonus votes also will be issued to you.

Note that, in computing the bonus a two-year subscription counts the same as two one-year subscriptions toward the "club of five," a three year subscription the same as three one-year subscriptions, etc. In fact, a five year subscription would constitute a club all by itself.

Race Is Very Close

Today's voting list, on another page, tells a very interesting story. Note how close and exciting the competition has become. Practically the entire field is running very close together, with not merely one but several of them separated by LESS than the number of votes allowed on one subscription.

Right now, it certainly looks like "anybody's ball game," and it emphasizes more than ever the fact that the outcome is greatly in doubt, with results depending upon the efforts put forth by sponsors during the coming days.

Sponsors have only 12 more days in which to gather subscriptions under the second bonus. This bonus offering as it does 25,000 EXTRA votes on each club of five yearly subscriptions or their equivalent, provides the opportunity for any entrant to forge ahead rapidly In fact ANY entrant can completely reverse the field and gain the lead with just a few hours of intensive effort. That is how important the second bonus really is, and how necessary it has become for every wide-awake sponsor to take advantage of it.

ANNOUNCING
Second Vote Bonus

Effective At Once And Lasting Until 9:00 P. M. July 8

25,000 - EXTRA VOTES - 25,000

Will Be Allowed On Each "Club" Or Accumulation Of Subscriptions Adding Up To Five Years!

HOW THIS BONUS WORKS: On every "club" or group of subscriptions adding up to five years, you will receive 25,000 EXTRA bonus votes. This bonus is in addition to the "regular" votes allowed on each subscrption.

FOR EXAMPLE: You receive 5,000 "regular" votes on each yearly subscription you turn in. Five of these would give you 25,000 "regular" votes. Also, since this combination would add up to five years, it like wise would entitle you to the 25,000 vote bonus. Total votes allowed for this arrangement—50,000!

ANOTHER EXAMPLE: You receive 15,000 'regular' votes on a two-year subscription and 30,000 votes on a three-year subscription, or altogether 45,000 "regular" votes. This adds up to five years, therefore would be a club, and entitle you to the 25,000 bonus. Total votes on this arrangement—70,000!

Just remember that you get the same number of "regular" votes as always on each individual subscription, and then 25,000 extra votes as soon as your total reaches five years.

Also, it is not necessary to turn in the entire "club of five" at one time to get the bonus. Turn your subscriptions in as you get them; when you do this you will receive the correct number of "regular" votes, and then the bonus will be issued to you when your total reaches five years.

Leader Who Called Ford Plant Strike A Former Prisoner

Declaring that there is no more sincere or patriotic a group of men in the nation than the American working man, and that there is much to be said on both sides of the country's strike situation, Everett De Ryke, publisher of the Milan Leader and a member of the Michigan Defense Council addressed members of the Rotary club following noon-day luncheon at the parish house of St. Peter's Episcopal church here, Tuesday.

"It is my judgement," Mr. De Ryke said, "that the American workingman is being misled and misguided. And sooner or later," he continued, "he will find it necessary to pull loose from the leaders of the groups who would exploit him for their own interests."

Referring to the recent labor trouble at the Ford Motor Company's plant, De Ryke said that it is a well known fact that the man who called the strike at Ford's had previously served time in federal prison as a draft evador during the first World War.

"I doubt very much," he said, "if this man, who never worked in a shop a day in his life, had the interest of the nation or of the workingman at heart when he ordered the walk-out."

De Ryke outlined the work of the Michigan Defense Council, told of how Michigan is the nation's arsenal, and declared that this section of the state already is playing an important role in the world's defense program.

49 TRAFFIC DEATHS OVER THE MEMORIAL DAY WEEK END WERE too many PLAY SAFE JULY 4

LANSING June 26—The most intensive campaign ever undertaken in Michigan to halt the ever-mounting toll of traffic deaths was started today following Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner's proclamation designating the Independence Day weekend as "Michigan Safe Driving Days."

Heading the drive, aimed directly at curbing fatal accidents over the Fourth of July three-day holiday, are the Michigan state highway department, department of public instruction, and department of state.

The departments participating are represented in the newly created State Safety Commission which will start operating July 1.

Forty-nine persons were killed on Michigan streets and highways over the recent Memorial Day holiday period. Unless drastic steps are taken it is feared this number will be surpassed over the Fourth.

To prevent this from happening and in a determined effort to save as many human lives as possible every means at making Michigan's highways and streets safe will be taken, leaders of the campaign declared.

Michigan's motoring public was urged to cooperate in this drive so that there will not be a repetition of the 49 deaths that were recorded after our last national holiday.

U. S. O. DRIVE OVER THE TOP

$910.41 SUBSCRIBED HERE; QUOTA $700; MANY $10 AND $5 GIFTS.

With $910.41 already subscribed by the citizens of Tecumseh, their quota of $700.00 for the United Service Organizations is over the top by 30 per cent. This figure represents giving principally by those living within the village proper, as no organized drive for funds was carried on in the rural section of the township.

According to Perry Hayden, general chairman of the Tecumseh drive one unique feature of this drive which was responsible for its success was the use of an envelope as suggested by F. C. Hanna, of the executive committee.

The name and address of prospective donors were typed across an envelope, printed especially for this drive, upon which was later filled in the amount of their gift. These envelopes will be retained to serve as a card of those giving.

Although no pressure was brought to bear for large gifts, there was one gift for $50, three for $10 each, thirty-seven for $5, thirty for $3 each, and 115 for $1 each. The Tecumseh Produce Union made a gift of $125 and the employees of the Carson Foundry a gift of $14.21 Members of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church subscribed $30. For the most part, however, the unit or giving was the individual. Approximately 400 individual gifts were recorded by Mrs. Jenny Law Hardy, treasurer.

The executive committee for the Tecumseh drive consisted of Mrs. Pearl Elliott, Mrs Jenny Law Hardy D. J. Carson, Richard Roe, Lester Rogers, F. C. Hanna, and Perry Hayden. Team captains for house to house solicitation were Mrs. Sam Sisson, and Mrs. John R. Thompson. Laison officers working with Holloway, Tipton, Ridgeway and Britton were Glenn Driscoll, Dan Corkery, and A. B. Harding.

The committee publicity thanked those who subscribed, and states that Mrs. Hardy is still accepting gifts. The total administrative cost for raising the $910.41 was $13.48.

Food Prices To Be Higher

INFLATIONARY TENDENCIES ALREADY HAVE APPEARED CROPS MAY BE SHORTENED.

LANSING June 26—Unless present signs are wrong, Michigan consumers will pay higher food prices next fall and winter. Here are the reasons:

1. Our undeclared war, inducting thousands of young men into military service, has created a temporary labor shortage on Michigan farms.

2. Lacking even unskilled help to plant and to harvest crops many Michigan growers are reducing their acreages.

3. Inflationary tendencies have already appeared, bringing a spurt in consumer purchase. Government purchases of canned tomatoes, for example, have depleted holdover stocks. One wholesaler grocer reports that he has been trying in vain for 45 days to get a tomato juice shipment from a well-known Indiana packer.

"A large grocer recently came to my office and laid down a roll of 30 bills, each $100 in denomination," he related before the Michigan Food Council last week. "I couldn't promise dilivery on his order. I couldn't even guarantee prices. It's the screwiest market I've ever seen."

The above reasons are not limited to Michigan. They appear to be fairly genral.

Leo V. Card, state commissioner of agriculture, gave an inkling of how the farm labor shortage is going to affect certain commodities when he said:

"I'm looking for a beet sugar acreage reduction in Michigan of perhaps one-third under last year's due solely to the inability of many growers to get labor. Production restrictions for beet sugar were revised recently in order to assure a larger harvest. But you can't grow more food until you can get the labor. Michigan just doesn't have it."

Another clue to the threat of rising food prices is a consumer apprehension that the government will institute priorities even for food.

When the housewife goes to market, she buys six cans of food instead of three; a dozen instead of a half dozen; a case instead of a dozen.

After the British declared war on Germany in September of 1939 Michigan housewives started a "run" on sugar, despite the fact that warehouses were bulging with it. Prices started climbing unnecessarily in response to the voracious buying spree.

Fear for higher prices, rather than an actual scarcity of goods, has tended to stimulate existing inflationary tendencies of today's market. According to Business Week, this unusual buying upsurge may provoke a dip in business in the fall. Building of inventories can't go on indefinitely.

If the 1941 summer is wet again, such as was the 1940 season, Michigan potatoes will need more than just grading to attract quality buyers.

In fact, Michigan spuds suffered last winter in competition with quality products from Maine and Idaho chiefly because the rains came at the wrong time. Many potatoes grew with large holes in the center; they wouldn't "hold up" in storage. Thousands of bushels were lost by rotting.

Like the art of horticulture, culture of potatoes requires spraying at the right times. But the weather is all-important.

For that reason the state's efforts to standardize Michigan food products by grading and packaging, prior to state advertising in out-state markets, have been only partly successful. Marketing leaders are more convinced that Michigan growers must be sold first on the merit of scientific culture, inspected grading and uniform packaging before food advertising can really get results for them.

The opening of the Erie canal in 1825 brought many immigrants from the East in quest of Michigan farm land.

Southern counties were first homesteaded.

In 1841, just 100 years ago, wheat was the leading crop in Michigan and it was selling for 70 cents a bushel for a total value of more than $2,000,000.

Other field crops of importance seedclover hay, vegetables and were Indian corn, oats, barley, potatoes. Maple sap was favored for conversion into sugar.

Large quantities of fruit—apples peaches, berries—were shipped from the fringe of farming country along Lake Michigan from near the mouth of the St. Joseph river to Grand Traverse bay.

One effect of the depression was a shift in Michigan agriculture from grain to livestock farming.

The 1937 returns, for example, show an income from farm products of $246,000,000. Governmental benefits comprised less than 3 per cent. However, livestock and livestock products represented nearly 58 per cent.

The 1940 census listed 187,589 farms in Michigan, an increase of 10.8 per cent over the number listed in 1930. The total acreage used for farming, however, is only slightly more than it was in 1930. Tractors are gradually taking the place of horses, and the 1941 shortage of farm labor may speed up this trend towards robotized farms.

It is in the increase of livestock that the picture has changed most. Here are the 1940 census facts:

Horses and colts ..	344,475		381,357
Mules, mule colts	7,212		6,490
cattle	1,540,768		1,287,525
cows and heifers 2 years old and over	968,764	737	796
Cows, heifers milked ..	868,853		746,104
Sheep and lambs ..	857,232		1,020,967
Hogs and pigs	585,993		374,180
Chickens...	10,023,267		10,379,714

While two persons live in Michigan cities and towns for every person on a Michigan farm, the state occupies a unique place in the nation's agriculture. In the number of acreages under cultivation, Michigan ranks 26th among the states. Yet only two of its field crops fall below tenth place.

We are first in cherry, peppermint, and spearmint crops.

We are second for strawberries, celery, onions, cantaloupes and field beans.

In a state whose resources are varied as they are in Michigan—copper, iron, coal, oil, salt, gypsum, wood for manufacturing and paper pulp, and 5,000 lakes for a tourist's paradise—access to food is of great importance to consumers. Again, Michigan is richly blessed.

'SPEED UP' IS CONTEST SLOGAN

VOTES DROP AGAIN TUESDAY NIGHT AS BONUS OFFER ENDS

Only Five Days Left of Extra 25,000 Votes on "Clubs of Five"; Sealed Ballot Box to Start Wednesday; Finals in Babyland Rveue Set for 2 p. m. July 22.

The lines of the Babyland Revue are converging toward the day when the ballots will be counted the prizes will be awarded, and the loving cup and title of the Tecumseh area's Personality Baby will be conferred on some fine little girl or boy.

The second bonus offer of 25,000 extra votes on each "club of five" expires next Tuesday night at nine. This is the biggest remaining vote bonus of the contest. The sealed ballot box will go into effect immediately thereafter. The Babyland Revue will END, definitely and finally, at 2 p. m., July 22.

As the Babyland Revue proceeds merrily on its way, it becomes more and more apparent that the competition is close indeed, and that none of the sponsors can afford to rest on their laurels. Under the present bonus offer, just a few hours activity will result in a sizeable total of votes for any candidate. This column presents the alert sponsor with a splendid opportunity to put his favorite tot in a commanding position without further delay. No sponsor should overlook this opportunity.

When you succeed in making one of those subscription "clubs" early don't sit down and congratulate yourself, instead, go out after another club. You have five full days in which to obtain the benefits of this second bonus. This should be ample time to make two or more additional clubs, over what you already have turned in.

Let's Get Going

There is an old adage—"Anything worth doing is worth doing well," and never before has this saying needed emphasis more than right now.

Your baby's interests in this contest depend upon best efforts, and your reward will be exactly in proportion to what you do from now on.

The substantial cash prizes — 10 of them, headed by $125.00 in cash —plus the beautiful loving cup— are well worth working for. The distinction of being selected as the Tecumseh area's "Personality Baby" is an honor that will be cherished throughout a lifetime by the tot who wins it.

If you have been a little lax in the support of your baby thus far make up your mind to remedy the situation without further delay. Make up your mind that, from now on, you will do your level best. If you will make this decision and stick to it victory and honor will be yours.

Extension Subscriptions

If any person gave you a subscription earlier in the Babyland Revue and now gives you a further extension of this same subscription for the same baby this second payment is known as an "extension."

Any subscription turned in for a baby and later extended for the same baby will earn the same "regular" votes as though the ful subscription had been turned in at first. Thus a three year extension on an original payment for one year would count 45,000 "regular" votes while a straight three-year subscription would count but 30,000 votes. A four-year extension on an original payment for one year would count 70,000 "regular" votes. In addition to the "regular" votes these same subscriptions would help to make up clubs on which additional bonus votes are allowed. Make sure you understand about "extensions" how to mark the stubs for them, and how they count.

Now remember there are just five days left in the second bonus period — five days in which you may take advantage of the 25,000 vote bonus. During this time, every club of subscriptions added up to five years will earn 25,000 extra votes. Ten yearly subscriptions, (two clubs) would, for example, give you a total of 100,000 votes, figuring both regular and bonus counts.

Make this week your biggest week. Fail to come under the wire next Tuesday night with plenty of subscriptions—and |we DO mean YOU!

Rotary Seats New Officers

WILLIAM J. BRUCE BECOMES PRESIDENT; PUERTO RICAN GIRL SPEAKER

Officers-elect of the Tecumseh Rotary Club were seated on Tuesday when William J. Bruce became president of the club, succeeding Ernest M. Campbell, who had rounded out a year's term in the office. S. Henry Smith is the club's vice-president, Wade L. Jones, secretary, and Lester Rogers, treasurer.

Little formality marked the transfer of the gavel from Mr. Campbell to Mr. Bruce, and the new president announced that he would make his committee appointments public at next Tuesday's meeting. The club met this week in the parish house of St. Peter's Episcopal church and the luncheon was served by the Daughters of St. Peter.

Consuela Rodriguez of Santurce, Puerto Rico, a Spanish instructor in a girls' school there and who is here on vacation with Miss Ruth Harding, a Tecumseh resident who also is teaching there, was the guest speaker, and Miss Harding was the club's guest.

Briefly, Miss Rodriguez told of the national defense work that is being carried out on the island by the United States, and pointed out that Puerto Rico is on the direct route from the war-torn European continent to the Panama Canal. Airport and naval base expenditures on the island, she said, may total $150,000,000 or more.

Puerto Rico is grateful to the United States for its protection and guidance, the speaker said, but she also pointed out that there is an undercurrent of unrest and disloyalty among certain younger groups. She expressed the opinion, however, that should a showdown come, and a test be made, Puerto Rico would stand squarely behind the United States, and oppose further aggression on the part of Hitler.

Combustion Is Blamed In Ridgeway Farm Fire

Two barns and a corn crib on the H. C. Dibble farm south of Ridgeway, occupied by Chas. J. Anspach Jr., were destroyed by fire early last Thursday morning. Horses were removed from the barn and a number of farm tools were lost.

One barn had just been filled with hay and it is thought the fire started from spontaneous combustion.

The Ridgeway fire department answered the alarm and prevented the fire from spreading to other buildings. The fire in the barn was beyond control when the truck arrived.

The loss is partly covered by insurance.

British Major Writes of War

ASKS UNITED STATES TO KEEP ON PASSING AMMUNITION AND SUPPLIES

"You people keep busy passing us up the shells—we'll fire them all right, thumbs up!"

That sentence closes a letter to Frank E. Sutton of Tecumseh, from Phillip Hammond of Morston Holt, Norfolk, England, in which the Britisher tells his friend of World War days something about what is happening on the Island since the bombings by Hilter's forces.

Hammond a major in the Britsh Army during the first World War, is a close friend of Mr. Sutton, who was a captain in the United States Army during World War No. 1. Sutton and Hammond met in England when the former went there to study heavy armored tanks and cars.

Hammond's letters to Mr. Sutton follows:

"I don't know if you ever got my last letter or if you'll ever get this. We are still carrying on as usual taking knock after knock and still coming for more. We shall do it in the end, never fear. It may take a long time but I have never known our people so solid (nor indeed so angry). We recognize that everything of beauty, value and culture will probably be destroyed and our children killed but we are sticking till the tide turns. The Home Guard would be an eye opener to you. The government asked for volunteers expecting that they would get a certain number true, but not expecting a million and half to turn out without hesitation. I got 500 men in 36 hours, two types 1st old hands from all wars of the past 40 years and regular soldiers just calling up age, and 2nd all the boys, lords of them even to be on duty all night after

From Canada's Viewpoint The U. S. Is Now at War

By Gene Alleman

LANSING July 3—Well, folks, we're in the war!

I had to go Canada to find it out. For the past eight days I have been touring Old Ontario from Toronto to North Bay and from Ottawa, the dominion's capital, to Niagara Falls, as guest of Canadian newspapers and the Province of Ontario.

While the junket was for tourist promotion rather than for war propaganda, the latter persistently bobbed up in speeches given by host officials at luncheons and dinners.

American editors heard Premier Hepburn at Toronto and J. L. Ralston, dominion minister of national defense, at Ottawa. It can be stated without contradiction that Canada looks to the United States not only as a friendly neighbor but as an ally in what the British Empire grimly regards to be our common "fight for freedom."

"Slow Motion Dive"

A newspaper editor at Midland, Ontario, aptly phrased the American position by the following simile:

"You have left the diving board, but you haven't yet reached the water. As a dive into war, it is the world's slowest motion plunge in history."

It merely reflects an acceptance without qualification of President Roosevelt's latest fireside chat.

The President's picture appears beside the picture of Winston Churchill on highway bilboards promoting sale of Canadian Victory Bonds. At Toronto Wendell Willkie was accorded a welcome which exceeded in popular enthusiasm the organized reception given to the King and Queen. Dorothy Thompson, the American newspaper columnist enjoys a fanatical following Walter Lippman is well liked.

Canada in Clover

Now for some clear-cut impressions of Canada.

First, the dominion is enjoying a boom. Industrial production increased more than 25 per cent in 1940 over 1939, and Canadian arms plants are now turning out guns,

Carson Foundry Sold to Bruce

FORMER CYCLONE SUPERINTENDENT PURCHASES ASSETS OF WELL-KNOWN CONCERN.

William J. Bruce, for five years superintendent of the Cyclone Fence Company's plant here, announced today that he had purchased the buildings, equipment and assets of the Carson Foundry & Manufacturing Company, effective as of July 1, and that he would continue the operation of the company under the same firm name. D. J. Carson, former owner, who organized the company about seven years ago, will remain with Mr. Bruce temporarily as sales manager.

The foundry now employs some 34 people and has an enviable record in the field for fine grey iron castings. It holds several large contracts, and also does custom work. James Hickey is the plant superintendent.

"The Carson foundry, formerly the Heesen Bros. Foundry, is well known throughout this section for its work," Mr. Bruce said in making the announcement. "We plan to install new equipment, to improve the plant, and to enter new fields that will, we hope, materially increase our volume."

Mr. Bruce, in the new organization, is president and general manager of the company. Glenn L. Williams is vice-president, and other officers and directors will be named within a short time, the new owner said.

Before coming to Tecumseh to direct the affairs of the Cyclone plant, Mr. Bruce was for eight years superintendent of a similar plant in Greensburg, Indiana. Last week, it was announced that the local plant of the Cyclone company would be closed, and that machinery is being moved to DeKalb, Ill., to be merged with a Cyclone mill in that city. Transfers in employment to many of the 65 persons employed in the local plant, to the DeKalb plant, were offered by the company, and many already have been accepted.

"Mrs. Bruce and myself are very happy to know that we are to be able to remain in Tecumseh rather than to accept a transfer elsewhere," Bruce said. "We like Tecumseh and its people very much and it was because of this fact that we decided to enter business here rather than move elsewhere."

Mr. Bruce will remain on the Cyclone payroll until August 1, winding up the affairs of the company here, pending the closing of the plant. He will, however, divide his time for the next 30 days between the two offices in an effort to step up immediately the production of his new enterprise.

Products Union Gives $500 To Aid Fund Drive

UNSOLICITED CONTRIBUTION FIRST IN RECREATIONAL CAMPAIGN FOR $13,000

An unsolicited gift for $500 from the Tecumseh Products Union was announced today as the initial donation in the 1941 drive for $13,000 to equip the new Tecumseh Recreation Center. Several other large gifts have been made, but the donors have requested that their names not be mentioned.

Thus a dream of years is beginning to materialize, as Tecumseh's natural amphitheatre, across the road from historic St. Peter's Episcopal Church, is being converted from a cornfield into a character building recreation center under the enthusiastic direction of a citizen's committee, headed by Curtis M. Brown.

Thus, Mr. Brown a comparative newcomer to Tecumseh, is helping to forge a link with one of Tecumseh's earliest settlers, Musgrove Evans, after whom the creek is named that serves as the northern boundary of the recreation field.

"We are gratified at the generous response being shown by Tecumseh in this splendid enterprise" said Mr. Brown. "We have felt that the cause was worthy, and now we know that the public feels the same way."

"Just as the horse and buggy gave way to the motor car, and as the sand-lot rugby team vanished in favor of organized football, so today the wide-awake community is finding it necessary to operate supervised recreational centers for both young and old, if it is to keep its residents happy and contented," a member of the committee said today. "The town or city of tomorrow without a recreation center, will be like the community today without a parking lot. It is something that this changing picture of social life is demanding—something that we must consider if we are to progress as other communities are progressing.

"Tecumseh, to be sure may feel happy with the location of its new recreation park. Located within half a block of the high school, and within three blocks of the downtown district, it is easily accessible. Too, it is a natural amphitheatre, a site that is the envy of almost every other community."

Much credit for the early pioneering in this project, must go to Superintendent W. L. Kenney and to John Larsen a member of the school board. Unselfishly they have probably done more to lay a solid foundation for the "center" than any other two citizens, and the drive committee expresses its appreciation.

To settle any doubt as to the certainty of Tecumseh having a new recreation center, attention is directed to the fact that already nearly $12,000 has been invested by the school board in the purchase of the property and grading. Charles Patterson, secretary of the board, reports that the expenditures total $11,642.30. Of this amount, $6,200 was for the property, and $5,442.30 for surveying and taking levels, grading, leveling and tiling, seed, drain tile, and for moving buildings.

A bond issue for $6,000 was approved by the tax payers of the district, representing a one mill tax for four years. A reduction of $1,500 is to be made annually in 1942, 1943, 1944 and 1945, so that there will be no indebtedness after four years.

A drive for voluntary donations for $13,000 is being planned for the last two weeks in July, under the direction of Karl M. Schneider, as chairman. The Board of Control, consisting of C. M. Brown, chairman, Claude Smith, O. J. Winter, John Larsen, Wm. Britton and Albert Bagshaw, has been advised by the field erection and lay out committee that $13,000 more will be needed for the following individual projects: Football field completion; locker and dressing rooms lights for football and softball field, grounds improvement and care fence, sanitary provisions for spectators, playground equipment tennis courts, and for further dirt removal This amount may be reduced by work contributed by merchandise and equipment discounts, it was pointed out.

TODAY'S BUSINESS LEADERS

What has brought America's present leaders of industry to the top of the business ladder?

B. C. Forbes, well-known business writer, sought the answer to this question from 67 of this country's present crop of industrial heads. The answers varied in individual cases, of course, but there were certain very well-defined threads running through most of them.

Most of all, it is observable from Mr. Forbes' findings, which were published recently in Forbes Magazine, that the average business leader of today wasn't merely content to wait until opportunity came knocking on his door. He went looking for opportunity and prepared himself to recognize it when it did arrive!

The author found that education played a tremendous role in helping most of these men towards success. The majority supplemented their formal education and their "school of hard knocks" training by taking special courses. They were united in believing that the opportunities in this country were great if you worked to take advantage of them.

Mr. Forbes lists some of the other distinctive characteristics and beliefs of these men: eagerness to learn as much as possible about the work they were doing readiness to accept financial sacrifice if it was necessary to gain a potentially greater opportunity, a keen interest in human nature and an aptitude for getting along with co-workers, and recognition of the fact that less important aims must be subordinated to mastery of all phases of the job in hand.

The composite picture of these men is an encouraging one for those interested in continued national progress. All our national history has showed America moving forward as its industries moved ahead and here is leadership that has trained itself well in order to guide industry on its way!

ATTACKING OUR INCENTIVES

Various poisoners of public opinion have for many years directed their attack at the word "profits," and now, in the present defense emergency, they would like to reap the results of their poisoning if they could possibly get away with it. The only way in which they can be thwarted in this aim is for public to look at the real facts of the case, and refuse to listen to baseless allegations.

Our system is called a profit system, but the definition is incomplete. Actually it is a profit-or-loss system, in which individuals start enterprises because they know is a fair chance of success. But these enterprises, which mean new jobs and new payrolls for others, aren't guaranteed success; as a matter of fact, there hasn't been a year since 1929 in which more than two out of five corporations made money!

Now, in connection with defense, thoughtless folk are pointing to stories of "hundred per cent increases" in profits over previous years. They forget that a jump from a 1 per cent return on investment to a 2 per cent return fits that "hundred per cent increase" definition, but still doesn't take profits up to "prosperity" levels.

The attack on the profit motive is part of a far-broader attempt to undermine the system of life we have in this country. Certainly profits should not be allowed to reach unreasonable levels — and present and future taxes will undoubtedly prevent that from happening! But the citizens of the United States should be chary of letting a few shouters voicing plain inaccuracies destroy their faith in the incentive that has led to our present jobs, payrolls, wealth of new products, and our vast industries that today are building the equipment for the nation's defense.

SECOND BONUS ENDS TUESDAY EVENING, LAST LAP STARTS WEDNESDAY

25,000 Extra Vote Offer Expires at 9 P. M. July 8; Climax of Contest Draws Nearer

At 9:00 o'clock next Tuesday night July 8 the second bonus offer will end, and again the votes will drop.

Sponsors have just five more days to take advantage of this second bonus offer—25,000 extra votes on each "club of five"—and the wise ones WILL take advantage of it.

Immediately following the close of this bonus offer, the sealed ballot box will go into effect, and the Babyland Revue candidates will start on the final whirlwind dash to determine who will win the loving cup and the 10 cash awards.

The END of the contest and the final count have been set for 2 o'clock on the afternoon of July 22.

Obviously, the last lap will be by far the most interesting and productive of the three periods in the contest. But ambitious entrants can make sure of getting a head start in the last lap by piling up as many votes as possible before next Tuesday night. The more votes you get before the second bonus ends this coming Tuesday the fewer you will have to get afterward to romp home a winner.

Only minor changes from last week's relative standings are noted in the voting list this week, and positions are just as close as before in most cases. And here is how they line up today, with the end of the second bonus coming next Tuesday night, and the third and final dash scheduled to start Wednesday:

14. Mabel Marie Harrington
15. Ruth Ann Bryan

These are the Class "A" contenders today, and once again there are numerous other candidates just a few votes down the ladder who easily can, and in many instances no doubt will, rise to the top bracket and land among the prize winners during the ensuing days.

Incidentally this is the last time relative positions of the various candidates will be published. Starting next week, classifications only will be given. From then on, the race will be run "blind" to the finish.

Warning—Contestants must remain active in the contest to the finish in order to qualify for prizes and commissions. Those who drop out before the finish automatically disqualify themselves.

FROM CANADA'S

shells, and tanks. The gasoline tax was increased recently to 11 cents; the dominion excise tax (a hidden sales tax) is 8 cents.

The second bond loan was oversubscribed in June by more than 100 millions.

Canadians have money. They are spending it. (World War figures: Industrial output soared from 69 millions in 1913 to 489 millions in 1917, mostly in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec; agriculture, 127 to 384 millions.)

Loyal to King

Second, Canada is loyal to the empire and its symbol—the King—in support of the war.

I visited Camp Borden, largest of the dominion's military centers, where 1100 men are being trained for overseas air service. Army troops, including armored units, number around 12,000 men.

I talked with two Norwegian flyers who are helping to train Norwegian refugees for overseas combat duty.

From the dominion's minister of national defense, a quiet-speaking square-jawed individual, I learned that Canada's belated rearming has resulted in sending 80,000 men to England—70,000 in the army and 10,000 in the navy and air force, while 1941 commitments are three divisions and replacement troops

These men have been—or will be—fully equipped by Canadians at their own expense.

A few Canadian divisions may be only driblets in contrast to the Nazi flood estimated at 260 divisions. Yet Canada had only 10,500 men under arms when Hitler invaded Poland and England formally declared war. Like us they were unprepared.

Friendly to U. S.

This current European mess is doing things to Canada.

And here you run into strange situations.

Canadians seem to be intensely loyal to the empire, yet they have become increasingly friendly with the United States. Economically, Canada is a part of us. Socially, they have more in common with us than with the British. Politically they are a part of the umpire—one of the units in the British Commonwealth of Nations, that loosely drawn system that holds together the outlying possessions ruled with traditional diplomacy from Downing street, London.

One Canadian newspaperman, born in England made this surprising statement.

"After all this is over, I hope we will be one country together."

Thinking of the English speaking union plan, I asked him, "Well, how about the King and the titled nobility? Where would they fit into the picture?"

He replied with candor: "They are symbols that are losing much of their traditional meaning. We are having more democracy today than ever before, and we like it. Many Canadians would like to see Canada someday part of the United States."

French Canadians

Everywhere in the province I heard critical comments of the French Canadians because of their alleged lukewarm interest in Canada's war effort and of Prime Minister McKenzie King's alleged disposition to temporize with them because of political reasons.

Both criticisms may be unjustified. But there seems to be some ground for them in the fact that Canada's federal parliament at Ottawa has not enacted military conscription for overseas duty.

Home conscription exists in a half-hearted fashion, young men being trained for periods of four months only.

Three-fourths of the inhabitants of the Province of Quebec are fo French descent—or French Canadians as we know them. They number three millions out of around eleven million, a force to be reckoned with. Tens of thousands cannot speak English at all.

The Canadian attitude exists that the French citizens of Canada are indifferent to the cause of the empire. Yet these same people are fanatically loyal to Canada itself, their adopted homeland.

The Canadian Effort

In summary, I believe that the following observations are true:

1. Canada is giving more in men and dollars for war than we Americans are for national defense. Their armed force of 250,000 men is an equivalent of 2,750,000 men in the United States. Her spending is on a colossal scale—so much so that one government official said, "We are getting fairly billions talking about billions."

2. Canada recognizes an economic dependence upon the United States. This relationship has been apparently accentuated by events of the past year.

3. Canada is anxious to have the friendship and patronage of the United States.

4. Canadian leaders apparently are confident that we are becoming their allies.

"Good Yankee Talk"

Witness this statement in an editorial from the Ottawa Citizen, a liberal daily:

"There can no longer be doubt about it. President Farnklin Roosevelt is taking the United States into war against Germany."

Again, this excerpt from the same editorial:

"When Mr. Roosevelt some weeks ago proclaimed the Red Sea open to United States shipping, Germany said that any United States ships appearing in the Red Sea would be sent to the bottom. Well, there are 25 United States ships on their way to the Red Sea now, or in the Red Sea; 25 United States ships carrying war supplies for General Wavell's armies. If Germany should sink any one of them, or fire on any one of them, there can be no doubt over what will be the answer of Mr. Roosevelt. His answer will be war—shooting war. Soon or later, that is coming anyway."

That is why, ladies and gentlemen, we're in the war—like it or not.

Such is reality as we found it in Canada.

The village of Britton long has been noted for its pretty girls, and little Glenda Kay Pennington is no exception to the rule. With blue eyes, light brown curls, and a winning personality, she is a favorite in her home community. Glenda Kay, aged 16 months, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pennington, Britton, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pennington, Macon, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hehmke, Hawkeye, Iowa. She is moving ahead in the Babyland Revue, and already is in sight of the big awards.

Blanche Irene Potts is the personification of childish charm. She has sparkling blue eyes, brown hair, and is a real little belle. Blanche Irene is two years old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Potts, Tecumseh. Grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dowling and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Potts, all of Adrian. As one of the leading contenders in the Babyland Revue, Blanche Irene's picture has been awaited with keen interest and will be enthusiastically received by her numerous admirers.

Happy over her improved showing in the Babyland Revue is Lois Ann Wilt, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilt of Tecumseh. Lois Ann has blue eyes and blonde hair, and she is a genial and attractive young lady whose picture will please many friends interested in her progress. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Newton Easton of RFD No. 3 Tecumseh, and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Wilt of Blissfield. This progress of this little candidate will be well worth watching during the closing days of the prize competition.

A new and welcome addition to the Babyland Revue album is this photo of Diane Marie Socks, who is one of the headliners in the current voting list. Diane Marie has blue eyes and brown hair, and is the captivating nine-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ormand Sacks of Tecumseh. Gandpaents are Mrs. Rose Service and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Socks, all of Tecumseh. An important group of boosters are cheering this popular tot on to success.

Williams of Macon and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schneider of Riga. This eight-months-old lad, a fine, robust little citizen who is just as keen mentally as he is active physically, makes an interesting subject for the camera and he is in the limelight right now because of the recent advance in his vote standing.

BRITISH MAJOR

working all day, unpaid volubteers, only a small subsistance allowance for tea and tobacco, the latter being very short, too. For months they had nothing but any old rifle and some ammunition, not a spare dry pair of boots or any thing and they groused like hell like the English do but did it just the same.

Now we have .30 cal. U. S. Army rifles and .30 cal. Lewis guns for most every one. There are two things that we are desperately short of where you might be able to help. One is field glasses, any old binoculars would be of great value. Have you any friends who have laid away an old .45 or .38 revolver? No automatics or other sizes are of any use as we cant get ammunition and cant import it. We cant offer to pay for it because we have no money for any thing and can not send it out of the country if we had it. I want to try the experiment and see if the thing gets through customs, etc. If someone will give you an old pair of glasses or a pistol put one in a parcel to come by post with a label tied on the thing itself saying! A Gift to No. 2 Company 4th Battalion Home Guard from (name and address) Address the parcel to Care of No. 2 Company, 4th Battalion, Home Guard Morston Holt Norfolk England.

Do not put my name on it as it would stand a better chance of getting through the customs addressed to the unit and only put one article in a parcel. If we lose it we lose it and thats that so don't send anything valuable at first till we know it will come through. We don't know how old or shabby the pistols are but no other sizes are any use. On no account try to send ammunition. Old single action Colts of 1880 would be most welcome and if this bloody hun comes here we know what to do with them.

We have a certain amount of bombing and machine gun fire but of course it is much worse in the big ports and some towns. It is most wonderful how few people are killed when you see what happens to the houses. My small children hardly wake up for them now and then just go to sleep again. The children are not frightened if the mothers are not.

Keep Thumbs Up

Things are going strong this side and we are all up to our chins in it. The bombing has been a nusiance locally; certain historic buildings have been destroyed, of course. If it was not for the poor people with their little homes and bits of furniture being lost, I don't see why we should shed tears over the Hun doing for us what we have spent 50 years trying to do for ourselves, that is, wipe out the slum property.

The way the real cockney and English as a whole have stuck it has been an eye opener to everyone. Of course, the people who lost their heads at first and filled trains trying to escape were the German, Italian, Russian, Polish Jews. Personally I can't see they matter much, but the real English are still on the job and very angry too. The women angrier than I have ever see them.

A great many bombs of all sorts are thrown down all over the country. They do remarkably little harm and no one takes much interest in them unless they happen to come too close. Any child can put out an incendiary if it does it at once. Of course, we are all on rations for everything and it doesn't hurt anyone. We are better fed at present than we were in the last war. I don't say I wouldn't like to sit down and try and eat a pound of ham but I can do quite well on what I get.

You would have appreciated the Dunkirk episode. Without any yapping it was a wonderful show. When you think that we had suffered a real knockout and lost every dam thing we had, to have gone over there and fetched all those thousands away was really rather wonderful. The message from the Admiralty for all sorts of boats came over the wireless and all of our big local boats, 26 ft —30 ft., filled up with gas and went off just as they were. They had to get to London River from 150 miles before going over. Half way over there was no doubt about where you were going as you could see Dunkirk blazing to heaven in a great glow. God Almighty backed us to the limit by giving us the most wonderful weather, with no sea on the beach, and the chaps simply waded off and piled in. Then the boats took off the load to the nearest ship and went back for more. Some of the small open boats came home right across with men lying packed in them like salt fish. After all this loss we have not yet in a year and a half of war lost half the men we lost, dead and wounded, the first day of the Battle of Somme in 1916. The loss of stores and materials was of course very great and it has been a desperate job getting fitted out again but thanks to U. S. A., we are every day getting back to okey again. Don't worry we can stick it if this bloody Bosch can and then some.

I am regarded as too old and stupid to do the job I used to do, that is the killing end, but I have 15 parishes of Home Guards to run besides a camp of 1,000 men. The response to demand for Home Guards was wonderful. In my little parishes of 200-400 inhabitants I got 500 men in 36 hours. We have kept parish observation posts going all this hard winter along this bitter coast warmed by men who come on duty every 4th or 5th night after doing their ordinary day's work. In my parish of 130 inhabitants we have 10 men and girls sewing in Army and Navy and 32 Home Guards at home the balance are either dying or idiots.

I have two boys in the Army and a girl nursing, the others are children.

You people keep busy passing us up the shells—we'll fire them all right, thumbs up!

Yours ever,
Phillip Hammond.

FUEL SHORTAGE HERE UNLIKELY

NO GASLESS SUNDAYS, OR IMMEDIATE LACK OF PETROLEUM; BUY COAL NOW, URGE

LANSING July 3 — No gasless Sundays are in prospect for Michigan this summer.

Furthermore, according to present indications, we are not apt to have a shortage here of petroleum products, although such may be the misfortune of the East.

This is the assurance from William Palmer, secretary, Michigan Petroleum Industries Committee, with headquarters at the capital city, Palmer, former member of the state senate for three terms, is a member of the state civil service commission.

Restrictions on the public use of gasoline and oil would be a hard blow to Michigan because of its adverse effect on the tourist business, foremost in Northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Transfer to Britain of 50 sea-going tankers is the cause of the oil transportation bottleneck.

The shortage is confined solely to the East, Palmer points out, and it has prompted introduction in Congress of the Cole bill to authorize construction of pipe lines from Texas to New York at an estimated cost of $140,000,000.

Michigan has approximately 400 miles of oil pipe lines; Standard Oil of Ohio recently acquired control of the pipe line from Mt. Pleasant to Toledo through which crude oil is transported to market. Michigan producers at Alma, St. Louis and Mt. Pleasant have been transporting crude oil from the Illinois fields for local refining. For that reason the Michigan refinery output is greater than our oil production would indicate.

Appointment of Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes as petroleum coordinator for national defense has again ushered in an era of federal control, reminiscent of the NRA days when Ickes was administrator of the oil code.

With a surplus in the Southwest and a shortage in the East, Michigan's oil industry is prospering.

Early developments in drilling test wells yielded only meager returns, and it was not until 1928 that Mt. Pleasant pool was discovered. The state's production in 1935 exceeded 15 billion barrels: in 1939 it reached an all-time high of 23 billion barrels and has since declined to a little under 20 billion barrels. (Natural gas production however, has been rising sharply.)

The production curve was declining until early this month when a substantial pool was discovered near Reed City. Drilling is now going on in 50 out of our 83 counties. As the Osceola County weekly newspaper at Reed City, proclaimed in a happy headline:

"Folks, we're in the money now."

Because organization of the Michigan Council of Defense was authorized only a month or so ago by the state legislature, confusion has been inevitable in certain national defense activities. Here are examples:

1. The state prison industries are making 10,000 arm bands for use of the American Legion in Michigan in civilian defense. Action was taken without knowledge of Col. Harold Furlong, administrator of the defense council. One reporter last week asked: "How does this fit into the council program?" The colonel had to admit "It's news to me. I learned about it for the first time in the newspapers."

2. Washington agencies have been flooding mayors for pleas to form civilian defense agencies under guidance of F. H. LaGuardia, newly appointed national director of civilian defense. Yet the defense council has been awaiting instructions from Washington as to procedure.

In a situation as unprecedented as today's mad scramble to arm ourselves overnight dizzy inconsistencies are perhaps inevitable. Colonel Furlong, fortunately, is a patient man.

According to K. T. Keller, president of the Chrysler Corporation, a shortage of tools is slowing up production of army tanks at the new arsenal. While 80 per cent of the machine tools have been installed, the assembly line is awaiting arrival of the remaining 20 per cent.

Raymond Daniell, New York Times correspondent who recently visited the Detroit arms plants, has pointed out that between blue prints and finished products there is a "tremendous time lag." New tools have been designed and made. And when the demand is ten times greater than the supply, you simply have to wait and make the best of it.

This "time lag" appears to be crux of the British problem. As Daniell aptly phrases it, "Great Britain must hold out through this Summer and Fall. This is a cold hard fact on which most of the industrialists agree."

Labor strikes in national defense plants serve only to lengthen the "time lag" a bit more. With an invasion of England being forecast by many observers, including William Shirer whom you have heard many times on the radio from Berlin, the big issue is: "Can the British hold out another three or six months?"

The recent strike of liquor store employees against the State of Michigan, declared by Attorney General Herbrt K. Rushton to be a legal impossibility, poses an interesting problem in labor relations.

The late Calvin Coolidge jumped to the White House because of national attention given to his forceful handling of the Boston police strike while he was governor.

The Michigan C. I. O. union has demanded $150-a-month minimum and $190-a-month maximum for store clerks and warehousemen. Rushton has ruled that the state cannot make wage contracts with anyone; in substance, a worker cannot strike against himself!

It is no secret that union organizers are becoming apprehensive over inroads being made by government into field of private business. They also see another rich field of payrolls available for collective bargaining.

An ironical aspect to the whole situation is that Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner is being embarrassed by the same group which he recently rebriended by successful settlement of the Ford strike at Dearborn, resulting in a C. I. O. organization victory.

The general situation was recently described by Philip Murray, president of the CIO as follows:

"It must be apparent to everyone by now that slowly and inexorably the government is assuming many of the functions which have been those of private industry.

"Whether we like it or whether we don't, it is happening. And there is no telling where or when this process will be stopped."

F. H. LaGuardia, newly appointed national director of civilian defense, came to near parting of ways with the CIO when he warned that government "does not and cannot recognize the right of any group to strike against the city."

And the New York mayor was re-elected last time on a labor ticket!

If one-tenth of the rumors are half true which were circulated openly during the 1941 legislative windup at Lansing, there would be ample basis for a grand jury inquiry into existence of so-called "slush funds."

Rep. Loomis K. Preston, St. Joseph, startled a luncheon club recently when he recited a thrilling tale of the bad, wicked state capital—how he was offered a roll of bills "big enough to choke an ox." He also confided that Rep. Gail Handy, Eau Claire, had been offered $2,000 to vote a certain way on a certain bill.

Reminded by the attorney general that it is a violation of the law for anyone to offer a bribe let alone for anyone to accept one, the Berrien county representative (incidently, an attorney) has been a bit evasive and was summoned to appear here for questioning.

Rumors of this kind have always persisted in legislative sessions, and occasionally they are manufactured deliberately for propaganda purposes. The rumors also go both ways, for example. One lobbyist confided to this writer that the 1941 session was marked by legislative attempts of a party type to "said bag" lobbyists for release of important bills from committees or to prevent their release from committee.

Preston's charges, however, were directed at what he termed "undesirable" lobbyists.

One thing is certain. Bribe rumors have been numerous, and the attorney general's office is fully aware of them.

A majority of legislators, who are both conscientious and honest, undoubtedly would welcome a thorough inquiry.

Citizens are being advised by defense agencies to lay in their winter supply of coal now.

Reason: Production at mines can be stabilized; winter shortages may be forestalled.

Today's fuel prices, however, are already higher than they were in midwinter, and further increases appear to be inevitable.

Providing summer discounts are available and "staggered" delivery can be arranged (in order to avoid another bottleneck), the state defense council concurs in the recommendation. The situation is not serious as yet, and "early birds" should be able to realize savings.
